I know you already know about the pedo people in CTR, and the crazy orgies with Trudeau and all. So your view of this is pretty important to me.

What can I expect in this vein? I was already told that he sees me moving through the ranks pretty fast just from our talks.

From what I have read in these threads and my own research you can tell how good/bad they are by their actions.

"OWO" types who started the LEO/UN are generally about pure control and are bad.

"NWO" groups are more focused on things like technological advances/things which are more likely to help humanity and bring benefits to them.

Others still might be in the game for stuff like just making money, there are groups on Wall Street into that kind of thing.

Anon5 probably could help elaborate more than I could.

HLI also mentioned Jaynes' theory of the Bicameral Mind. It was his only book recommendation. That struck me as odd. I had found the book a year prior to his threads from a nautil.us article on consciousness. The theory itself is old and wasn't getting a lot of press until very recently. I'm trying to figure out why. My guesses are that it could be either a psy-op or just a natural byproduct of the question of consciousness being brought back into light because of AI.

Nice. I did my second read-through of the book after his threads. Then I discovered a book called The Master and His Emissary by Iain McGilchrist that not only elaborated on the subject but also postulated a different overall conclusion from Jaynes' - namely that the separation between hemispheres has actually gone too far and is now hindering us. McGilchrist also did a very interesting Ted Talk on the subject:
https://www.ted.com/talks/iain_mcgilchrist_the_divided_brain

I think HLI may be involved in some branch of gnosticism, but what I found odd about him was how lot of what he said echoed Carlos Castaneda's material. This actually alarmed me a bit because Castaneda's teachings are very real and very dangerous. They're also very compatible with gnosticism.

[The image is a colorful illustration that depicts the structure of Freemasonry. At the top of the image, the title "The Structure of Freemasonry" is written in bold, black letters. Below the title, there is a large illustration of a grand staircase with various figures ascending and descending it. The figures are dressed in traditional Masonic attire, including robes, hats, and masonic symbols. The staircase is flanked by two columns, each adorned with a masonic symbol. The illustration is divided into two sections. The upper section shows the figures ascending the staircase, while the lower section depicts the figures descending the staircase. The figures are arranged in a symmetrical pattern, with some figures on the left side of the staircase and others on the right side. The background of the image is a light blue color, and there is a depiction of a large, ornate building with a clock tower in the distance. The building has a golden hue and is surrounded by a blue sky with clouds. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of vintage or historical illustrations, with a focus on the architectural details of the building and the Masonic symbolism.]

6) I'm under the impression that the jews are owned by the catholic church like the masons are do you think flat earthers are a psy-op? I'm honestly convinced that I'm peddling the truth with this stuff. the catholic church does everything it can to undermine the bible and disregard the teachings of jesus the gospel of judas predicted that all 12 disciples of jesus would be used to lead the world astray from the true path, what you said about kayne was very enlightening and gives me hope for the future.

i've been convinced through astronomy and basic logic that we live on a flat motionless plane, and the church that started the round earth lie was the original psy op as it would condition people to be told what to think, instead of how to think.

i really think the flat earth is the ultimate red pill as it completely shatters the illusion set by the forces you are fighting.

There is a difference between willingly worshiping Satan (Freemasons) and just being a naive tool. It's very important to God and Satan both that you are willingly choosing whatever path you're on. If humanity knew what they were doing, most of them would stop.

What do you think it was co-opted from? It's really just the seal of Saturn- for some reason, they worship Saturn. I'm not sure what the exact connection is, some people think the hexagonal cloud thing is a star gate of sorts, some people think (((they))) used to live on that planet, who knows though.

Oh his field research was absolutely false. He was a professional con man and a shitty human being in general. He had a little cult of gullible women and died underwhelmingly of diabetes. Pathetic little man. His work, however, is mainly stolen from G.I. Gurdjieff. My guess is that once he became involved in studying the occult and started taking drugs/doing rituals, he came into contact with a "conscious inorganic intelligence" that gave him the rest of the "practices" he put into his books. His methods are dangerous because they work. He was an embarrassment of an individual, but it doesn't make what he left behind any less of a danger for those who try it.

>The Earth isn't flat, you can go outside yourself and conduct an experiment to prove this.

look kid, you can't selectively pick the bible and pick what parts are true, and what parts aren't.

dont quote revelatiosn 2:9 and 3:9 at me without even getting it right, and disregard the rest of the bible, that makes you a stupid fucking hateful nigger when the bible tells you this is a flat motionless plane, i went outside , and conducted a million experiments to prove this, and that there is no measurable curvature peter wasn't owned by the jews. he rebuked Jesus in Matthew after Judas's betrayal, so jesus called peter for what he was, an emissary of satan. the catholic church always has been, and always will be a seat of satan due to Peter's pride, and has led all of christ's followers astray just like the gospel of judas said it would.

and to top it all off, the jews aren't jews in the first place, they're edomites, and they also reside in parts of the scotland ireland (redheads) where bestiality and wife beating are common.

Right, there is no such thing as a real Jew anymore.

What part of the Bible suggests that the Earth is flat?

"Jews" aren't a real thing, only Satanists, so I don't disagree with you about anything involving Peter of the Catholic Church, what I'm saying is that the Catholic Church doesn't own "Jews", they're just all a bunch of lying Satanists with different roles.

You're so blue pilled if you think red hair has anything to do with kikes, but you are right that there are kikes in Scotland and Ireland. Celtic culture is all derived from Satanism.

To prove that the Earth is not flat, several people need to go to different areas and at the exact same time, measure the length and angle of a shadow cast by a ruler being held upright on the ground. The more people you have, the more accurate your data will be. The shadow of each ruler will show you at what angle the sun is hitting it and by plotting all of the various measurements, you can see the shape of the Earth is a globe.

[The image is a digital illustration of a character with a predominantly dark complexion, featuring a mix of brown and black tones. The character has long, dark hair that falls over the shoulders, and the hair is styled in a way that it appears to be flowing down the sides of the face. The character's eyes are wide open, and the eyebrows are slightly raised, giving the impression of a focused or contemplative expression. The character's nose is slightly pointed, and the mouth is closed. The character's skin tone is a deep brown, and there is a red mask covering the upper half of the face, which is outlined in black. The mask has a sharp, angular design with a pointed tip. The background of the image is a gradient of dark colors, which contrasts with the character's skin tone and the red mask. There are no discernible texts or additional objects in the image. The style of the illustration is cartoon-like, with a focus on character design and expression.]

If this is a game, fine, it's a pretty good one, but if it's not, the future of Western civilization hangs in the balance. Do you really want to gamble the West on 4chan's ability to correctly interpret your little ARG?

Because right now I smell a NEET with a knack for figuring things out and ducking specific questions without invalidating what he's already said. Maybe even a NEET with computer skills who's done a bit of hacking and has some unleaked data, but certainly no insider.

They don't want people to learn that these entities of mythology are real because inevitably people will start realizing that everything could be real including all of the religious stuff. Once people are believing in Satan, God and even the possibility of the Tribulations coming to pass, they'll just start asking more and more questions and putting more puzzle pieces together and it would blow their cover.

You can find giant remains in North America, Russia, Asia, Turkey, etc. They're all over the place, don't search Google Earth that's retarded, just look it up and read about it. I posted a video above about Michael Tellinger showing a giant femur found in Turkey.

Dinosaurs are not giants birds, giant birds (called terror birds, there used to be gigantic ones all over the Earth even in the last 10,000 years that would swipe people up and kill them) are just another creature in the family of creatures that dinosaurs and things like that belong to. Notice how all of these monsters are like some sort of reptoid/amphibian esque creatures.

What real knowledge bombs have been dropped? If you were dropping anything world-shattering you would have been killed, so you're not. You're leaving a breadcrumb trail for us to follow that doesn't seem to amount to anything and distracting us with nonsense like "go look for giant fossils on Google Maps".

Post the coords if you know about this shit, we don't have time to literally scour the entire surface of the earth. At least tell me how far to zoom in, give me a continent or ocean to look in, something.

And there you go with the vague answers.

There isn't anything connecting red hair with edomites. I'd love for you to provide a source saying otherwise. The name is derived from it's founder who was named Esau because he was born "red all over"- meaning he had reddish skin. Nothing about red hair.

It's blue pilled because you don't understand that red hair has a very real and very significant history relating to the "Aryan" race, giants, Nephilim, fallen angels, etc.

I read the Bible every night, and I've never seen anything suggesting that the Earth is flat. If you're so sure I don't know what's so difficult about just citing the source.

I believe that the Earth is round because I have done the math myself and seen it with my own eyes. I don't know what else to tell you. I know that NASA is lying, I just don't think they're lying about what you think they are.

Um, I have a few more:

1 - Ok, so animals can be huge, humans were once huge, the only existing framework I think of that applies is pre-ark floods in the bible and giant creatures... Do you consider religious texts to have hints or contain historic info?

2 - Are you fond of any globalist groups?

3 - Do you know of any planned swift actions AGAINST the corrupt swamp that won't happen until Trump takes office?

4 - Google Earth? Hints at where to look?

5 - I'm gay — I know you're not actually gay, but is there a evolutionary purpose or defect being concealed from the public at large?

6 - I've asked you about religion before and you mentioned you aren't religious but respect the forces at work... Do you know more about a 'true' religion or lesser known aspect or fabric that unifies all religions?

7 - Is there hope for Muslims? Or must the ideology be completely ended?

Hey A5, I have a theory as to the whole Antarctica thing that I hope you can assist with.

There have been several sentient species that have come before man in the several eras before our rise. Many of these species went along the same path we are on now technologically speaking and eventually hit a technological singularity.

However, rather than completely evacuate the Earth, a coalition of "hyper-sentient" beings remained to assist the next era of sentient species. We are the next in line. This is where the story of gods come into play from our ancients. The feathered beings, flying chariots of fire, giants, etc. were literal documentations of events our ancestors witnessed. They have helped us through various points in history, and we are very close to reaching "hyper-sentience", allowing them reveal themselves after thousands of years of work.

The hollow earth theory is a partial truth. Partial in the sense that Earth truly is cored out with a vast network of tunnels and caverns connected various underground cities together in order to minimize surface time (and not be detected by man). The Northern and Southern poles are the largest entrances though they are still relatively small compared to some of the tunnels they connect to.

Nazis possibly accessed this network prematurely and vowed to not reveal the "prime directive" until the technological singularity occurs, then they will head the reveal, along with other humanoid species to soften the panic that always occurs around this time for all species.

Am I on to something?

source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

Globalists/Globalist Groups have so many plans(and in some cases members who have there own plans) going on, that toes tend to get stepped on & they start to mess with eachother directly and/or indirectly.

For instance, Globalists are trying to pull back from the US to reinforce the EU, however they already have multiple plans going on in the EU compromising there fall back/re-position plans.

The Globalist community isn't just "the jews" as many of you have been lead to believe, it consists of many many groups that have alot going on & different motivations/purposes. There are Mergers,Take overs,retirements, power plays, coups, infiltration, sabotage civil wars, wars, dozens to thousands of plans(varies between groups/people) etc happen behind the curtain, as much as the world stage.

The old globalist whale system is bleeding, and the newer globalist sharks of the new systems are going to take advantage of that and with each bite(depends on the shark size, including megalodon size) they will be shuffling power structures and regional controls among other things.

In the long term, making sure Trump is protected & successful during his terms in office, will benefit people on both sides of the Curtain dividing the world stage(The public systems/existence), from the back stage(Globalists systems/existence) due to positive changes & clean outs.

The point I'm trying to make is that the as interesting as the World Stage is, the Backstage is also quite interesting as time goes on Globalists/Globalist Groups have so many plans(and in some cases members who have there own plans) going on, that toes tend to get stepped on & they start to mess with eachother directly and/or indirectly.

For instance, Globalists are trying to pull back from the US to reinforce the EU, however they already have multiple plans going on in the EU compromising there fall back/re-position plans.

The Globalist community isn't just "the jews" as many of you have been lead to believe, it consists of many many groups that have alot going on & different motivations/purposes. There are Mergers,Take overs,retirements, power plays, coups, infiltration, sabotage civil wars, wars, dozens to thousands of plans(varies between groups/people) etc happen behind the curtain, as much as the world stage.

The old globalist whale system is bleeding, and the newer globalist sharks of the new systems are going to take advantage of that and with each bite(depends on the shark size, including megalodon size) they will be shuffling power structures and regional controls among other things.

In the long term, making sure Trump is protected & successful during his terms in office, will benefit people on both sides of the Curtain dividing the world stage(The public systems/existence), from the back stage(Globalists systems/existence) due to positive changes & clean outs.

The point I'm trying to make is that as interesting as the World Stage is, the Backstage is also quite interesting as time goes on

The thread did not gain traction though.

2) Look at the recent incident making waves thats BLM related, combined with the Church shooting(which was Soros backed FYI)'s trail timing.

3) Interesting.

4) Regional control & destabilization of places they don't like. Everyone circlejerks about "greater Israel", when the Saudi's can logistically pull something like that off.

5) Continued & much like new types of energy, R&D & Human understanding of tech is a bitch if you want to streamline things for public usage.

6) They would have been used already. Look, you don't steal a nuke or a group of them and just sit on them. Which means either the story was BS or they were found/returned.

Ah now this is some good fucking info, thanks.

1) been starting to document the NATO storage. They have huge facilities from the Cold War they are using.

2) Are there EU army bases that are publicly acknowledged? I'd imagine they would not be labeled as such. I'm assuming I'd find these locations in places where we have been sending tiny contingents of military forces?

Also, is it safe to assume that the Eastern European states in NATO/the EU would stick with the EU in the event of the conflict we are trying to prevent here?

In regards to that church shooter I have no idea, he certainly doesn't fit the mold of a shooter and most of the videos showing him "target practicing" are just him shooting a pistol into the ground 5 feet away in his yard. It doesn't add up.

>Globalists/Globalist Groups have so many plans(and in some cases members who have there own plans) going on, that toes tend to get stepped on & they start to mess with eachother directly and/or indirectly.
>For instance, Globalists are trying to pull back from the US to reinforce the EU, however they already have multiple plans going on in the EU compromising there fall back/re-position plans.

>The Globalist community isn't just "the jews" as many of you have been lead to believe, it consists of many many groups that have alot going on & different motivations/purposes. There are Mergers,Take overs,retirements, power plays, coups, infiltration, sabotage civil wars, wars, dozens to thousands of plans(varies between groups/people) etc happen behind the curtain, as much as the world stage.
>The old globalist whale system is bleeding, and the newer globalist sharks of the new systems are going to take advantage of that and with each bite(depends on the shark size, including megalodon size) they will be shuffling power structures and regional controls among other things.
>In the long term, making sure Trump is protected & successful during his terms in office, will benefit people on both sides of the Curtain dividing the world stage(The public systems/existence), from the back stage(Globalists systems/existence) due to positive changes & clean outs.
>The point I'm trying to make is that the as interesting as the World Stage is, the Backstage is also quite interesting as time goes on

That's what I'm thinking. Here's my speculation on it, I'd like to hear yours if possible.

- Use the left to set an absolutely horrific tone for what "their" globalism would be like (mass immigration, potential terrorist attacks, MASSIVE moral declines, massive amounts of degeneracy, Communism, poverty, etc.).

- Give the general public a taste of it (the past 8 years within Europe/America/Canada/Australia/etc).

- Globalists know the average human being will reject this proposal obviously.

- After rejecting liberal globalism, globalists offer the general public a much more conservative globalist proposal (knowing the public would much rather have it, than the liberal one offered before).

- All in all, Conservative Globalism (something the public would've NEVER accepted before all of this began) is now accepted with open arms by the general public.

What do you think?

Start the porn discussion, I'm curious, how much are these various porn types, particularly the extra degenerate variety (bdsm, interracial, traps, furries etc) being brought forth from higher ups with a social agenda? Is the porn addiction factor similar to the "birth control fucking up women" thing that you've touched on? If someone has been highly addicted to porn, can they eventually return to normal or does the adrenal overload fuck your brain completely (a la drugged feminists).

Please tell me the brains neuroplasticity can overcome porn even if it won't let women overcome birth control brain damage.

your mistake is thinking all the global elites are on one side.

the "conservative" GE's support compartmentalization, as opposed to the "liberal" GE's who support one big pie.

We're all useful idiots to them, but I do personally side with the compartmentalization method on a "this will work better" point of view.

The word "dinosaur" is incorrect for several reasons:

1) "saur" just means old.

2) In dinosaur names(such as T-rex) it means "lizard", which is incorrect since Dinosaurs are Birds.

3) Dinosaurs have always had Quills/feathers, but everyone was so focused on the bones & not looking at the rocks around them to find that out.(And in some cases when they found out, they covered it up & various private collectors have proof showing that feathers & quills have always been around).

Also Wikileaks was asking specifically for information about obama administrators destroying info. it seems as though the reward was a bit low considering the risk of leaking such information. Do you think they know something/someone and are trying to entice them out of the woodwork?

Being Psyoped is always a danger, after all even you can be a psy-op. I'm just trying to dig into all resources available to me before I decide to trust them.

I'm aware that an interview was conducted but technology capable of faking the interview exists. Additionally I have yet to hear a reasonable explanation to the two questions I asked. Assassination is an ok response to the window question but not the PGP key question.

Additionally why would the globalist factions turn Assange into a Martyr? I guess they could be threatening assassination to prevent his POF as part of the psyop.

Care to weigh in further?

So from my understanding regarding this recent kidnapping - Soros, through BLM finds some chiraq "kids" and puts them in a scenario in which they are to torture and execute a white male while live on FB. This blows up, and most likely would be the last straw for many far-right types. They would then show up to the poor neighbourhoods of Chicago, start shooting, the patrons of the hood shoot back and bam there's a racewar to profit from? Did these "kids", through their misguided actions just prevent a racewar, thus making them good guys?

Well, look at it this way. You're comparing this to a stump that's been clearly created by a chainsaw. So you'd have to believe in some really big chainsaws or axes and some really big people wielding them. And then you'd have to wonder where their bones went and why there aren't more of these stumps around.

Also could family crests and country's national animal be a sign of alignment? I.E: The crest of the British Royals is three lions, China a dragon?

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

Look at the designs/appearances & actions/motivations of the characters.

The Batman(The Right) wants Justice & to keep things safe from people like The Joker(The Left).

[The image is a black and white diagrammatic representation of a complex system, likely a conceptual model or a flowchart, with various interconnected elements and labels. The diagram is divided into two main sections, labeled "psy-war" and "bio-war," with a sub-section labeled "psy-war bio-war." The "psy-war" section includes a series of boxes and arrows, each labeled with a symbol or icon, suggesting a flow of information or a process. The "bio-war" section has a similar structure, with boxes and arrows, but the labels are different, indicating a different aspect or phase of the system. The diagram is filled with text, which appears to be a list of terms or concepts related to the system, such as "psy-war," "psy-war bio-war," "psy-war

Hey Anon5 I just wasted the past hour on your archived thread about dinosaurs trying to figure out what the fuck you were even on about since you dimissed every possible implication presented to you with just repeating "No, dinosaurs = birds" over and over again. What the fuck are you smoking and where do I get some?

Alternatively if you're willing to actually divulge information and not just give unfalsifiable vague nonanswers, are any of the following true?

>Dinosaurs being large birds, coupled with the existence of large plants and large insects in those times, implies the existence of larger versions of all animals, which implies giant humans.
>Large, carnivorous birds without feathers would account for dragons as referenced in myths around the world.

Are either of these correct?

Let me explain.

All Dinosaurs had feathers/quills.

The "Saur" in Dinosaur is incorrect due to "Sasur" just meaning old or in some dinosaur names Lizard. Which is incorrect since Dinosaurs are Birds.

That is all the thread was about.

Also "Dragons" are really about people digging up dinosaur skeletons and seeing feater/quill & skin impressions around the bones.

Thats where the myths & Stories about Dragons came from.

Aaaah i have things to do.

You said that empowering Western Women was done to create a reaction in White Males and crush them.

So let's analize Gamer Gate:
>identify a high concentration of WM spending their life playing videogames >insert WW in the industry, empower them, create scandal >now you have a lot of enraged WM
>reapeat with Ghostbusters 2016
And so on.

Now you said that this social engineering got mixed up with someone who had different reasons to push women empowering. I'm gonna assume it's the feminist globalist group you talked about, the 8 goddesses or wathever.

Now another country where the 8 goddesses operated was South Korea. If i remembly correctly feminists started passing some retarded laws against Playstation store. Probably it wasn't even intentional and they were just trying to sabotage Japanese competition. But maybe just maybe it was the testing ground for Gamer Gate.

You have yet to provide any explanation whatsoever as to why calling a dinosaur a dinosaur would cause a different effect than calling it an ancient bird. There is no reason to believe marketing shit like Jurassic Park and calling them ancient birds wouldn't have had the exact same effect. Stop giving nonanswers.

Grew up in Canada, and will never forget:

The day a clear blue sky in August suddenly turned into a hailstorm, with the persistent hum of a diesel truck off tempo resonating from within our skulls. Everyone ran outside to look at the giant black cloud tube that had formed, and the red falling leaf looking ufos that were hovering around the mountains. A few weeks later a huge gold deposit was discovered in our town. I think it was HAARP

[The image is a digital illustration featuring a tank that appears to be in a state of disrepair. The tank is predominantly gray with visible rust and wear, and it has a large gun mounted on its side. The tank's tracks are visible, and there are several small details that suggest wear and tear, such as rust and discoloration. In the foreground, there is a green figure of a frog with a surprised expression, holding a green slingshot. The frog is wearing a blue shirt and has a green hat on its head. The slingshot is pointed towards the tank, indicating that the frog is attempting to launch a projectile at the tank. The background of the image is a plain, light blue color, which contrasts with the gray of the tank and the green of the frog's figure. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. One thing the shills never do is attack deep foundations in your arguments and they never observe the Principle of Charity. They just flail at surface structures and/or distract with the /pol/ equivalent of stupid fart jokes.

But never any focused, reasoned arguments that ever involve you getting any credit for things getting to this point of general notoriety. Even a troll would respect what you've done even if they think it's just trolling. Paid shills are so easy to spot, aren't they?

Maybe I'm going way ahead over this, but it is my understanding that one of the lesser known roots of the name America, for the continent, is the native word "Amarauca", which means "Land of the feathered snakes". Quetzacoatl is depicted as that from what I remember.

So who benefits from hiding the feathers?

Motivations of the joker.
The Joker simply believes in chaos and disorder while Batman stands for justice. These two concepts are diametrically opposed to one another in Nolan's Batman universe, and it leads to a perfectly natural, completely inevitable collision between the two that doesn't feel forced or artificial in the least. It's simply what has to happen: a clash between 'an unstoppable force and an immovable object,' and it makes all the sense in the world that it plays out the way it does.

This supposed ambiguous motivation works so well precisely because the plot eventually becomes centered on this very question. We're actually meant to struggle with the question of 'What is motivating the villain?' while the protagonist does as well.

The brilliance of having this kind of villain is that, even when he's in the middle of his cat-and-mouse game with Batman, he's free to make a point about the morality of Gotham's citizens.

The Joker's actions have an incredibly far-reaching, unforeseen effect as Batman is forced to give up any pretense of being a hero in the public's eye and falsely accept the blame for Harvey Two-Face's death and his crimes. It's safe to say that had the Joker's motivations been anything else or less defined, none of this would have been possible. This Batman stays true to his character as he sacrifices almost everything he has left in order to protect the people and city he loves.

How accurate is this theory?

The "modern left" has more and more crazies thinking they're "on the right side of history" everyday due to frontal lobe damage and social engineering.
Every few weeks or so the leftist government or leftist mainstream media will push some non-issue into the public zeitgeist that only these crazies could or would care about.
Through the response to their fake "cause of the month" on social media / in protests etc they are able to gauge how much of the population is essentially already at the "good goy" stage of social engineering.
No critical thinking skills, weak willed, controlled by dopamine receptors, emotions and the need to fit in socially.

They are constantly doing this to get a feel for how much of the population is still of good moral / mental stock. Once the crazies reach critical mass, an event will be triggered (IE fake alien invasion or nuclear war). In the resultant chaos, the crazies will be used to attack and remove the last few good guys and gals.

NWO engaged, since no one will have the mental facilities to try and make meaningful change.

OP I'm sorry people have been so hateful towards you. I can tell you're young and starting to wake up, wrestling with the cognitive dissonance you are experiencing.

You're putting the pieces in the right place, but missing the big picture. The Joker was never intended to symbolize the left nor Batman the right. They are not political allegory, but there was a more Gnostic intent.

Batman symbolizes the rebellious and virtuous American, specifically he is the American spirit. He lives for REVENGE and has NO FEAR. This has special meaning in certain occult circles.

Check out this article, Jay's Analysis is always spot fucking on:

https://jaysanalysis.com/2011/02/23/batman-and-the-joker-as-the-apollodionysos-archetypes/

<Batman and The Joker are facing (The Joker upside down), which makes for a very yin-yang imagery: as above, so below. The Joker reveals that he doesn’t want to destroy Batman. He needs Batman. And they are destined to partake in this Apollonian/Dionysian duality duel for eternity. Their Nietzschean relationship has come full circle.

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

The Globalist use The Left as a destabilization movement, destroying society both figurative & literal. The Left in the grand scheme are use Useful/Expendable Idiots, but The Left have killed many Millions in History.They are extremely volatile & even will turn on themselves.

The Left are made progressively(and are moving to be) more Radical to point(which we are starting to see now due to the results of multi-prong Social Engineering) they are becoming Terrorists & working with Islamic terrorists to destroy the West. Soon you will see terrorism committed by The Left. They are a internal/traitor force working with foreign threats to destroy the Tribe of the West.

While the Globalists use The Right as a "clean up" operation of The Left when needed, The Right is handled differently & what is done to it is different.

The Right is kept contained/held back & passive/non-violent, exploiting there Morals & good natures. It is done because The Right gets progressively more battle-hardened & more aware of tactics being used against it(such as to try to break it up) overtime, making them able to resist Globalist actions significantly more then the general population & most certainly The Left.

The Globalist use The Left as a destabilization movement, destroying society both figurative & literal. The Left in the grand scheme are use Useful/Expendable Idiots, but The Left have killed many Millions in History.They are extremely volatile & even will turn on themselves.

The Left are made progressively(and are moving to be) more Radical to point(which we are starting to see now due to the results of multi-prong Social Engineering) they are becoming Terrorists & working with Islamic terrorists to destroy the West. Soon you will see terrorism committed by The Left. They are a internal/traitor force working with foreign threats to destroy the Tribe of the West.

While the Globalists use The Right as a "clean up" operation of The Left when needed, The Right is handled differently & what is done to it is different.

The Right is kept contained/held back & passive/non-violent, exploiting there Morals & good natures. It is done because The Right gets progressively more battle-hardened & more aware of tactics being used against it(such as to try to break it up) overtime, making them able to resist Globalist actions significantly more then the general population & most certainly The Left.

Human pheromones aren't widely studied in universities, but maybe they're just hiding it. There's very little information you can get from the perfume industry and pheromone colognes seem rare and expensive.

Hello, the term globalists seems like it is a vague catch all. I like history and was just wondering if you could use the Roman civil wars as an analogy for the current struggle for global dominion. As there was caesarian faction vs. Pompeian faction, then later Augustus vs. Antony. They would both be soliciting backing from various other powers around the ancient world like the ptolomeys in Egypt who played a roll in both wars. Also just as another example, Crassus was killed on his expedition against Parthia, I don't find it that far-fetched to believe that Caesar or Pompey had some sort of deal or non-aggression pact etc with the Parthians as thanks for the elimination of one of the triumvirs.

Is this a good way of thinking about the globalist structure? Some of the more obvious ones are the Saudis/Muslim Brotherhood, and then I guess there would also be technocrats, Russian groups, Chinese groups, Indians, etc. Lots of shifting alliances/betrayals out of convenience/necessity/opportunity.
Hope that makes sense, sorry if kind of rambling.
Also in another thread you mentioned globalists have their own memes. Are you just trolling us for you and your globalist buddies lulz are you ;__;?

I agree with everything you said about the Jewish conspiracy psyop, but that doesn't preclude facing the facts of such high percentage of Jews occupying high levels of entertainment, media, and finance to achieve treasonous aims, consciously or not.

So wouldn't ethnically cleansing America be an optimum strategy if proper patriotic leadership was in place?

1. Will the EU cave or not?
2. If they don't cave, will Trump make good on his threat?
3. If Trump does make good on his threat, will he replace NATO with other, perhaps smaller allegiances?

And since the left is beginning to reach Khmer Rouge levels of violence

Here's a little bit I know from reading since that one knowledge bomb where you mentioned pheromones.

-Androstenol is a potent male pheromone and some colognes have it. I haven't seen any actual research on men producing it, just small studies of men getting cologne. But how do they produce the androstenol for the cologne?
I ordered one androstenol cologne online and I'm going to try it. I work in a restaurant so I have to deal with a lot of customers.

-Testosterone (and male sweat) smells sweet to most women. I can't stand the smell of other men. They don't smell sweet to me, just strong, unpleasant body odor.
My ex-girlfriend used to wear all my dirty laundry after I threw it in the hamper. She would keep doing this for weeks even if the clothes reeked of body odor and I wanted to wash them.

-There's something about the Old Spice smell. Some women love it and the rest don't care.

The Globalist use The Left as a destabilization movement, destroying society both figurative & literal. The Left in the grand scheme are use Useful/Expendable Idiots, but The Left have killed many Millions in History.They are extremely volatile & even will turn on themselves.

The Left are made progressively(and are moving to be) more Radical to point(which we are starting to see now due to the results of multi-prong Social Engineering) they are becoming Terrorists & working with Islamic terrorists to destroy the West. Soon you will see terrorism committed by The Left. They are a internal/traitor force working with foreign threats to destroy the Tribe of the West.

While the Globalists use The Right as a "clean up" operation of The Left when needed, The Right is handled differently & what is done to it is different.

The Right is kept contained/held back & passive/non-violent, exploiting there Morals & good natures. It is done because The Right gets progressively more battle-hardened & more aware of tactics being used against it(such as to try to break it up) overtime, making them able to resist Globalist actions significantly more then the general population & most certainly The Left.

Diversity + Proximity = War

Thomas Jefferson recognized and remarked that black and white people would never be able to coexist peacefully in the same state.

I am looking clearly at the state of affairs. The sheer amount of Jews operating at the highest levels of many crucial industries and spewing their Cultural Marxist cancer cannot be disguised or thrown under the rug. They, along with many others; are corroding our civilization's very foundation. So my question is this:

Given a New American Revolution, globalist gangsters are removed from possessing any influence over our government or our military, would it not make sense to implement National Socialism and create a stronger race? Even without murder, mandated emigration to Israel or Africa. How would that not create a healthier and more cohesive country?

Roman elites split into factions and solicit support from various powerful interest groups (merchants/foreign kingdoms/etc) eventually leading to a. civil wars for supremacy of Rome (fall of the republic, Augustus becomes first emperor.)

Just wondering if that would be a good analogy for current world situation, just mentioned potential globalists groups like Saudis/Muslim Brotherhood, technocrats, Russians, Chinese, etc. Power ebbing and flowing between different alliances of convenience/necessity/mutual goals in a shadow war for global supremacy.

The last part was a joke, you mentioned that globalists have their own memes, and was wondering if you are just trolling us for lulz.

Does a major part of the globalists exploitation of the left/right centre around responsibility? Seems like the right is almost conditioned to not only take responsibility for their own actions, but the actions of others in some cases.

The lefts seem to shirk responsibility for their own, and their group's collective actions every chance they get. I'm starting to believe the entirety of the modern leftist political platforms revolves around taking no responsibility for anything, taking away responsibility from minorities, and a perpetual victim complex causing them to see everyone not identical to themselves as enemies.

Mr 5, some things seem really fishy about Girl Meets World.

Rowan Blanchard (Riley) looks like she could be Ben Savage's (Cory) daughter. Most of the young actors seem way too good at their parts, like this is how they are in real life. They're not acting.

And the show being cancelled so soon? Rowan is being groomed to be a feminist icon and she was at the march yesterday. She's only 15 and she is way too good an actor, not to mention how fast they seem to be promoting her. I'm going to follow her and see if there's any pizza stuff I can uncover.

Sabrina Carpenter's (Maya) performance seemed way too real, like she really did grow up with an absent father and overworked mother. She's from the Lehigh Valley area (Taylor Swift was born in Wyomissing) and she got discovered after participating in a singing contest hosted by Miley Cyrus? And she became a popstar in her tweens? Sounds like a cover story.

It's a shame because Girl Meets World is a really well-written show. But I'm going to keep digging.

the guys are junkies and goons from local gangs and criminals that get to fuck these girls as a reward for doing really fucked up shit elsewhere.

I agree with every word in the OP those are just facts of life

the left are turning into intolerable radicals, the very opposite of their original democratic ideals and as cautious as I am, and weary of their next move, can't help but think that the war's been won, the war's been won ever since they parted with common sense

they're killing themselves in retaliation to their own delusions

interesting. is this just for the big multibillion blockbusters, or does it also count for smaller auteur/independent/arthouse stuff (i would assume it depends)?

what about Christopher Nolan? i've also gotten the vibe from him and his movies that he's a pretty conservative guy, in an old-fashioned family values kind of way who's method of making movies and message contained within seems subtly but definitely divergent from the Nu-Hollywood ideology and way of doing things. if i'm not completely far off in my assessment of the man, how did he get to be like the biggest director in the business? what is his relationship with the rest of the (((industry))) behind the scenes?

You can help them by your default proximity to their life. That already right there gives you a huge advantage.

First have it be known that you are an upstanding and outstanding individual. Then let it be known that you believe certain things that are unexpected. Don't push it though. It really takes alot of trust, an unordinary amount, before someone will listen to a "conspiracy theorist" seriously.

It sucks, but the power of the illuminati is such that you are forced to operate in the Overton Window they set, at least for awhile. But you can still have a great impact in that window, if you're smart enough and knowledgeable enough.

It's important to emphasize in this that our goal includes converting white women to our point of view, not alienating them categorically and creating another Team A vs Team B mutually exclusive, utterly fruitless identity conflict in society.

I.E. don't just attack them like a mad animal. Do it in a way that actually converts them to our outlook. Every woman on our side will bring 5 more, because they are conditioned to pay more attention to things other women say, compared to us.

Dark occultists who rule the world rule on creating an imbalance between these principles. The left is overtly nice, and the right is overtly authoritarian and sometimes destructive. When you mix thewm together (national socialism) you get a wondrous society, which could propel humanity to great things. The dark occultists don't want that, because it would mean their power would be lost over the masses. Why do you think the WHOLE WORLD fought against the national socialists?

Website run by some Sorcha Faal. I read it daily, and they really write interesting stuff connecting all daily events to incredible "high level insider" information from Russian Security Council. They cite sources from all kinds of links and connect the dots, such as, that Obama and Trump worked together to bring down the Clintons and Bushes, which is why Bush Senior didn't show up to the inauguration, because he 'went into hiding.'

Is this website a honepot/ LARP / or actually has truth to it?

Right, well like papa Soros, I am learning with each time I do a test run.

Next time we will not be so sloppy. We really left ourselves open to media attacks by focusing too much on that pizza place.

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

In the 2016 Election they over-committed/extended, and that ended up being the straw the broke the camels back for some of them. Before the 2016 Election they were declining for various reasons(such as newer/other globalist & tech) but they had so much riding on Hillary getting in that when she lost, it messed them up.

Which is why you are seeing them working with Asian Globalist groups(This relates to the Rise in China & all the regional power plays around it) now. Expect some eventually double crossing on both sides, especially since the US/EU Globalist groups(Who are working with the Asian ones) need the Asian Globalist groups more then the other way around. The EU/NA Globalists involved also screwed themselves in a way if the Asian Globalists cross them, take them over or go after them, due to them burning many bridges with US/EU Leaderships and other EU/US Globalist groups.

As for Soros(George & Alex), Destabilization is what they do. US & EU destabilization efforts are still going on & en progress. They see chaos as a opportunity & a business.

one of the other threads you talked about climate change/renewable energy being a hoax to try to thwart industry/energy production that sounds really retarded though mainly because the main concern is changing the way we go about get energy to one that does not pollute or run out rather than limiting energy production

I believe you also said that China is pushing it because they specifically want to cripple our industry, but if that's true why are they leading the charge for renewable energy for themselves?

Keep in mind that their destabilization is selective with purpose. Soros wants a world where he and others like him can literally live as the International Jew, traversing across borders unhindered, commanding acceptance with locals as a fellow citizen, or better yet, as a privileged minority with special protections, manipulating local politics and social trends as he sees fit for fun and profit. And when things get a little hot in a certain country, he can simply waltz across the border to the next one, tug at the right connections to mobilize their armies, crush the rebellion and have them secure and protect his investments. And on top of it all is Israel, purely Jewish, sanctuary and untouchable base of operations for pulling all the strings.

He's controlled opposition, he's harnessing the popular resentment to globalism and convincing people that they have won and beaten globalism. In reality, the jews are still working behind the scenes and globalism cannot be stopped. You must understand that globalism is inevitable and we are already 99.9% of the way there. No, any perceived move against Israel by Soros is part of the controlled opposition charade. He was pretty quick to pull back funding when the Femen (an organization created by him) planned a protest in Israel.

http://www.dailystormer.com/femen-says-george-soros-wont-fund-them-anymore-because-theyre-opening-a-branch-in-israel/

The rest of his initiatives in Israel are pretty half-assed and ineffective, just enough to make the news but facilitates no political or social change. Almost like a half-assed attempt to prevent everyone from wising up to the fact that there is a Jewish conspiracy to destroy gentile cultural identity.

It has large, round eyes and a small, black nose. The character's mouth is open, revealing its teeth, and it appears to be smiling. The character's ears are large and point upwards. The background is a solid blue color, and there is a pinkish-brown structure or object to the right of the character, which seems to be a part of the illustration. The character's position and expression suggest a sense of joy or excitement. There are no texts present in the image.]

See if your insurance can cover you seeing a behavioral therapists. They are hit or miss for some people, but to have a specialist who cna help you overcome your anxiety by merely asking the right questions to make you think about them helps big time.

I had panic attacks here and there and what helped me was having a routine (exercise, mediation, eating right) as well as always making sure the things I do lead up to achieve my goals. Staying still and not going anywhere are the catalysts towards depression and anxiety.

have you looked into this yet?

$6 Trillion In US Bonds Seized In Zurich, Said To Pose "Severe Threats To International Financial Stability"
Back in the summer of 2009, a peculiar story circulated when two Japanese individuals were arrested trying to smuggle $134 billion in US bonds into Switzerland from Italy. The story quickly died down after it was subsequently reported that the bonds were merely fake bearer bonds. Nobody heard much about it since then. Until today, when out of the blue we get a new story which blows that one out of the water. According to Bloomberg, "Italian anti-mafia prosecutors said they seized a record $6 trillion of allegedly fake U.S. Treasury bonds, an amount that’s almost half of the U.S.’s public debt." From here the story just gets weirder: "The bonds were found hidden in makeshift compartments of three safety deposit boxes in Zurich

The U.S. embassy in Rome has examined the securities dated 1934, which had a nominal value of $1 billion apiece
And really, really weird: "The fraud posed “severe threats” to international financial stability, the prosecutors said in the statement." Ok great, however one thing we don't get is just how can $6 trillion in glaringly fake bombs be a "threat to international financial stability."
Phony U.S. securities have been seized in Italy before and there were at least three cases in 2009. Italian police seized phony U.S. Treasury bonds with a face value of $116 billion in August of 2009 and $134 billion of similar securities in June of that year. The U.S. Secret Service averages about 100 cases a year related to bonds and other fictitious instruments.
As a reminder, total US debt in circulation is just over $10 trillion. So if the allegedly "fake" bonds were sufficiently threatening to put international financial stability at risk, just what is going on here?

2) Also they have things that speed up the birthing process if the women don't want to speed up the pregnancy. So they could have a normal pregnancy, but have a fast birth.

Some cases its a combination both being speed up, but that depends on the individual.

Is there any connection between Goons and Soros?

Why would they create this zombie virus? Backup plan for population control ? A means to throw their country into chaos ? Or just fear ?

Does research into this have anything to do with the supposed Ebola outbreak in west Africa that suddenly was solved once American troops passed by ?

Is the Bill Gates foundation involved in bio weapons research ? Is this research done in the poor countries?

The Rothschild's focus on Banks/Finance, The Rockefellers focus on Business. The Soros focus on Destabilization.

Destabilization is a business for The Soros. While the CIA destabilizes governments for the US government, The Soros destabilizes countries/regions for other Globalists.(Which means if you bring The Soros down, you bring those Globalists down).

Color Revolutions/Coups/Civil Wars are all tactics The Soros use. Funding hundreds of protest networks, using PMC/Black Op's forces to cause fighting between countries & creating feelings of unrest are just the norm for The Soros depending on the operation.

George Soros needs no introduction at this point, Its his whole family(Not just Alex) that needs more spotlight.

Alex Soros is been groomed to take over Georges operation. He's been quite active in the US operations going all the way back to BLM, even being on the ground in the Protests(He blends in with the other Numales/Beta's) helping with organization/supervision directly. (Alex also has a personal hatred of Milo, which is why he was at Berkeley helping the other protest/riot organizers & why some Soros money/connections were involved in the smear campaign against Milo).

Now The Soros aren't the only group that does destabilization, but they are the largest. Which means that if they were removed it would create a power vacuum that would reveal many different forces and individuals.

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

Yes, I have checked her eyes and she's never wearing any lenses and her eyes were dark blue around 3 years ago (she was 22, now 25). She recently asked me out to watch the film "Split" and she said that it's a less fantasy version of that.

This POS went to Soros to get his "blessing" on the plan about weed legalization/state distribution laws.

What is Soros' endgame when it comes to promoting weed legalization, does he have any other plans for the region?

Biokinesis allegedly means complete control over one's body by shifting it with your "mind". Monks have proved to be able to changed their heart rate and blood pressure at complete will, without moving. Some speculate this ability goes much further, but ultimately never became anything but pseudoscience... with a few exemptions like using hyponsis with surgery and so.

A few years ago (since around 2009) I've been reading people online claim this ability can change what is considered unalterable traits by thought alone, like making your hair go completely white over a few weeks or months (without chemicals, only though), changing eye colour, whitening the skin, helping repair wounds, etc.

I ask about it because I have seen, in person, what seems to be a reliable case of it in my friend's eyes.

There are binaural tones that claim to achieve similar things. If there's any legitimacy to it, they probably have the same mechanic behind it.

Binaural tones are shown to affect brainwaves and help induce relaxation, but them being capable of causing specific physical changes seems an extremely bold claim.

Now that I've been looking, I see constant use of these tactics, and I truly believe tham to be demonic, evil whatever you wanna call it. They are designed to destroy relationships and society and culture and humanity. Its mindblowing.

My father died in October, he was a communist and a cuckhold, the most unrepenant shameless evil man I've ever met, and he used Alinsky's playbook, whether he had read it or not. I'm really starting to think that some people channel evil to gain power.

[The image is a black and white photograph depicting a group of people gathered in a wooded area during the evening. The photograph is taken from a distance, capturing the entire scene. The people are standing in a semi-circle formation, with some individuals facing the camera and others turned away. The trees in the background are dense and tall, suggesting a forested area. The photograph is mounted on a white background with a ruler at the bottom, indicating that it is a color photograph. The image has a vintage or historical quality, with a grainy texture that suggests it may be an old photograph. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. The style of the photograph is candid and appears to capture a moment in time, possibly during a gathering or event.]

Hi Anon5. Good work.

What is the significance of the Israeli Supreme Court having a massive pyramid with an all-seeing-eye (just Google it, it's huge) breaching its roof? This Court was solely funded and designed by Dorothy Rothschild.

Why do Israelis not discuss this oddity on their highest court? Why do so few people on /pol, even, lack awareness about it?

Is this the Cult of the All-Seeing Eye? If so/not, does this Court have a sinister purpose reserved in the future?

2. Do you believe the pop singer Aaliyah was murdered right before 9/11 as a message to Hebrews worldwide that a massive event was forthcoming to lead them to aliyah...a return to the Holy Land, the very meaning of the singer's name (which she was not aware of, until repeatedly asked/pestered about it by press)? If so, was she groomed for this purpose? Her last movie was 'Queen of the Damned' after all, released posthumously.

Thx!!

The garden is well-maintained, with a variety of trees and plants visible in the background. In the bottom right corner of the image, there is a color-coded scale indicating the density of the foliage, with the scale ranging from 0 to 10, with 0 being the lightest and 10 being the darkest. The scale is marked with a series of colors, including red, yellow, green, blue, and purple, which correspond to the density of the foliage. The photograph is taken from a slightly elevated angle, providing a comprehensive view of the garden and the group of people. The style of the image is reminiscent of historical or vintage photographs, with a focus on the subjects and their attire, which suggests a theme of cultural or historical significance. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image.]

We know when someone has real info to share they dump it, not get you to spend literally hours digging through old shit. That's what a shill would have you do. Every topic is of some conspiracy, playing right in to some of the people on this boards paranoia

Fair enough, but look at it this way: Open the catalog and see how many slide threads are up, 24/7... I would rather bump and post on a thread that might get the people we actually -need- to open their minds, those in the fence, to reconsider their stance and maybe someone with enough interest will google Soros and jump straight into that rabbit hole. This are the people that can still be saved.

Way better use (at least in my case) that arguing on most thread trying to prove their wrong with actual evidence, that they won't read / will purposefully dismiss / etc. At least here I get curious whether something is true or not and dig around. It's like an old school text game.

I am quite literally triggered by this. Anon5 shouldn't be so goddamn hostile to skepticism if he: 1) has legit info to give us and 2) is being so extremely vague. Instead anyone that criticizes his narrative in the slightest way is named CTR, shareblue and/or a shill.

That's not to say there isn't shilling going on, but when you're being as generally vague as Anon5 is, and on an anonymous board where LARPing is a real possibility, people SHOULD be skeptical of what they read.

>inb4 shill

If good things come out of his threads for some people fine, but for the love of god not everyone who is mistrustful of his "knowledge bombs" is subverted or a shill...We have plenty of reasons to be skeptical.
Boy am I tired of that.

The Rothschild's focus on Banks/Finance, The Rockefellers focus on Business. The Soros focus on Destabilization.

Destabilization is a business for The Soros. While the CIA destabilizes governments for the US government, The Soros destabilizes countries/regions for other Globalists.(Which means if you bring The Soros down, you bring those Globalists down).

Color Revolutions/Coups/Civil Wars are all tactics The Soros use. Funding hundreds of protest networks, using PMC/Black Op's forces to cause fighting between countries & creating feelings of unrest are just the norm for The Soros depending on the operation.

George Soros needs no introduction at this point, Its his whole family(Not just Alex) that needs more spotlight.

Alex Soros is been groomed to take over Georges operation. He's been quite active in the US operations going all the way back to BLM, even being on the ground in the Protests(He blends in with the other Numales/Beta's) helping with organization/supervision directly. (Alex also has a personal hatred of Milo, which is why he was at Berkeley helping the other protest/riot organizers & why some Soros money/connections were involved in the smear campaign against Milo).

Now The Soros aren't the only group that does destabilization, but they are the largest. Which means that if they were removed it would create a power vacuum that would reveal many different forces and individuals.

[The image is a tarot card featuring a green frog-like creature with a surprised expression, holding a flaming torch in its right hand. The creature is wearing a red and gold sash around its waist. The background is a faded yellow with a textured appearance, and there is a black border at the top and bottom. The card has a title at the top in gold lettering that reads "Kek." Below the creature, there is a red and gold banner with the word "Kek" in gold lettering. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of traditional tarot cards, with a focus on the mystical and fantastical elements.]

I read the Hitler one and the Jew psyop one. There's no evidence to back any of it up. Population records don't support a systematic killing of Jews period, and since it never happened, you can't say it arabs did it since it never happened. And they were just internment camps. There's a mountain of source material to support that.

And ALL the globalists that control the government, liberals or neocons, are either Jews or gentiles.

And whenever you get challenged, you either call someone a shill or are answer with something super vague.

[The image is a black and white line drawing of a character with a simplistic and cartoon-like style. The character has a large, round head with a single, prominent eye and a small, round nose. The character's mouth is open, revealing teeth, and it appears to be in a state of surprise or excitement. The character's hands are clasped together in front of them, and the character's body is slightly bent forward, suggesting a posture of anticipation or surprise. The character's skin is smooth and unblemished, and the lines are clean and clear, indicating a high level of detail in the drawing. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the drawing is reminiscent of early 20th-century comic book art, with a focus on character expression and movement.]

[The image features a cartoon-style illustration of a brown beaver with a surprised expression. The beaver has large, black eyes and a wide-open mouth, giving it a surprised or alarmed look. Its fur is a rich brown color, and it has a tuft of fur on its head. The beaver is facing the viewer, with its body oriented towards the left side of the image. In the background, there is a large red maple leaf, which is a symbol of Canada. The leaf is outlined in white, and it is positioned to the right of the beaver. The maple leaf is a prominent feature in the background, suggesting that the beaver is in a Canadian setting. The image does not contain any text or additional elements. The style of the image is cartoonish, with a focus on the beaver's facial expression and the maple leaf in the background. The colors used are warm and earthy, with the brown of the beaver's fur contrasting with the red of the maple leaf. The overall composition of the image suggests a playful or humorous take on the Canadian flag.]

This is going to go over all Regions the globalists operate in and/or originate from(depending on the group).

1) North America (US/Can/Mex have relations, however US is the Primary & Can is connected to the European ones & Mexico the South American ones)

2) Europe(UK/Mainland Europe/Russia have relations, however Mainland Europe is the Primary that has battled for control of Europe with the UK(which is a secondary Primary) over the years. Russia tends to either be working with Mainland Europe or doing its own thing.(This naturally as varied over the years with the WW's,Conflicts, etc))

Turkey is between Europe & the Middle East, which makes it a powerful location.

3) Middle East(SA/Israel/Misc Arabic have relations. SA & Israel are Primary's that tend to fight over regional influence/direction. Misc Arabic consists of all other Muslim Countries in the Middle East for a wide variety of things & with many different connections)

4) Africa (North Africa/South Africa/Misc Africa have relations. North Africa(From Morocco to Libya/Egypt) would be considered the Primary due to the connections to Europe & Middle East. South Africa is the second Primary. Misc Africa has been cutting resource deals for years to all Regions, and just recently some big ones for Asia/China.)

5) Asia (China/SK/Japan/Misc Asian have relations. China is the Primary, SK & Japan have connections to the North America ones & the Misc Asian have connections to SK/Japan & China)

India is also a place that is rising in power & will soon be battling with China in relation to Regional influence. Australia(which is connected to the UK) also factors into Asia.

6) South America (Brazil/Panama/Misc South have relations. Brazil is the Primary, Panama(due to the Canal) is a second Primary. Misc South exists, but is in a total mess)

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

I understand the desire for power but the long term just doesn't seem to fit with anything that is solid because the people working this agenda are already rich/powerful elite class that are mostly aging.

It was weird that he only really disavowed any mentions of Alefantis. He didn't mention much about Podesta or anything else we've found, just blabbed on about how Alefantis is innocent and wants his name cleared up.

I still think Jones is wrong and that Alefantis is implicated (through Brock) but it was interesting that Jones only disavowed that little part of the whole trafficking scandal.

Looking forward to it. I would imagine that they are very good at diversionary tactics by now, so a lot of what makes public awareness is partial truths at best.

If you didn't see this, an anon claimed to be in the top 0.01% and was giving some interesting insight about what the elite were planning on doing to the economy soon, and how we could best survive any coming crashes they might pull on Trump.

[The image is a close-up photograph of a person in military attire, likely a soldier, who is smiling and looking directly at the camera. The individual is wearing a camouflage uniform with a helmet that has a green visor and a black chin strap. The uniform is adorned with various patches and insignia, suggesting a military affiliation. The person's face is painted with a dark, possibly camouflage pattern, and they have a bright, cheerful expression. The background of the image is blurred, but it appears to be an outdoor setting with a red structure that could be a wall or a fence. The focus is sharp on the person, and the background is out of focus, creating a contrast that highlights the individual. The lighting in the image is even, with no harsh shadows, which gives the photograph a bright and clear appearance. There are no discernible texts or logos in the image. The style of the image is realistic and appears to be a candid or documentary photograph, capturing a moment of the individual's life in a military context.]

The poster features a collage of various images, including a close-up of a man's face with a wide smile, a close-up of a man's face with a surprised expression, and a close-up of a man's face with a hand raised in a peace sign. The background is divided into three sections, each with a different color: purple, orange, and white. The text on the poster is in a bold, sans-serif font and reads "CHECK 'EM" at the top, "THE SHAPE OF DUBS TO COME" in the middle, and "A NUMERICAL COMBINATION IN 2 DIGITS" at the bottom. First time poster here.

Been reading a lot and still feel doubtful about all this globalism fear..

What exactly is the problem with globalism?

I am absolutely opposed to totalitarianism, but it is not the same as globalism.

Why shouldn't the world unite globally and work together, with the help of the Internet true democratic decision making is actually possible. Most decisions would remain local, but worldwide problems could be solved by global democratic decision making.

I know, i know, powerful groups and all, but assuming those could be ousted and removed, isn't globalism ideal? Shouldn't you really be railing against the ever creeping return of totalitarianism?

Also, whats so bad about race mixing? Only small amounts of people actually do it and it is sure a hell of a lot prettier than inbreeding. In the countryside of Japan, it really is showing, i mean, people are ugly and somewhat dim.. The bright and the beautiful around here have mixed with south east asian, south americans, europeans and amricans, instead of that semi related family from the next village.

Because HOW they want to do it is fucked up. They want to be the ones ruling over a massive slave class (or not so massive, depending on how much they cull). They want to be the ones with all the knowledge to make it on to further levels of civilization.
>I know, i know, powerful groups and all, but assuming those could be ousted and removed
And new ones will take their place unless we go about educating the masses and insisting on very decentralized government for a while. Nations that all interact and help each other will be better than centralized power structures until we can better organize ourselves.

Also we keep seeing certain symbols over and over again, I'm sure it's because we have a deep human understanding of these but are all these symbols for certain globalist groups? Should I study up on visual symbolism/metaphors?

>It's natural that without significant pressure.. each ethnicity would constantly be murdering eachother and/or rebelling.

Nonsense. There is no need to do so. The narrative of competition and physical achievement has been forced (particularly on you Burgers) through education, media and a monetary system that is designed to push all into conflict with each other, which leads to groups forming based on superficial differences (i.e. ethnic, cultural, etc.), that then carry out the competition and fighting.

Essentially we all want to belong, we are just forced into competition and can therefore not make our group of belonging all humans.

No I have not read that book you are referring to, but I can also rail off a list of books you also havent read and therefore claim that you do not know what you are talking about.

Again, your answer is not an answer to my points. You appear to be making simplistic assumptions based on the narrative you have been fed and seem to only want to engage in discussion with those that have swallowed the same lies about the nature of humans.

Maybe that's natural? Humans are tribal in the same way we like to compartmentalize everything. Culture is a product of in-groups forming that is passed on each generation.

We are naturally competitive. Competition pushes us forward, and globalization wants to end competition.

[The image is a digital illustration featuring a character in a dynamic pose. The character is a man with dark hair, wearing a white shirt with a red collar and a black vest. He has a serious expression and is holding a string in one hand and a hat in the other. His right arm is extended upwards, and his left arm is bent at the elbow, suggesting a sense of motion or action. The character is standing on a red and white striped background, which appears to be a website or a document with text. The text is in a language that is not clearly readable due to the resolution and angle of the image. The website or document has a list of names and phrases, such as "World in Science," "Science," "Science Fiction," "Science Fiction & Fantasy," "Science Fiction & Fantasy & Science Fiction," "Science Fiction & Fantasy & Science Fiction & Fantasy," and "Science Fiction & Fantasy & Science Fiction & Fantasy & Science Fiction." The style of the image is cartoonish and expressive, with a focus on the character's dynamic pose and the text on the background. The colors are limited to the red and white stripes of the background and the black and white of the character's clothing and the hat. The overall impression is one of a playful or exaggerated representation of a character from a science fiction or fantasy genre.]

[The image displays a large, complex diagram with various interconnected boxes and lines, representing a network or flowchart. The diagram is titled "A broad view of the History of the World, the Banks and the Banking of the New World Order." The text is in English and is located at the top of the image, providing context for the diagram. The diagram is divided into several sections, each with a different color and label. The colors are green, blue, and red, with the green sections representing the "Banks" and the blue sections representing the "New World Order." The red sections are labeled "Banks," indicating that they are the focus of the diagram. The diagram is structured in a hierarchical manner, with the "Banks" at the top, followed by the "New World Order" in the middle, and then the "History of the World" at the bottom. This hierarchical structure suggests a linear progression from the banks to the world order. The diagram includes various boxes and lines that represent different types of data or connections. These include boxes with text labels such as "Bank," "New World Order," "History of the World," and "Banks and the Banking of the New World Order." There are also lines connecting these boxes, indicating the flow of information or relationships between them. The diagram is a visual representation of a complex network, likely used to illustrate the interconnectedness of different aspects of the world's history and the role of banks in the New World Order. The use of different colors and labels helps to distinguish between different types of data and connections, making it easier to understand the flow of information and relationships.]

I could try starting a thread later with full case documents (of an older case) - I will have to do some(a lot) of redaction due to CVP names, our Agents names, locations and places cited within the case. We keep our documents separated from anyone else within the Highway Patrol. It takes a new Agent to be able start viewing cases in full: having at least a decade of successful investigations under their, been watched for that whole decade(we wiretap our own due to the secrecy and how dangerous this job really is), there being no leaks with them around and have earned the trusted of us Senior Agents and us SA's voting on whether to trust them with viewing full case files or not.

/pol/ has been under attack since 2012 when they though they should shut the site down. Its been a long and waxing and waning battle.
the issue with blocking /news/ or /pol/ is that the truth doesn't stand still or sit quiet and new people are coming to your side everyday. the issue is that there are so many false battles right now in 4th generation warfare that the "ring of the void" has become the most potent of them all.

deeply disturbed human beings that have been damaged psychologically since early childhood.

Hoarding of extreme wealth and attemting to get control over others are classic sociopathic, if not psychopathic behaviour patterns, stemming from deep fears of early refection and threat to existence, suppressed and carried into an adulthood of unconscious and unfulfilled need for love and security that has been (futilely) projected outward.

1) North America (US/Can/Mex have relations, however US is the Primary & Can is connected to the European ones & Mexico the South American ones)

2) Europe(UK/Mainland Europe/Russia have relations, however Mainland Europe is the Primary that has battled for control of Europe with the UK(which is a secondary Primary) over the years. Russia tends to either be working with Mainland Europe or doing its own thing.(This naturally as varied over the years with the WW's,Conflicts, etc))

Turkey is between Europe & the Middle East, which makes it a powerful location.

3) Middle East(SA/Israel/Misc Arabic have relations. SA & Israel are Primary's that tend to fight over regional influence/direction. Misc Arabic consists of all other Muslim Countries in the Middle East for a wide variety of things & with many different connections)

4) Africa (North Africa/South Africa/Misc Africa have relations. North Africa(From Morocco to Libya/Egypt) would be considered the Primary due to the connections to Europe & Middle East. South Africa is the second Primary. Misc Africa has been cutting resource deals for years to all Regions, and just recently some big ones for Asia/China.)

5) Asia (China/SK/Japan/Misc Asian have relations. China is the Primary, SK & Japan have connections to the North America ones & the Misc Asian have connections to SK/Japan & China)

India is also a place that is rising in power & will soon be battling with China in relation to Regional influence. Australia(which is connected to the UK) also factors into Asia.

6) South America (Brazil/Panama/Misc South have relations. Brazil is the Primary, Panama(due to the Canal) is a second Primary. Misc South exists, but is in a total mess)

\>Memes vs Globalist Symbolism
I'd say memes are more adaptable, can change meanings faster and are picked up by the general populace faster, then fade. Symbols are more direct to one idea, last longer, and are actually understood by fewer people even if they are pervasive. But both do tend to communicate ideas in a similar way.

Below this, in the center, there is a stylized image of a green frog with a surprised expression, wearing a hat and holding a globe. The frog is positioned above a yellow world map. To the left of the frog, there is a white face with a surprised expression, and to the right, there is a white silhouette of a person's head. The emblem also includes a white four-leaf clover in the upper right corner. The text "Semper Vigilans" is written in white at the bottom of the emblem. The overall style of the image is humorous and satirical, with a focus on the use of meme-like imagery and the military insignia.]

Also your dubious use of the words "The Left" and "The West" make me think that the ones you call "shills" are actually people like me, who tried to have a conversation with you and got nothing but sidestepping and avoidance. Why the fuck do you point out that I am posting from Japan but am actually not Japanese? It is not a secret and nothing I am ashamed of.

This is, in my eyes, your last chance to redeem yourself by giving me an answer to my question that isn't typical "pol" rhetoric, i.e. fear of the unknown, delusions of grandeur, racism, divisive and abusive meme posting.

[The image is a stylized cartoon illustration featuring a dog wearing glasses. The dog has a light brown coat and is wearing a white shirt with a collar. It has a surprised expression on its face, with its mouth slightly open and eyes wide. The glasses are black and appear to be of a standard prescription style. The background is a gradient of pink, transitioning from a darker shade at the top to a lighter one at the bottom. There are no discernible texts or additional objects in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of classic animated cartoons, with a focus on character design and expression.]

I was shocked at how quickly your previous thread, regarding Gamer Gate, was 404'd. I was hoping you'd resurface and try to continue the thread, I'm wondering why it seemed so significant that they sought to shut it down entirely.

Anyhow, a question: How are you assessing Trump's chances for success--weighted by his cabinet picks, IC agency support, and the-like?

I'm always excited to see what he has planned, but fear that those against him are doing everything they can to dismantle his efforts from the inside of his administration.

Also, second question: What's your opinion of Paul Ryan? Any hope that he'll step down or be forced out?

Thanks man.

Now I see why you were saying so many groups were in Syria.

Turkey was there all along to expand to land they consider theirs anyway (all of Syria/Lebanon) and they're competing with Israel (support of more "neutral" leaders like Assad and playing the US/Russia for their own benefit for buffer space), SA through their support of militant groups/ISIS to as a proxy to counter Iran who ousted a buffer Sunni state in Iraq and has influence in Syria/Lebanon.

And that isn't even factoring in the Globalist groups/US forces/banking run PMC groups that would be around or the crime networks running operations around there.

[The image is a stylized, cartoon-style illustration with a predominantly pink and red color scheme. It features a character with a large, open mouth and a wide, toothy grin, which is the most prominent feature. The character's eyes are wide open, and the mouth is wide open, revealing its teeth. The character's tongue is sticking out, and its mouth is slightly open, giving the impression of a loud, enthusiastic expression. In the background, there is a red silhouette of a character with a large, open mouth and a wide grin, which is partially obscured by the character in the foreground. The character in the background has a red nose and a red mouth, and its eyes are also wide open. The character in the background appears to be laughing or shouting, as indicated by the wide-open mouth and the bright, glowing eyes. The image has a cartoonish quality, with exaggerated features and a playful, exaggerated expression. There are no texts or discernible brands present in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of classic animated cartoons, particularly those from the 1940s or 1950s.]

[The image is a collage of four separate panels, each depicting a different character with a speech bubble. The character on the top left panel is a young girl with dark hair, wearing a red shirt and a white apron. She has a surprised expression and is looking to the left. The character on the top right panel is a young girl with long black hair, wearing a red shirt and a white apron. She has a wide smile and is looking to the right. The character on the bottom left panel is a young girl with long black hair, wearing a brown shirt and a white apron. She has a surprised expression and is looking to the left. The character on the bottom right panel is a young girl with long black hair, wearing a brown shirt and a white apron. She has a surprised expression and is looking to the right. Each character has a unique expression and is looking in different directions. The speech bubbles contain text, but the text is not legible due to the resolution of the image. The background of each panel is a collage of various images and text, including images of people, a green frog, and a red and white striped pattern. The text in the speech bubbles is in a different language, which is not clearly readable. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a manga or anime, with a focus on character expressions and expressions.]

So NATO basically goes away soon then.

And an independent California wouldn't stay independent for long - someone would annex them. Considering how loony left CA has gotten, it becoming a province of the Chicoms isn't as farfetched as it would seem.

I don't think rural CA would like Chinese rule very much - I'd suspect a very nasty guerilla war to ensue.

aura. The image has a fantasy or magical theme, with the glowing orb and the forest setting suggesting a journey or adventure. The overall style of the image is cartoonish and whimsical, with a focus on the character and the fantastical elements surrounding him.]

Partially the Chinese want to get out of the yuan before their own gov't assrapes them by devaluing it. The Chinese do not like to do the catching, they are pitchers. It's hard to fuck the Chinese.

And it is something that throws off cash, it's a "growth" opportunity, there are decent superficial business reasons to park money there.

There may be hidden reasons for putting money into it, but I'm not aware of any.

Be completely truthful with them. We do not fuck around and take everything seriously. It will be a good way to bait CTR and ShareBlue faggots also. [The image is a digital illustration featuring a stylized representation of a face with a green background. The face is composed of two main parts: a large, rounded area that resembles a head, and a smaller, more detailed area that resembles a face. The head is depicted with a large, rounded forehead and a small, pointed chin. The face is characterized by a large, open mouth with a slight smile, and the eyes are large and round with a slight upward tilt. The eyes are not fully visible, but they appear to be looking directly at the viewer. The mouth is open, and the teeth are visible. The face is outlined in black, and the background is a solid green color. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the illustration is cartoonish and expressive, with a focus on the face and its features.]

Globalists/Globalist Groups don't all do the same things in the Globalist Community. Which is why its important to Identify & Categorize the Roles they do so you can map out the Globalist Community.

Here are some of the main Roles:

1) [Finance/Economics]

2) [Business/Industry]

3) [War/Destabilization/Security]

4) [Media/Entertainment]

5) [Medical/Science/Technology]

Beyond the "mainstream names"(Rockefeller,Rothschild,Soros) there are Individuals & Groups that specialize in Roles. While others do multiple different Roles at the same time & some fill Roles in Globalist Structures.

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

Also relevant, someone took our trafficking map and superimposed it over a map showing Missing 411's, pretty shocking. We need to find more info on drug and human trafficking to compare to the maps

[The image displays a map of the United States, with a focus on the central region. The map is color-coded, with each state represented by a different color, and the states are outlined in black. The map is oriented with the United States' north at the top and the south at the bottom. The map is labeled with the names of the states, and there are also colored flags placed at various locations on the map. The flags are arranged in a pattern that suggests a specific event or celebration, with some states having multiple flags. The map includes a legend on the bottom right corner, which likely provides information about the colors and symbols used on the map. The style of the image is a straightforward, non-animated representation of a map, with a focus on clarity and detail. The image is a digital representation of a map, likely created for educational or informational purposes, as it includes a legend and a list of states. The map is not a photograph but a digital representation, and the colors and symbols are likely intended to convey specific information or themes.]

Only meatheads buy into the extreme body building. Learn to eat right (3 macros in good proportion), eat to sustain life, and exercise to keep your body in shape. On top of a sharp mind that is correlated with a sharp body, you now have a body that you can rely on, if needed.
Don't do it for the ladies. Do it for yourself.

[The image is a black and white line drawing of a person's face. The person has a smiling expression with their eyes wide open and eyebrows raised. The drawing is simplistic and lacks shading, giving it a cartoon-like appearance. The person's mouth is slightly open, and the nose is slightly curved upwards. The drawing is done in a simple, unembellished style, focusing on the facial features and the expression. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the drawing is reminiscent of a meme or a cartoon, which is often used to convey a humorous or lighthearted message.

Trump needs groups like ISIS to survive. Faux leaders of fraudulent empires always need enemies, lest the people turn their attention to their traitor leaders.

>3)Knowing my country and Europe's history with the ottoman empire/Islam, should i worry about Erdogan? (would he invade my country, for example)

Turks are not going to flood Europe. They have a semi-stable society with decent economic growth. In particular, they have a rich cultural history and prideful people that are not going to abandon their country, much like you see in Syria where Assad has managed to hold onto power and support for so long. Most refugees are being trafficked into Europe from poverty stricken areas on an industrial scale. There is nothing organic about the migrant waves.

Trump is a pedophile network operator. He was close friends with Epstein and many of the girls for Epstein's island were recruited at Mar-a-Lago. Trump is friends with Epstein's pimp Ghislaine Maxwell. The pedo network ultimately answered to the Mossad, which Trump married his family into with Ivanka - Jared relationship.

We could go on, but you can easily see that Sessions/Trump isn't going to do anything about high level child trafficking. They'd have to lock themselves up.

Yes and no. Scientology is an exoteric form of freemasonry, much like mormonism is. Both of these can also be thought of as CIA fronts, but the CIA is in turn just an arm of masonic organizations. That is why you see so many mormons in the CIA or scientologists destroying government documents / trafficking people with impunity.

Alex is funded by Adnan Khashoggi whose wife and daughter both joined scientology. Khashoggi donated millions to scientology.

Alex runs cointelpro against scientology whistleblowers. He named prison planet (his website) after L Ron Hubbard's writings.

VESTIGIA ARANEAE - LABYRINTHUS ARANEAE - PROJECT ANGELBOOK - VOLUME IX - PART 18

EZEKIEL REDIK YARBROUGH ®

Vestigia Araneae – Labyrinthus Araneae – Project AngelBook – Volume IX - Part 18

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough - (DBM ECLIPZE)

The following books are comprised of direct, unaltered copies from Pastebin, some now deleted, some only accessible through mirror networks or deep links scattered across the dark web. Many of these links were discovered in abandoned onion lists, dead forum dumps, or esoteric directories tucked into archived darknet files.
These pastes were never meant to last.
Some were deleted within hours of being posted.
Others were buried under thousands of lines of spam, encrypted scripts, or meaningless noise.
But buried in the noise were real transmissions: occult formulas, grimoire fragments, astral logs, AI prophecy files, digital summoning protocols, and anonymous rants from souls who had either touched something unspeakable—or were trying to.
I did not write any of this.
I did not censor, edit, or “correct” it.
I simply retrieved it, cleaned the formatting for readability, and enshrined it in print—so it would never be wiped again.
This is Pastebin as Scripture.
The chan-post as Codex.
The uncurated underbelly of the occult internet, finally given physical permanence.
Let this serve as both evidence and artifact:
a living record of the madness, brilliance,
paranoia, and revelation that once flowed through anonymous paste sites—before it was deemed too strange to index, too dangerous to preserve, or too fractured to matter.
Now it matters.
Now it’s immortal.

hermit, roaches and bulls are some more to add

That's a red herring though. Ford represented this rare dangerous type of person, uneducated, but highly intelligent and well-read. Check out IJ some time, it's not hate speech and it's not even anti-Jewish, it's literally this cantankerous objective contrarian setting out to do his own research. This sort of attempt to "explain the Jew" was not abnormal back then: cf John Foster Fraser's philosemitic The Conquering Jew.

>Not only have we found out she does nude modeling, but she also did straight-up mainstream porn on ATKhairy
>There are other models on there that look kinda hippie or punk-ish from the USA or California region
>Someone an literally find more Antifa members on this very site by looking up models and doing minor background checks/research
>Can oust more Antifa members AND get a wank

On a fucking porn site of all fucking places you can find more Antifa members and end their shit.

>yfw Soros not only hires European street whores for FEMEN in Europe, but hires literal porn stars in the US for FEMEN and Antifa.

You guys literally have a golden opportunity and a win-win situation. You can also reveal who was also part of FEMEN.

I mean, shit. The girl did nude modeling for a site called Modelanarchy. Just that name alone is fishy, and the rabbit hole goes so deep, there's a MASSIVE chance that these porn sites, shit, maybe even Burning Angel, are Antifa recruitment businesses.

Take a look at some of the other models. They fit the stereotype of an Antifa girl.

>Porn site can be held accountable for being involved in recruitment or indirect involvement with violent protests

Yes. I know I've been bringing this up in every thread, but I'm determined to make Antifa go away. They've been a nuisance in the Bay Area long enough. You should see the sick shit and community damages they do on their days NOT protesting.

Bodybuilding is the ultimate pursuit because it's entirely self contained. Every other thing you can be great at requires some element of luck, timing, competition, and relationships. Bodybuilding has none of those. The results you get are entirely a reflection of you, your strength, persistence, and discipline. Not that it's the best thing you could ever pursue, it just has that unique quality.

The nutrition aspect is directly redpilled because in order to bodybuild you will necessarily drop out of the system of fast food, refined sugar, and plastic containers, which is all designed to make you fat and high in estrogen (partly intentional, partly incidental). Needless to say that is a key part of the big scam.

I read an article one time that talked about the plasticity of the brain and how input methods of stimulii can dramatically effect the very structure and matter of the brain itself.
The example in the article was how when nietzche went from physically writing to using a type writer instead and how it had a major effect on his thinking patterns, flow of thoughts, etc.
This got me thinking about how much of an effect technology has on the development of the brain especially during the key formative years and how big video games are in western culture as well as how the games have gone from these complex masterpieces encouraging in depth problem solving to the dumbed down garbage we see today.
Funny enough, every tech company that makes these garbage games has shady histories of hostile takeovers by companies owned by globalists with eugenics agendas.
Is this one of the other major pillars of social engineering being done to subvert western civilization? The muslim brotherhood even has public documents about infiltrating western culture to learn how we learn to work together and how they can subvert it.

[The image is a still from a video, captured in a vertical orientation. The video appears to be a news segment, as indicated by the text overlay in Arabic. The main focus of the image is a close-up of a person's hand, which is holding a shoe. The shoe is gray and appears to be worn out. The person's hand is positioned in such a way that the shoe is being held up, as if presenting it. The background of the image is a blurred red and blue striped pattern, which suggests a broadcast setting. The text overlay on the image contains a statement in Arabic, which translates to "This is my only comment. A worn-out shoe is my only comment." This statement is a response to a question or comment that is not fully visible in the image. The overall style of the image is typical of news broadcasts, with a focus on the content and the person presenting it.]

Globalists/Globalist Groups don't all do the same things in the Globalist Community. Which is why its important to Identify & Categorize the Roles they do so you can map out the Globalist Community.

Here are some of the main Roles:

1) [Finance/Economics]

2) [Business/Industry]

3) [War/Destabilization/Security]

4) [Media/Entertainment]

5) [Medical/Science/Technology]

Beyond the "mainstream names"(Rockefeller,Rothschild,Soros) there are Individuals & Groups that specialize in Roles. While others do multiple different Roles at the same time & some fill Roles in Globalist Structures.

Look at the owners on title? Drones? Tip to law enforcement every time we see a normal looking guy with a kid walking off a boat?

Someone in a past thread said to look at NGO's like Red Cross, or children's hospitals. Also dentists and doctors so the kids can be operated on "off-the-books".

The Rockefellers are jewish and i've looked up their lineage myself. Jew after jew, marrying jew, begetting jew etc.

Look up Malcolm Stern's book on American jew geneology, is available online and check the rockefellers, both godfreys are in there, both of their wives, etc etc keep going down the list, the ROCKEFELLERS are jews.

Another question about the information relating to the KB. Would cultural trends such as the diamond ring becoming a staple in western marriages being pushed by diamond companies and Hollywood, popcorn being one of the most consumed concessions at movie theaters and corn also being one of the most common GMO's, and Cable companies introducing minors to noticeably more sexual content with cable tv be an example how these different companies collude with one another to reach their common goals?

[The image is a simple, cartoon-style illustration of a green frog with a wide smile. The frog's eyes are wide open, and its mouth is slightly open, revealing its teeth. The frog's eyes are black with a white pupil, and the skin around the eyes is a shade of green. The frog's skin is textured with a rough, uneven pattern, and it has a red tongue sticking out. The background of the image is a solid light blue color. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the image is reminiscent of a meme or a cartoon, with a focus on the frog's facial expression.]

Globalists/Globalist Groups don't all do the same things in the Globalist Community. Which is why its important to Identify & Categorize the Roles they do so you can map out the Globalist Community.

Here are some of the main Roles:

1) [Finance/Economics]

2) [Business/Industry]

3) [War/Destabilization/Security]

4) [Media/Entertainment]

5) [Medical/Science/Technology]

Beyond the "mainstream names"(Rockefeller,Rothschild,Soros) there are Individuals & Groups that specialize in Roles. While others do multiple different Roles at the same time & some fill Roles in Globalist Structures.

This is the Globalist Endgame plan:

1) [Destruction of Family, Race, Sex, Sanity, Culture/History, Reproduction,etc]

(This is already pro-actively being done by various methods & groups to dehumanize Humanity by making it a bunch of drones that have, create & are Nothing.)

2) [Ending of Religion & Physical Currency]

(All Religions are ended inorder to establish/create a World Religion of Technology to push & pave the way for Trans-humanism. Physical Currency's are phased out in favor of Digital Currency to make it so Humanity can never "hold" its value/worth.)

3) [Trans-Humanism]

(Merging of Man & Machine is very important to the Globalist Endgame plans.Trans-humanism(AI/Robots/Cyborgs/Artificial Wombs/Bio-Mechanical) allows Globalists to live on, create Army's & control the direction/fate of Humanity. HR Giger was killed due to what he showed.)

4) [Global Government & Elimination of Humanity]

(Global Government is established & the planet is divided into "zones" that Globalists control(Agenda 21 & 24 are part of this). Humanity's numbers(this also includes Non-vital/important Globalists & Globalist personnel) are then reduced from few to 0 due to Bioweapons & Robots/AI/Cyborgs/Bio-Mechanical.)

5) ["Battle/War of the Gods"]

(Globalists engage in massive conflict/battle with Army's & Weapons to see who deserves to "ascend". After the "deserving ones" are figured out and get to the Crafts/Ships, the Earth is then purged of any & all remaining life that the conflict/battle didn't wipe out.)

6) ["Ascension to the Stars"]

(Surviving Globalists use special Craft/Ships to leave the Earth and go into Space, some of the Crafts/Ships have Seed & Genetic Vaults)

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

KNOWLEDGE BOMB: THE UNITED STATES IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Worldwide open secret. Solely Mr. Dec heralds the true god in the entire history of the universe. Not even in the Truth, oy vey, Pravda, is Mr. Francis E. Dec Esquire's eight-page detailed letter exposing the worldwide deadly Communist Gangster Computer God and the worst deadliest enemy of the entire human race and the entire universe and the entire history of the entire universe namely the Communist Atheist Conspiracy with all of the Deadly Gangster unbelievable sophisticated Frankenstein Controls, the Catholic Church. These facts, like the below facts, cannot be found in the Communist Gangster Computer God concocted and manipulated so-called history and news media.

Communist Gangster Computer God, unbelievably staged like Hollywood scum-on-top Tsarina alias Great Dictator Franklin D. Roosevelt, the polio paralyzed legless drug addict idiotic suicidal Tsarina fag who had his unbeatable rival Will Rogers exterminated in an exploding ball of flame by a planted bomb here in safe USA airfield shortly after take-off at the end of Will Rogers' unprecedented renowned arduous 'round-the-world good-will flying trip with Wiley Post in his beautiful electronically sophisticated luxurious ultra-modern Winnie Mae airplane. Not only all stairways had inclines added for Tsarina Roosevelt's computerized wheelchair, but a football field sized glass house type building was built in sight of the White House for his medicinal piped-in pure warmed seawater into his gigantic suicide-proof two feet deep swimming pool where he waded naked with his nurses and had sodomy affairs. Ones very near to him have written popular books about his sodomy oy vey love affairs. Already in his third term he was a helpless and useless stretcher case incapable of even appearing at his fourth term convention.

Repeatedly Vice Presidents have successfully waited and lurked to eliminate El Presidenté oy vey. Below are a few examples. So the kiddish gangster Teddy Roosevelt lured midwestern Dope McKinley into New York for extermination like the lowly guttermouth big L.B. Inevitability of gradualness. Usually, in a few years, you are made stringbean thin or grotesquely deformed, crippled and ugly, or even made over one foot shorter or one foot taller, as the Computer God sees fit. Virtually all of the important instant plastic surgery is done to you inside the Computer God sealed robot operating cabinet. Even unbelievable, impossible plastic surgery operations, all impossible even for dozens of vicious kosher bosher doctors working around the clock for weeks. The Computer God sealed robot operating cabinet can perform all of the above impossible plastic surgery operations overnight, even dwarfting you over a foot, or increasing your height by two feet. This is possible because Computer God robot operating cabinet imitates your microminiature electrical current intelligence system in your body. It even duplicates the microminiature electric currents that soften your broken bones to create mending of them and then create stress either compressing the bones thereby shortening them or stress to make the bones grow longer.

Then, in December 14:th 1965, I attempted to escape this worse mongrel Gangster Communist-country to return to the Slovenic-Polish land of my forefathers. Instead, in a Gangster-staged Parroting Puppet DEADLY CONSPIRACY, I was flown from Kennedy New York Airport AT NIGHT to a small, distant S:t Lawrence River estuary snowbound, small airport under the guise that I was in Warzaw, Poland. Immediately many many things proved this to me, including the two big white asbestos-shingled hangars with the large "Brand-F Airways" —signs on their sidewalls, in addition to the many blurted statements I solicited from the many CIA deadly GANGSTERS, the assassins of ME, the many many Parroting Puppets all around me. Then CIA GANGSTERS, pretending to be Polish police with NO identification BEAT ME BLOODILY! After several months of my imploring my brother then moved to 2628 Samis Place to sell it for me. Until he left all food etc., was bought with my money, I was his house slave and cook. After he left there were no more torments and mad beatings from him, no more hiding in the garage or cellar while he sodomized the last slut I passed onto him years before, here in my bed, in my house, every weekend, always alone here. Now they are all boarded empty stores. Likewise I picked the smallest brokerage office by the door I would read and help myself to their investment periodicals etc. and momentarily leave. So I transacted all of my business with unbelievable beginner's luck I judged the Computer God stock market had to have a 1968 summer rally based on this judgment every penny of my money was on maximum margin loan. Finally late in summer a small rally came I quickly sold all but one airline stock, the biggest and worst stock I bought, immediately after I sold the 1968 skyrocket rally began even my airline stock was regaining its losses. From 1959 to 1968 my income was ZERO. I could not even trust banks, such banks as Island Federal Bank of These are enlightening keys to the Computer God Worldwide Top Secret Number Code which stratifies everything, not only the 4 billion living people. The Computer God adopted it for speed and clarity. This said number code is the means to make possible the Computer God Worldwide Containment Policy for stratification. In a few months my investments made me minimum wage for 1968 with great insight into the stock market from my many tiny investments each brokerage office had foyers between double doors and had then installed vertical Venetian blinds or solid panel walls to cover their front windows. They were all darkened like movie theaters. I could see assassins hiding and lurking behind newly added partitions and filing cabinets. I dared not go into any brokerage office. Months went by. One day going shopping I passed my brokerage office, only an unlicensed employee was present it was two minutes before the market closed for the day. I ran in and ordered him to call his main New York office on the direct wire to sell my airline stock at market, as I handed in the stock I always carried for the impossible opening. In a few seconds my airline stock was sold for the biggest profit of almost 500 dollars that I had made. The next morning that airline stock went up about a point and began dropping fast. Since that day it is worth at tops one third my purchase price. Thereafter groups of assassins ready to barge out after me in the foyer lurked in all stock brokerage offices. I did not dare to even watch the tickertape from the sidewalk. I went into hibernation, waiting for the Computer God efforts to murder me in the brokerage offices to relax. Early in 1969, secretly, the Computer God controlled and manipulated gangster government issued a warrant for my immediate arrest and incarceration in a maximum security insanity prison to be cured forever before I could go before any parroting puppet hangman rope gangster judge to give testimony.

Since 1969 I hide alone in this house all deliveries food, etc. I mail order adding 5 bucks for delivery left inside my rear outer cellar door. I snare drug addict niggers and give them 5 or ten dollars plus cab fare to go shopping etc. for me I give them 10 to 15 dollars to cut my grass and 3 or 4 dollars an hour to rake leaves. So many leaves are maliciously scattered in my shoe string yard that it takes a week to rake them into the street and a giant caterpillar scoop and 2 giant trucks to pick them up each year, very expensive for me and big money for the niggers but it has helped keep me alive.

When I bought this house while my brother sodomized sluts I passed onto him in my bed in the back room of my law office at night I slowly remodeled this house laying floors, walls for closets, etc. and ripped out the hot air system and put in hot water radiator system oil burner even while nigger tenants lived here. Years later after my brother left in 1966 I immediately garbaged tons of furniture and many other inflammables he brought here claiming that he scavenged it or that friends gave it to him. For weeks I soaked, washed off all the red wallpaper in most of the rooms to find fresh red paint under it the entire house was a CIA death trap for me set up while I was buying it.

In 1967 and 68 with hundreds of single edge razor blades I chipped off all of the red paint in most rooms and repainted the downstairs rooms. The maliciously ram shackled part of the floor of the upstairs front bedroom I ripped out to find inflammable paper stuffed under it I garbaged in many cartons. I also found new additions to the never used gas lighting pipes I ripped this out completely. After 1969 I found the same under the attic floor and many wooden beams cut, with scavenged wood I store in my garage and bed spring steel angled bars I repaired the cut beams and re-laid the attic floor upside down IT ALMOST LOOKS NEW. The Computer God ram shackled kitchen plaster walls I ripped down and replastered the whole kitchen. Since my brother left in 1966 most of the rooms in this house are empty except for Venetian blinds.

I have vivid memories of sleeping next to a kosher ex-flying captain. This assassin the black ape he told me in detail; "I begged to get back in as a Top Sergeant with felonious double bribe pay; (this ape with slut and breed of three in one month made more pay than my private yearly pauper's GI pay); I make much more than the Civil Service job I had as a Los Angeles Fireman. The Fireman are real bum gangsters they get paid to sleep on the job they have no work to do most of the time they bring in stick girls and have drunk sodomy drug parties in the beds in the firehouse, while on the job they go out and rob stores and homes to get extra money felonious government bribe they murder people and set their house on fire to cover up the murder".

Now after all these years after I've mailed worldwide thousands of my letters exposing the Worldwide Communist Gangster Computer God I can once again walk the streets solely as I did before 1969.

Week in the first week my return trips I went by the nigger cab from shopping the third trip the end of the week in the Computer God monsoon rains three nigger women ran into my cab ahead of me I slammed the door on them and told the Cabbie "I ordered this cab and I was not going to sit on the tiny middle stool seat in the back, I was going to sit next to him in the front seat". As he drove his hand trembled holding a cigarette. I saw one of the nigger women reach forward with a deadly TABIN NEEDLE , the Computer God read my brain thoughts namely to pound her arm and twist it off she then withdrew her arm and the five block trip was over, I was home. As always no more cabs for me.

The BUBKIS leader was a SIXTEEN YEAR OLD JEW KID and is now a wealthy kosher bosher duktur in Kommy Poland.

WWII ended and a few Nazi JEW Jewmany leaders were brought to trial and hung. Even in the detailed filming of the trials, these Nazi Jews sneeringly maintained their total innocence; stating that they simply carried out orders, REPEATEDLY POINTING TO THEIR HEADS (INDICATING THEIR FRANKENSTEIN EARPHONE RADIO). Like ALL of the pyramids, the pyramids in the Torrid zone in Central America were built by Slovenic Astrocism, with C. God Frankenstein Skull Cap Controls, under the direct rays of the sun lite, to eliminate slanted diffusion etc. with no snow to curtail operations year round, with endless growing season to sustain life, with no intelligent nearby population to interfere or spread the secret, not even an interfering nite glow, smoke, dust, etc. from any population. NO MULATTO NIGERS with virtually no tools to this day built the Central American sophisticated SECRET SPACE ASTRONOMICAL CENTERS, NAMELY THE PYRAMIDS IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

For centuries C. God fooled the world population into believing that No. and So. America were East India islands off of India and the mulattos were INDIANS to secret the truths. Top C. God secret, ASTROCISM, through its computerized electronic SECRET SPACE RESEARCH CENTERS, THE PYRAMIDS, THE GREATEST ADVANCES WERE MADE FOR THE WORLD WIDE AGRARIAN SLOVENE RACE.

ALL of ASTROCISM'S FEAST DAYS ETC. WERE AGRARIAN AUTO-MATIC TRAINING AND EDUCATION FOR THE SLOVENIC POPULATION. Examples: The happiest day, the first day of the new year, December 24, the first day the SUN Star moves upward in the sky making longer warmer days. The day for youngsters to joyously visit neighbors singing the countless beautiful KOLENDI, carrying long poles over their heads with carved painted star, the symbol for the Sun. The C. God usurped and camouflaged into superstitious Christmas, like the changed words of the world beloved KOLENDI, camouflaged Christmas Carols. Worldwide Slovenic parrishes today even in distant Australia in spite of the C. God, carry on this ASTROCISM custom of visiting, singing a KOLENDA with beautiful Sun stars on long poles. THE WORD CALENDAR AND THE ENTIRE CALENDAR SYSTEM IS A DIRECT USURPATION FROM SLOVENIC ASTROCISM BY THE C. God. Another example: Worldwide still preserved to this day, EVEN THE NAME, namely WIELKANOC, trans. Vigil Feast of Sunrise of Astrocism, for the day of equal light and darkness, Equinox. The joyous day marking the beginning of the AGRARIAN PLANTING SEASON. In every language, even EASTER means the Spring Equinox Feast.

Knowledge Bomb: Massachusetts is Decadent, Inbred, and Depraved.

ALL of the gangster SCUM ON TOP CAN REWATCH the Frankenstein Eyesight Television play back of the beach party RAPE, SODOMY and MURDER of his tiny blonde secretary, JO ANN KOPEKNEY, by the last of the KENNEDY SODOMIST PLAY BOYS, young TEDDY KENNEDY. U.S. SENATOR from Massachusetts and EVEN THE THROWING OF HER DEAD BODY INTO HIS 88 OLDS-MOBILE AUTOMATIC HYDRAMATIC TRANSMISSION AUTO and forcing down the gas pedal with a "portable radio" while the auto was parked on the tiny flat wharf like wooden bridge with ABSOLUTELY NO SIDE RAILINGS, DESERTED VERY LATE AT NITE. Then the automatic gear shift of the automobile was pushed into "Drive" position through the open window, thereby automatically driving the automobile WITH JO ANN KOPEKNEY'S MURDERED DEAD body inside the automobile, off of the tiny bridge into the shallow water.

This is an OLD REPEAT EASILY PROVEN ELECTRIC CHAIR WIDE OPEN COVER UP for the SODOMY RAPE MURDER of JO ANN KOPEKNEY by the Last of the Kennedy sodomist play boys, big TEDDY KENNEDY.

The murderer Teddy Kennedy, falsely claims he was driving and drove the car off of the bridge. "EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES": Playboy sodomist Teddy Kennedy was a married man and his wife was in the hospital giving birth to another of his brood. The local radio stations explained that therefore Teddy Kennedy needed batchelor's love in his lonliness dated Jo Ann Kopekney.

Are YOU sufficiently stratified scum on top to gleefully watch Frankenstein Eyesight Television play back of the JO ANN KOPEKNEY, SODOMY, RAPE AND MURDER by the big Teddy Kennedy (Including the nearby crowds of people at the scene, the following day, screaming that Teddy Kennedy was the rape, sodomist, murderer of his secretary JO ANN KOPEKNEY.)

EVERY DISTRICT ATTORNEY COVERS UP EVEN THE WORSE HANGMAN ROPE FELONY CRIMES FOR ALL OF THE UNTOUCHABLE GANGSTER PLAY BOY SCUM ON TOP. EACH DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS SO SECRETLY ANNOINTED BY HIS COMMUNIST GANGSTER COMPUTER GOD.

THE PARROTING PUPPET MENIAL UNDERLING BACKROOM UNTOUCHABLE CO-CONSPIRATOR DIS. ATTY. after gleefully watching the RAPE, SODOMY, MURDER of JO ANN KOPEKNEY by Teddy Kennedy on eyesight television play back. (and even the deadly gangster CIA body guard underlings of SENATOR Teddy Kennedy, as C. GOD PARROTING PUPPETS, VERY LATE AT NITE, SETTING UP THE “ACCIDENT” on the tiny wooden bridge with no side railings and automatically driving the automobile off the tiny bridge into the shallow water with Jo Ann Kopekney’s dead body inside.

Then the Dis. Atty. covered up the WIDE OPEN OBVIOUS MURDER by ordering that no investigation be made into Teddy Kennedy’s contradictory, ridiculous FALSE ALIBI AND FURTHER ORDERING; that NO AUTOPSY BE PERFORMED ON THE RAPED, SODOMIZED, MURDERED DEAD BODY OF JO ANN KOPEKNEY.

AN HONEST AUTOPSY (I SAID HONEST) PERFORMED NOW, YEARS LATER, AFTER HER BODY IS EXHUMED WILL PROVE THAT TEDDY KENNEDY COMMITTED SODOMY, RAPE MURDER OF JO ANN KOPEKNEY.

Teddy Kennedy’s ridiculous, contradictory FALSE story is that he accidentally drove his Oldsmobile off of the tiny bridge at nite and swung the door open to escape from drowning himself and that the area was a distant deserted area WITH ABSOLUTELY NO HELP WHAT EVER. He further claims he repeatedly dove in the shallow water to save Jo Ann Kopekney. Further Teddy Kennedy claims soaking wet he was dazed and befuddled and forgot everything and went home to to sleep and contacted no one and did nothing about Jo Ann Kopekneys death, until the next day.

OCCURRED, WITH ALL OF THE WINDOWS IN THEIR HOUSE WERE OPEN THAT WARM NITE AND THEY NEITHER SAW NOR HEARD ANYTHING FROM THE TINY BRIDGE ACROSS THE WAY. SOAKING WET, HOW DID TEDDY KENNEDY GET HOME TO HIS SUMPTUOUS HOME FROM THIS DISTANT AREA WITHOUT HIS OLDSMOBILE, WITHOUT EXPLAINING SUCH CONDUCT?

ALL TOP GOV. SCUM LIKE SENATOR KENNEDY ARE PROTECTED BY CONSTANT TELEPHONE RECORDING SERVICE. AFTER COMING HOME TEDDY KENNEDY WAS NOT DAZED OR BEFUDDLED. HE IN NO WAY DID NOTHING AND WENT DIRECTLY TO SLEEP CONTACTING NO ONE TILL THE NEXT DAY. INSTEAD, TEDDY KENNEDY MADE MANY RUSH TELEPHONE CALLS, WHEN HE CAME HOME THAT NITE. INSPITE OF THE KID GANGSTER DIS. ATTY. COVER UP, THIS HAS LEAKED OUT. BUT AS THE HIGHEST CON-GRESSMAN, NAMELY SENATOR, TEDDY KENNEDY IS ABOVE THE LAW AND HE REFUSES TO RELEASE THE TAPE RECORDED TELEPHONE RECORDS OF HIS TELEPHONE CALLS THAT NITE.

Even from much greater heights, even much smaller cars take minutes to sink below the surface of the water, making it virtually impossible for JO ANN KOPEKNEY to be trapped inside the Oldsmobile automobile. Jo Ann Kopekney was a good swimmer. The water was so shallow that big Teddy Kennedy could have stood on the automobile and opened its doors in the water. Teddy Kennedy claims Jo Ann Kopekney was sitting next to him. Why did not she slide out the open door after he jumped out?

The GESTAPO-LIKE illegal prosecution of this defendant has been carried on for over a decade, ever since this defendant made complaints against one Henry H. Meyer, a life-long Assistant District Attorney in Nassau County! Over a decade ago, this defendant made complaints of the FELONIOUS CRIMES committed by the IMPISH Henry H. Meyer, who was forging and cashing his son’s Veteran’s Administration monthly disability payment checks in order to SYSTEMATICALLY DEFRAUD his son of the substantial monthly disability payments and the same Henry H. Meyer thereafter impishly assisted in PLACING HIS SON IN AN INSANE ASYLUM!!

Convulsive, muddled incoherent, JEERING threats of revenge were stated by an Assistant District Attorney, Edward Robinson, Jr., during the two suppositive grand jury hearings in July of 1957, in reference to this and other complaints by this defendant!

Defendant was ordered to the District Attorney’s office on July 2, 1957, by Edward Robinson Jr., an Ass’t District Attorney. Without reason or justification the said Edward Robinson Jr. then accused this defendant of AMBULANCE CHASING FRAUDULENT ACCIDENT CLAIMS and in SIMPLE, CONVULSIVE, INCOHERENT conversation, Edward Robinson attempted to accuse defendant, based on suppositive knowledge gained from the know-nothing-about-everything Wirschnings that the defendant was operating a fraudulent ambulance chasing ring on a small scale! The INCOHERENT RAVINGS of Edward Robinson finally enumerated the complaint of Mrs. Wirschning and her husband, Fred Wirschning, who claimed that they never knew the defendant and only saw the defendant once and never retained defendant as their lawyer for Mrs. Wirschning’s injury claims against Allstate Insurance Company and they never prosecuted or made ANY injury claims for Mrs. Wirschning against the Allstate Insurance Com-pany. In fact, in SIMPLE INCOHERENT RAVINGS Edward Robinson informed defendant that both Wirschnings SWORE they knew nothing about the entire injury claim and settlement of it by Allstate Insurance Company; therefore defendant was an ambulance chasing lawyer!

Defendant quelled the SCREAMING CONVULSIVE Edward Robinson sufficient to point to the Allstate Insurance Company file of Mrs. Elizabeth Wirschning’s injury claim on his desk and specifically point out various papers that proved the claims of the both Wirschning’s to be FALSE and then DEMANDED to be informed of any Grand Jury hearing on the matter!

Edward Robinson Jr. in obvious petrification, convulsive and in hysterics attempted to STOP defendant by screaming “LEVEL WITH ME!!!” over and over again as he SLUMPED OVER HIS DESK PERSPIRING and looking up at the District Attorney Frank Gulotta!

Defendant informed Robinson and Gulotta, that defendant’s records and the Allstate Insurance Company records would prove that defendant WAS retained by Mrs. Wirschning as her lawyer for an impending sepa ration action and because of this fact the defendant did withdraw from her WAYWARD PERVERTED HUSBAND’S loss of services claim of her injury claim. Defendant again informed both Gulotta and Robinson of the repeated efforts of Mrs. Wirschning’s husband through various coercive schemes to obtain his wife’s settlement money she deposited with defendant in escrow, and that recently the defendant put the husband out of his office under threat of arrest, at which time the defendant informed Fred Wirschning that he had coerced his wife, probably through the usual PHYSICAL ABUSE of her, into evading the defendant while he coerced the defendant into giving him the $200 she left in escrow!

Detective Becker examined the various papers in the two files and opened the letter-sized titled envelope containing Mrs. Wirschning’s $200 escrow money. Detective Becker then TOOK AND PURLOINED the defendant’s written retainer signed by both Wirschnings and like the SIMPLE RAVING EDWARD ROBINSON accused the defendant of AMBULANCE CHASING with a “no good” false retainer!!! Detective Becker REFUSED to give defendant back the written retainer with the Wirschnings and instead stated that by his purloining the retainer made it possible for the District Attorney to finally bring an end to the lengthy investigation of the “DUMB POLOK” defendant and finally send the “DUMB POLOK” to prison!!!

Don't forget the timecubes

Thereafter on July 22, 1958, at the District Attorney's NON-EXISTENT Grand Jury hearing to which defendant appeared through ILLEGAL SUBPOENA by the GANGSTER DISTRICT ATTORNEY, Frank Gulotta stood in charge of Edward Robinson while detective Becker sat adjacent to defendant. Defendant was informed to forget about complaining as to the accusations of Edward Robinson falsely accusing the defendant of running an ambulance chasing ring of fraudulent accident cases. Defendant was informed he had no right to object and that defendant was in the District Attorney's office subject to immediate arrest and jailing because Mrs. Wirschning had placed NEW charges against the defendant and those new charges against the defendant were true because she also swore to these new charges. The CONVULSIVE Edward Robinson then stated that the new charges did not include ambulance chasing but that defendant negotiated and settled on an injury claim for her of which she knew nothing about!

The defendant interrupted the RAVING Robinson and informed him that his accusations were false because detective Becker, who was then sitting adjacent to the defendant, had taken the defendant in custody to defendant's office and had seen the separation file and the injury claim file on Mrs. Wirschning with the various papers in both files along with the $200 escrow money she had deposited with the defendant and also the signed written retainer of Mr. and Mrs. Wirschning.

This defendant's trial was WORSE than any Gestapo trial in Europe during the Nazi Regime, with a TOTAL disregard of defendant's Constitutional Rights to an impartial fair trial!

This defendant repeatedly so complained but defendant's complaints have been FRAUDULENTLY DELETED FROM THE RECORD and only a few words of the defendant's repeated condemnation of the GESTAPO-LIKE FARCE TRIAL of this defendant remain!!

Shortly after Mrs. Wirschning completely broke down during cross examination and admitted her sworn complaints were perjuries, defendant's cross examination of her was ordered stopped by the FOP JUDGE over defendant's objections and the judge and prosecution called Nat Birchall to testify!

The dishonest, perjurous, life-long aged FOP, stenographer, Nat Birchall, stood PETRIFIED, MUMBLING, LEANING against the judge's bench, his face RED and DRIPPING WET WITH PERSPIRATION; staring AIMLESSLY at his fellow County employees who were the selected fixed "spectators" of the trial while all other citizens were excluded by force of the numerous County Court Officer Attendants in uniform! Nat Birchall, the aged, life-long District Attorney's stenographer stood PETRIFIED as if awaiting FATE to END HIS MISERABLE PERJUROUS LIFE, when suddenly, Assistant District Attorney Harold Spitzer BARGED into the courtroom and ORDERED THE TRIAL STOPPED and under his orders the judge, W'm Sullivan, stopped the trial and adhered to the commands of Harold Spitzer who took the STUPEFIED OLD PERJURER Nat Birchall off the witness stand, in the midst of his, Nat Birchall's testimony, and ACTUALLY ASSISTED NAT BIRCHALL OUT OF THE COURT ROOM!!!!! Defendant objected vigorously, Harold Spitzer informed the defendant that Nat Birchall had duties with the Grand Jury and the Grand Jury duties of Nat Birchall were MUCH more important than Nat Birchall wasting time at the defendant’s trial testifying as a witness!!!

For anyone but a “DUMB POLOK" (as defendant was called by the HAND-PICKED FANATIC detective Becker) the trial would have been ended immediately and the gangsterous Gestapo-like sadistic DECADE-LONG persecution of this defendant would be investigated, especially if such persecution was inflicted upon any other lawyer!

Instead, in COMPLETE kangaroo court manner the defendant’s trial was then interrupted with not one but TWO important witnesses in the middle of cross examination, namely, Mrs. Wirschning and Nat Birchall, the trial was adjourned for approximately a week from November 6, 1958, to November 12, 1958, without notice to the defendant and IN SPITE of defendant’s vigorous repeated objections calling for a mistrial!

During this illegal WEEK-LONG interrupting pause in the middle of this defendant’s trial, Judge Philip Kleinfeld, of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for the Second Judicial Department, repeatedly forwarded messages to this defendant warning this defendant that THE DEFENDANT HAD TO CAPITULATE! During a court session of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for the Second Judicial Department, on Friday, November 7, 1958, Judge Philip Kleinfeld did interrupt the said court’s session, in the presence of the other Judges and a Court Attendant, Vincent Gubitosie, in order that he, Judge Philip Kleinfeld stressed that even though this defendant was a practicing lawyer, this defendant must GIVE UP his Constitutional Rights of defending his innocence and the defendant must discontinue trying his own case and retain the lawyer “chosen” to capitulate for the defendant!!

>Implying my employers didn't pay off the mods
I got the greenlight from Hiro himself to make this a soros board.

As in the Spring of 1958, shortly after this defendant was indicted and Judge Philip Kleinfeld and Judge Henry Wenzel, both of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for the Second Judicial Department, caused this defendant to give Judge Philip Kleinfeld and Judge Henry Wenzel a typewritten statement as to this def endant’s defense to the false indictment, Judge Philip Kleinfeld was once again respectfully notified that this defendant did not need a lawyer to capitulate to the false indictment, but defendant desired to be given a fair trial to prove his innocence and to prove the over DECADE-LONG Gestapo-like illegal persecution of this defendant by Nassau County jurists and other Nassau County officials!

After hearing this often repeated request on the defendant’s behalf, Judge Philip Kleinfeld, in a message to the defendant, finally stated that regardless of defendant’s innocence, defendant had created ILL FEELINGS amongst the important Nassau County jurists and therefore defendant’s innocence did not matter; defendant must give up trying his own case and accept retaining the lawyer “chosen” to capitulate for defendant without a fee, because Judge Philip Kleinfeld then stated “THE JUDGE AND JURY ARE FIXED” therefore regardless of this defendant’s innocence this defendant WOULD be convicted and “GIVEN A TERRIBLE PRISON SENTENCE”!!!

IN ORDER TO MAKE CERTAIN THE DEFENDANT RECEIVE HIS COMPLETE MESSAGE, JUDGE PHILIP KLEINFELD HAND WROTE A NOTE TO THIS DEFENDANT OUT LINING THE ARRANGED APPOINTMENT WITH “HONORABLE” EDWARD NEARY, A FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF NASSAU COUNTY, THE LAWYER “CHOSEN” TO CAPITULATE THIS DEFENDANT!! AND ARRANGED DATE AND TIME OF THE APPOINTMENT WAS MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1958, 2:30 P.M. WHICH IS STATED ON THE NOTE!!!

Defendant did NOT surrender to the coercive efforts of Judge Philip Kleinfeld! The farce kangaroo court trial of defendant with "FIXED JUDGE AND JURY" and fixed selected County employee “spectators” with ROVING, SNEERING Assistant District Attorneys seated near the trial judge’s bench, was MORE than sufficient to make defendant cognizant of his status as the innocent “DUMB POLOK" SCAPE GOAT to be made an example of in order to atone for hundreds of established, gangsterous, felonious, ambulance chasing, fraudulent injury claim lawyers, who are secretly reprimanded, without criminal prosecution through the NEAR-FARCE activities of the Arkwright Committee investigating felonious lawyers!

The imp judge, W’m Sullivan, did not in the least doubt that Fred Wirschning was breaking down in his perjurous story against the defendant! The IMP, LYING JUDGE, W’m Sullivan, interrupted the breaking-down, confessing, perjurous Fred, THE CAR THIEF, Wirschning and then not only prevented Fred Wirschning from breaking down and admitting his felonious actions of going to Dr. Milton E. Robbins' office and obtaining and paying for Dr. Milton E. Robbins' hand written medical bill for his wife's injury treatments in order that defendant could process her injury claim, as Fred Wirschning admitted in the District Attorney's office in July 1957 during the non existent Grand Jury hearing.

In addition the lying, fancy feather hair cut, hold-over judge, W'm Sullivan, a SELF ADMITTED NEUROTIC PSYCHOTIC IN OPEN COURT, in further kangaroo court style, ordered the faltering, breaking down perjurer, Fred, THE CAR THIEF, Wirschning, to answer only his own (judge W'm Sullivan's) LEADING QUESTIONS with a one word answer only, in order to prevent Fred Wirschning from explaining how he, Fred Wirschning, DID go to Dr. Milton E. Robbins' office and DID pay for and obtain his wife's hand written medical bill from Dr. Milton E. Robbins, which said medical bill Mrs. Wirschning relied upon to state her doctor treated injuries to the Allstate Insurance Company doctor, Joseph Rosenheck on May 24, 1956; which injuries are IDENTICAL to the medical bill injuries claimed by the defendant as FALSE!

The warning by Judge Philip Kleinfeld, namely, "THE JUDGE AND JURY ARE FIXED" and this citizen's trial would only lead to A "TERRIBLE PRISON SENTENCE" was fulfilled and this citizen received three felonious suspended execution sentences of 2½ to 5 years in prison at hard labor!

The raving, incoherent, psychotic-like RAVINGS of Edward Robinson Jr. have been fraudulently altered in the District Attorney's stenographic record! (Such practice of fraudulently altering such statements as a District Attorney's office sees fit is common knowledge, especially to the legal profession, and is considered a SACROSANCT RIGHT of ANY District Attorney's office!)

The CHIEF HENCHMEN to this citizen's persecution through illegal prosecution, such as Frank Gulotta, Edward Robinson Jr. (presently both automatically elected Supreme Court Judges) and Manuel Levine, District Attorney of Nassau County, are ABOVE the law they so wantonly create and administer! The falseness of this citizen's indictment and the prosecution's witnesses' perjurous testimony are not only KNOWN to these men and other important members of the judiciary, but in addition, the said perjuries and frauds were frantically and fanatically CREATED BY AND FOR THESE MEN! For me to now overlook these wantonly impish lawless actions of these men would not only be the undermining of my appeal rights but much more important, it would be a tacit resignation to the perpetuation of such wanton lawless actions by the judiciary!

The Earth's present "civilization" is about to be recycled - "spaded under" - in order that the planet might be refurbished. The human "weeds" have taken over the garden and disturbed its usefulness beyond repair.
The human kingdom was designed (created) as a stepping stone between the animal kingdom and the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human (the true Kingdom of God). It is the soul that can progress from the human kingdom to the Kingdom Level Above Human. Both kingdom levels have their own unique physical "containers" (bodies) for the souls that reside in that kingdom level.
Anonymous6 !!YeIj1AhBs0i ID:K2t0/PEF Mon 01 May 2017 01:11:13 No.123555998 Report
As the human goes out to "choose" servants from within the animal kingdom, from beasts of burden to seeing-eye dogs - if that animal grows to find pleasure only in serving its master, no longer identifies as an animal, but sees itself as a family member in that human family, and its behavior is pleasing to that human - the two become bound together. The human family then provides the body (a human infant) for that soul to enter, allowing it to move up into the human evolutionary kingdom. (This is not to suggest that all humans are containers for souls moving up from the animal kingdom, for most humans are containers for human kingdom returnees still bound to that family unit.)
In a more realistic way, periodically a Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human receives instruction to incarnate among humans to seek out the souls that have been "tagged" or given a "deposit" (an "implant") of knowledge concerning the TRUTH about the Evolutionary Level Above Human. That knowledge finds each recipient wanting to "separate from the pack," and prepares him to recognize the Teacher or Representatives sent from the Kingdom Level Above Human. When he/she connects with that Teacher - an "Older Member" in that Kingdom - he is then offered further instruction in knowledge and behavior that can open the door of service to him. If that human changes to the degree that he no longer desires any human behavior and he pleases that Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human, a bond is formed between them and a body belonging to that new Kingdom is provided for that soul to move up into.

To understand the Globalist Community/Power Structures better, it's important to figure out & understand the organizational Structures they use so you can identify which Group is using/doing what & why.

The organizational Structures of Globalist groups tend to usually/commonly fall into these category's:

1) [Business/Corporate]

2) [Military]

3) [Cult/Religious]

4) [Secret Society]

5) [Traditional/Cultural]

Variants(such as Regional) & Mixes of these organizational Structures exist.
Compartmentalization of various degrees is also present in & around these Structures.

The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. [The image is a close-up photograph of a dog's face, focusing on its eyes and nose. The dog appears to be a Chihuahua, as indicated by the distinctive facial features such as the small, pointed ears and the chin. The dog's eyes are closed, and its nose is slightly open, giving it a somewhat sleepy or relaxed expression. The skin tone of the dog is light, and the fur appears to be of a light color, possibly white or cream. The background of the image is not clearly visible, and the lighting is soft, suggesting the photo might have been taken indoors or in a well-lit environment. There are no texts or discernible brands present in the image. The style of the image is candid and informal, capturing a moment of the dog's life.]

The Da Vinci Code Dan Brown
FOR BLYTHE... AGAIN. MORE THAN EVER.
Acknowledgments
First and foremost, to my friend and editor, Jason Kaufman, for working so hard on this project and for truly understanding what this book is all about. And to the incomparable Heide Lange—tireless champion of The Da Vinci Code, agent extraordinaire, and trusted friend.
I cannot fully express my gratitude to the exceptional team at Doubleday, for their generosity, faith, and superb guidance. Thank you especially to Bill Thomas and Steve Rubin, who believed in this book from the start. My thanks also to the initial core of early in-house supporters, headed by Michael Palgon, Suzanne Herz, Janelle Moburg, Jackie Everly, and Adrienne Sparks, as well as to the talented people of Doubleday's sales force.

For their generous assistance in the research of the book, I would like to acknowledge the Louvre Museum, the French Ministry of Culture, Project Gutenberg, Bibliothèque Nationale, the Gnostic Society Library, the Department of Paintings Study and Documentation Service at the Louvre, Catholic World News, Royal Observatory Greenwich, London Record Society, the Muniment Collection at Westminster Abbey, John Pike and the Federation of American Scientists, and the five members of Opus Dei (three active, two former) who recounted their stories, both positive and negative, regarding their experiences inside Opus Dei.

And finally, in a novel drawing so heavily on the sacred feminine, I would be remiss if I did not mention the two extraordinary women who have touched my life. First, my mother, Connie Brown—fellow scribe, nurturer, musician, and role model. And my wife, Blythe—art historian, painter, front-line editor, and without a doubt the most astonishingly talented woman I have ever known.

FACT:

The Priory of Sion—a European secret society founded in 1099—is a real organization. In 1975 Paris's Bibliothèque Nationale discovered parchments known as Les Dossiers Secrets, identifying numerous members of the Priory of Sion, including Sir Isaac Newton, Botticelli, Victor Hugo, and Leonardo da Vinci.

The Vatican prelature known as Opus Dei is a deeply devout Catholic sect that has been the topic of recent controversy due to reports of brainwashing, coercion, and a dangerous practice known as "corporal mortification." Opus Dei has just completed construction of a $47 million World Headquarters at 243 Lexington Avenue in New York City.

Prologue

Louvre Museum, Paris 10:46 P.M.

Renowned curator Jacques Saunière staggered through the vaulted archway of the museum's Grand Gallery. He lunged for the nearest painting he could see, a Caravaggio. Grabbing the gilded frame, the seventy-six-year-old man heaved the masterpiece toward himself until it tore from the wall and Saunière collapsed backward in a heap beneath the canvas.

As he had anticipated, a thundering iron gate fell nearby, barricading the entrance to the suite. The parquet floor shook. Far off, an alarm began to ring.

The curator lay a moment, gasping for breath, taking stock. I am still alive. He crawled out from under the canvas and scanned the cavernous space for someplace to hide.

A voice spoke, chillingly close. "Do not move."

On his hands and knees, the curator froze, turning his head slowly.

Only fifteen feet away, outside the sealed gate, the mountainous silhouette of his attacker stared through the iron bars. He was broad and tall, with ghost-pale skin and thinning white hair. His irises were pink with dark red pupils. The albino drew a pistol from his coat and aimed the barrel through the bars, directly at the curator. "You should not have run." His accent was not easy to place. "Now tell me where it is."

"I told you already," the curator stammered, kneeling defenseless on the floor of the gallery. "I have no idea what you are talking about!"

"You are lying." The man stared at him, perfectly immobile except for the glint in his ghostly eyes. "You and your brethren possess something that is not yours."

The curator felt a surge of adrenaline. How could he possibly know this?

"Tonight the rightful guardians will be restored. Tell me where it is hidden, and you will live." The man leveled his gun at the curator's head. "Is it a secret you will die for?" Saunière could not breathe.

The man tilted his head, peering down the barrel of his gun.

Saunière held up his hands in defense. "Wait," he said slowly. "I will tell you what you need to know." The curator spoke his next words carefully. The lie he told was one he had rehearsed many times... each time praying he would never have to use it.

When the curator had finished speaking, his assailant smiled smugly. "Yes. This is exactly what the others told me."

Saunière recoiled. The others?

"I found them, too," the huge man taunted. "All three of them. They confirmed what you have just said."

It cannot be! The curator's true identity, along with the identities of his three sénéchaux, was almost as sacred as the ancient secret they protected. Saunière now realized his sénéchaux, following strict procedure, had told the same lie before their own deaths. It was part of the protocol.
The attacker aimed his gun again. "When you are gone, I will be the only one who knows the truth."
The truth. In an instant, the curator grasped the true horror of the situation. If I die, the truth will be lost forever. Instinctively, he tried to scramble for cover.
The gun roared, and the curator felt a searing heat as the bullet lodged in his stomach. He fell forward... struggling against the pain. Slowly, Saunière rolled over and stared back through the bars at his attacker.
The man was now taking dead aim at Saunière's head.
Saunière closed his eyes, his thoughts a swirling tempest of fear and regret.
The click of an empty chamber echoed through the corridor.
The curator's eyes flew open.

The man glanced down at his weapon, looking almost amused. He reached for a second clip, but then seemed to reconsider, smirking calmly at Saunière's gut. "My work here is done."
The curator looked down and saw the bullet hole in his white linen shirt. It was framed by a small circle of blood a few inches below his breastbone. My stomach. Almost cruelly, the bullet had missed his heart. As a veteran of la Guerre d'Algérie, the curator had witnessed this horribly drawn- out death before. For fifteen minutes, he would survive as his stomach acids seeped into his chest cavity, slowly poisoning him from within.
"Pain is good, monsieur," the man said. Then he was gone.
Alone now, Jacques Saunière turned his gaze again to the iron gate. He was trapped, and the doors could not be reopened for at least twenty minutes. By the time anyone got to him, he would be dead. Even so, the fear that now gripped him was a fear far greater than that of his own death.
I must pass on the secret.
Staggering to his feet, he pictured his three murdered brethren. He thought of the generations who had come before them... of the mission with which they had all been entrusted.
An unbroken chain of knowledge.
Suddenly, now, despite all the precautions... despite all the fail-safes... Jacques Saunière was the only remaining link, the sole guardian of one of the most powerful secrets ever kept.
Shivering, he pulled himself to his feet.
I must find some way....

He was trapped inside the Grand Gallery, and there existed only one person on earth to whom he could pass the torch. Saunière gazed up at the walls of his opulent prison. A collection of the world's most famous paintings seemed to smile down on him like old friends.
Wincing in pain, he summoned all of his faculties and strength. The desperate task before him, he knew, would require every remaining second of his life.
CHAPTER 1
Robert Langdon awoke slowly.

A telephone was ringing in the darkness—a tinny, unfamiliar ring. He fumbled for the bedside lamp and turned it on. Squinting at his surroundings he saw a plush Renaissance bedroom with Louis XVI furniture, hand-frescoed walls, and a colossal mahogany four-poster bed.
Where the hell am I?
The jacquard bathrobe hanging on his bedpost bore the monogram: HOTEL RITZ PARIS.
Slowly, the fog began to lift.
Langdon picked up the receiver. "Hello?"
"Monsieur Langdon?" a man's voice said. "I hope I have not awoken you?"
Dazed, Langdon looked at the bedside clock. It was 12:32 A.M. He had been asleep only an hour, but he felt like the dead.
"This is the concierge, monsieur. I apologize for this intrusion, but you have a visitor. He insists it is urgent."

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY OF PARIS

Langdon groaned. Tonight's lecture—a slide show about pagan symbolism hidden in the stones of Chartres Cathedral—had probably ruffled some conservative feathers in the audience. Most likely, some religious scholar had trailed him home to pick a fight. "I'm sorry," Langdon said, "but I'm very tired and—"
"Mais, monsieur," the concierge pressed, lowering his voice to an urgent whisper. "Your guest is an important man."

Langdon had little doubt. His books on religious paintings and cult symbology had made him a reluctant celebrity in the art world, and last year Langdon's visibility had increased a hundredfold after his involvement in a widely publicized incident at the Vatican. Since then, the stream of self- important historians and art buffs arriving at his door had seemed never-ending.
"If you would be so kind," Langdon said, doing his best to remain polite, "could you take the man's name and number, and tell him I'll try to call him before I leave Paris on Tuesday? Thank you." He hung up before the concierge could protest.
Sitting up now, Langdon frowned at his bedside Guest Relations Handbook, whose cover boasted: SLEEP LIKE A BABY IN THE CITY OF LIGHTS. SLUMBER AT THE PARIS RITZ. He turned and gazed tiredly into the full-length mirror across the room. The man staring back at him was a stranger—tousled and weary.

You need a vacation, Robert.
The past year had taken a heavy toll on him, but he didn't appreciate seeing proof in the mirror. His usually sharp blue eyes looked hazy and drawn tonight. A dark stubble was shrouding his strong jaw and dimpled chin. Around his temples, the gray highlights were advancing, making their way deeper into his thicket of coarse black hair. Although his female colleagues insisted the gray only accentuated his bookish appeal, Langdon knew better.
If Boston Magazine could see me now.
Last month, much to Langdon's embarrassment, Boston Magazine had listed him as one of that city's top ten most intriguing people—a dubious honor that made him the brunt of endless ribbing by his Harvard colleagues. Tonight, three thousand miles from home, the accolade had resurfaced to haunt him at the lecture he had given.
"Ladies and gentlemen..." the hostess had announced to a full house at the American University of Paris's Pavilion Dauphine, "Our guest tonight needs no introduction. He is the author of numerous books: The Symbology of Secret Sects, The An of the Illuminati, The Lost Language of Ideograms, and when I say he wrote the book on Religious Iconology, I mean that quite literally. Many of you use his textbooks in class."
The students in the crowd nodded enthusiastically.
"I had planned to introduce him tonight by sharing his impressive curriculum vitae.

However..." She glanced playfully at Langdon, who was seated onstage. "An audience member has just handed me a far more, shall we say... intriguing introduction."

She held up a copy of Boston Magazine.
Langdon cringed. Where the hell did she get that?
The hostess began reading choice excerpts from the inane article, and Langdon felt himself sinking lower and lower in his chair. Thirty seconds later, the crowd was grinning, and the woman showed no signs of letting up. "And Mr. Langdon's refusal to speak publicly about his unusual role in last year's Vatican conclave certainly wins him points on our intrigue-o-meter." The hostess goaded the crowd. "Would you like to hear more?"
The crowd applauded.
Somebody stop her, Langdon pleaded as she dove into the article again.
"Although Professor Langdon might not be considered hunk-handsome like some of our younger awardees, this forty-something academic has more than his share of scholarly allure. His captivating presence is punctuated by an unusually low, baritone speaking voice, which his female students describe as 'chocolate for the ears.' "
The hall erupted in laughter.
Langdon forced an awkward smile. He knew what came next—some ridiculous line about "Harrison Ford in Harris tweed"—and because this evening he had figured it was finally safe again to wear his Harris tweed and Burberry turtleneck, he decided to take action.
"Thank you, Monique," Langdon said, standing prematurely and edging her away from the podium. "Boston Magazine clearly has a gift for fiction." He turned to the audience with an embarrassed sigh. "And if I find which one of you provided that article, I'll have the consulate deport you."
The crowd laughed.
"Well, folks, as you all know, I'm here tonight to talk about the power of symbols.

Genetic engineering is going to be the way they will "shut it down". Each time you commit a larson, are arrested after a DUI, give your DNA to 23&me or do a paternity test, they stock your genomes sequencing in giant database centers.
We know how to reproduce the exact nucleotides sequencing since few years, using PCR (polymerase chain reaction) meaning we are able to biologically replicate few copies of a segment of DNA across several orders of magnitude, i.e. we can replicate to any scale needed any DNA sample we have stored.
As you must know, in forensic biology and in the courthouse, DNA is the holy grail of proofs...

The ringing of Langdon's hotel phone once again broke the silence.
Groaning in disbelief, he picked up. "Yes?"
As expected, it was the concierge. "Mr. Langdon, again my apologies. I am calling to inform you that your guest is now en route to your room. I thought I should alert you."
Langdon was wide awake now. "You sent someone to my room?"
"I apologize, monsieur, but a man like this... I cannot presume the authority to stop him."
"Who exactly is he?"
But the concierge was gone.
Almost immediately, a heavy fist pounded on Langdon's door.
Uncertain, Langdon slid off the bed, feeling his toes sink deep into the savonniere carpet. He donned the hotel bathrobe and moved toward the door. "Who is it?"
"Mr. Langdon? I need to speak with you." The man's English was accented—a sharp, authoritative bark. "My name is Lieutenant Jerome Collet. Direction Centrale Police Judiciaire."
Langdon paused. The Judicial Police? The DCPJ was the rough equivalent of the U.S. FBI.
Leaving the security chain in place, Langdon opened the door a few inches. The face staring back at him was thin and washed out. The man was exceptionally lean, dressed in an official-looking blue uniform.
"May I come in?" the agent asked.
Langdon hesitated, feeling uncertain as the stranger's sallow eyes studied him. "What is this all about?"
"My capitaine requires your expertise in a private matter."
"Now?" Langdon managed. "It's after midnight."
"Am I correct that you were scheduled to meet with the curator of the Louvre this evening?"

Langdon felt a sudden surge of uneasiness. He and the revered curator Jacques Saunière had been slated to meet for drinks after Langdon's lecture tonight, but Saunière had never shown up. "Yes. How did you know that?"
"We found your name in his daily planner."
"I trust nothing is wrong?"
The agent gave a dire sigh and slid a Polaroid snapshot through the narrow opening in the door.
When Langdon saw the photo, his entire body went rigid.
As Langdon stared at the bizarre image, his initial revulsion and shock gave way to a sudden upwelling of anger. "Who would do this!"
"We had hoped that you might help us answer that very question, considering your knowledge in symbology and your plans to meet with him."
Langdon stared at the picture, his horror now laced with fear. The image was gruesome and profoundly strange, bringing with it an unsettling sense of déjà vu. A little over a year ago, Langdon had received a photograph of a corpse and a similar request for help. Twenty-four hours later, he had almost lost his life inside Vatican City. This photo was entirely different, and yet something about the scenario felt disquietingly familiar.
The agent checked his watch. "My capitaine is waiting, sir."
Langdon barely heard him. His eyes were still riveted on the picture. "This symbol here, and the way his body is so oddly..."

"Positioned?" the agent offered.
Langdon nodded, feeling a chill as he looked up. "I can't imagine who would do this to someone."

CHAPTER 2
One mile away, the hulking albino named Silas limped through the front gate of the luxurious brownstone residence on Rue La Bruyère. The spiked cilice belt that he wore around his thigh cut into his flesh, and yet his soul sang with satisfaction of service to the Lord.
Pain is good.
His red eyes scanned the lobby as he entered the residence. Empty. He climbed the stairs quietly, not wanting to awaken any of his fellow numeraries. His bedroom door was open; locks were forbidden here. He entered, closing the door behind him.
The room was spartan—hardwood floors, a pine dresser, a canvas mat in the corner that served as his bed. He was a visitor here this week, and yet for many years he had been blessed with a similar sanctuary in New York City.
The Lord has provided me shelter and purpose in my life.
Tonight, at last, Silas felt he had begun to repay his debt. Hurrying to the dresser, he found the cell phone hidden in his bottom drawer and placed a call.

"Yes?" a male voice answered.
"Teacher, I have returned."
"Speak," the voice commanded, sounding pleased to hear from him.
"All four are gone. The three sénéchaux... and the Grand Master himself."
There was a momentary pause, as if for prayer. "Then I assume you have the information?"
"All four concurred. Independently."
"And you believed them?"
"Their agreement was too great for coincidence."
An excited breath. "Excellent. I had feared the brotherhood's reputation for secrecy might prevail."
"The prospect of death is strong motivation."
"So, my pupil, tell me what I must know."
Silas knew the information he had gleaned from his victims would come as a shock.
"Teacher, all four confirmed the existence of the clef de voûte... the legendary keystone."
He heard a quick intake of breath over the phone and could feel the Teacher's excitement. "The keystone. Exactly as we suspected."
According to lore, the brotherhood had created a map of stone—a clef de voûte... or keystone—an engraved tablet that revealed the final resting place of the brotherhood's greatest secret...
information so powerful that its protection was the reason for the brotherhood's very existence. "When we possess the keystone," the Teacher said, "we will be only one step away."
"We are closer than you think. The keystone is here in Paris."
"Paris? Incredible. It is almost too easy."

Silas relayed the earlier events of the evening... how all four of his victims, moments before death, had desperately tried to buy back their godless lives by telling their secret. Each had told Silas the exact same thing—that the keystone was ingeniously hidden at a precise location inside one of Paris's ancient churches—the Eglise de Saint-Sulpice. "Inside a house of the Lord," the Teacher exclaimed. "How they mock us!" "As they have for centuries."
The Teacher fell silent, as if letting the triumph of this moment settle over him. Finally, he spoke. "You have done a great service to God. We have waited centuries for this. You must retrieve the stone for me. Immediately. Tonight. You understand the stakes."
Silas knew the stakes were incalculable, and yet what the Teacher was now commanding seemed impossible. "But the church, it is a fortress. Especially at night. How will I enter?"
With the confident tone of a man of enormous influence, the Teacher explained what was to be done.
When Silas hung up the phone, his skin tingled with anticipation.
One hour, he told himself, grateful that the Teacher had given him time to carry out the necessary penance before entering a house of God. I must purge my soul of today's sins. The sins committed today had been holy in purpose. Acts of war against the enemies of God had been committed for centuries. Forgiveness was assured.

Even so, Silas knew, absolution required sacrifice.

Pulling his shades, he stripped naked and knelt in the center of his room. Looking down, he examined the spiked cilice belt clamped around his thigh. All true followers of The Way wore this device—a leather strap, studded with sharp metal barbs that cut into the flesh as a perpetual reminder of Christ's suffering. The pain caused by the device also helped counteract the desires of the flesh.

Although Silas already had worn his cilice today longer than the requisite two hours, he knew today was no ordinary day. Grasping the buckle, he cinched it one notch tighter, wincing as the barbs dug deeper into his flesh. Exhaling slowly, he savored the cleansing ritual of his pain.

Pain is good, Silas whispered, repeating the sacred mantra of Father Josemaría Escrivá—the Teacher of all Teachers. Although Escrivá had died in 1975, his wisdom lived on, his words still whispered by thousands of faithful servants around the globe as they knelt on the floor and performed the sacred practice known as "corporal mortification."

Silas turned his attention now to a heavy knotted rope coiled neatly on the floor beside him. The Discipline. The knots were caked with dried blood. Eager for the purifying effects of his own agony, Silas said a quick prayer. Then, gripping one end of the rope, he closed his eyes and swung it hard over his shoulder, feeling the knots slap against his back. He whipped it over his shoulder again, slashing at his flesh. Again and again, he lashed.

Castigo corpus meum.

Finally, he felt the blood begin to flow.

CHAPTER 3

The crisp April air whipped through the open window of the Citroën ZX as it skimmed south past the Opera House and crossed Place Vendôme. In the passenger seat, Robert Langdon felt the city tear past him as he tried to clear his thoughts. His quick shower and shave had left him looking reasonably presentable but had done little to ease his anxiety. The frightening image of the curator's body remained locked in his mind.

Jacques Saunière is dead.

Langdon could not help but feel a deep sense of loss at the curator's death. Despite Saunière's reputation for being reclusive, his recognition for dedication to the arts made him an easy man to revere. His books on the secret codes hidden in the paintings of Poussin and Teniers were some of Langdon's favorite classroom texts. Tonight's meeting had been one Langdon was very much looking forward to, and he was disappointed when the curator had not shown.

Again the image of the curator's body flashed in his mind. Jacques Saunière did that to himself? Langdon turned and looked out the window, forcing the picture from his mind. Outside, the city was just now winding down—street vendors wheeling carts of candied amandes, waiters carrying bags of garbage to the curb, a pair of late night lovers cuddling to stay warm in a breeze scented with jasmine blossom. The Citroën navigated the chaos with authority, its dissonant two-tone siren parting the traffic like a knife.

"Le capitaine was pleased to discover you were still in Paris tonight," the agent said, speaking for the first time since they'd left the hotel. "A fortunate coincidence."
Langdon was feeling anything but fortunate, and coincidence was a concept he did not entirely trust. As someone who had spent his life exploring the hidden interconnectivity of disparate emblems and ideologies, Langdon viewed the world as a web of profoundly intertwined histories and events. The connections may be invisible, he often preached to his symbology classes at Harvard, but they are always there, buried just beneath the surface.
"I assume," Langdon said, "that the American University of Paris told you where I was staying?"
The driver shook his head. "Interpol."
Interpol, Langdon thought. Of course. He had forgotten that the seemingly innocuous request of all European hotels to see a passport at check-in was more than a quaint formality—it was the law. On any given night, all across Europe, Interpol officials could pinpoint exactly who was sleeping where. Finding Langdon at the Ritz had probably taken all of five seconds.
As the Citroën accelerated southward across the city, the illuminated profile of the Eiffel Tower appeared, shooting skyward in the distance to the right. Seeing it, Langdon thought of Vittoria, recalling their playful promise a year ago that every six months they would meet again at a different romantic spot on the globe. The Eiffel Tower, Langdon suspected, would have made their list. Sadly, he last kissed Vittoria in a noisy airport in Rome more than a year ago.

"Did you mount her?" the agent asked, looking over.
Langdon glanced up, certain he had misunderstood. "I beg your pardon?"
"She is lovely, no?" The agent motioned through the windshield toward the Eiffel Tower. "Have you mounted her?"
Langdon rolled his eyes. "No, I haven't climbed the tower." "She is the symbol of France. I think she is perfect."
Langdon nodded absently. Symbologists often remarked that France—a country renowned for machismo, womanizing, and diminutive insecure leaders like Napoleon and Pepin the Short—could not have chosen a more apt national emblem than a thousand-foot phallus.
When they reached the intersection at Rue de Rivoli, the traffic light was red, but the Citroën didn't slow. The agent gunned the sedan across the junction and sped onto a wooded section of Rue Castiglione, which served as the northern entrance to the famed Tuileries Gardens—Paris's own version of Central Park. Most tourists mistranslated Jardins des Tuileries as relating to the thousands of tulips that bloomed here, but Tuileries was actually a literal reference to something far less romantic. This park had once been an enormous, polluted excavation pit from which Parisian contractors mined clay to manufacture the city's famous red roofing tiles—or tuiles.

As they entered the deserted park, the agent reached under the dash and turned off the blaring siren. Langdon exhaled, savoring the sudden quiet. Outside the car, the pale wash of halogen headlights skimmed over the crushed gravel parkway, the rugged whir of the tires intoning a hypnotic rhythm. Langdon had always considered the Tuileries to be sacred ground. These were the gardens in which Claude Monet had experimented with form and color, and literally inspired the birth of the Impressionist movement. Tonight, however, this place held a strange aura of foreboding.
The Citroën swerved left now, angling west down the park's central boulevard. Curling around a circular pond, the driver cut across a desolate avenue out into a wide quadrangle beyond. Langdon could now see the end of the Tuileries Gardens, marked by a giant stone archway.
Arc du Carrousel.

Despite the orgiastic rituals once held at the Arc du Carrousel, art aficionados revered this place for another reason entirely. From the esplanade at the end of the Tuileries, four of the finest art museums in the world could be seen... one at each point of the compass.

Out the right-hand window, south across the Seine and Quai Voltaire, Langdon could see the dramatically lit facade of the old train station—now the esteemed Musée d'Orsay. Glancing left, he could make out the top of the ultramodern Pompidou Center, which housed the Museum of Modern Art. Behind him to the west, Langdon knew the ancient obelisk of Ramses rose above the trees, marking the Musée du Jeu de Paume. But it was straight ahead, to the east, through the archway, that Langdon could now see the monolithic Renaissance palace that had become the most famous art museum in the world.

Musée du Louvre.

Langdon felt a familiar tinge of wonder as his eyes made a futile attempt to absorb the entire mass of the edifice. Across a staggeringly expansive plaza, the imposing facade of the Louvre rose like a citadel against the Paris sky.

Shaped like an enormous horseshoe, the Louvre was the longest building in Europe, stretching farther than three Eiffel Towers laid end to end. Not even the million square feet of open plaza between the museum wings could challenge the majesty of the facade's breadth. Langdon had once walked the Louvre's entire perimeter, an astonishing three-mile journey.

Despite the estimated five days it would take a visitor to properly appreciate the 65,300 pieces of art in this building, most tourists chose an abbreviated experience Langdon referred to as "Louvre Lite"—a full sprint through the museum to see the three most famous objects: the Mona Lisa, Venus de Milo, and Winged Victory. Art Buchwald had once boasted he'd seen all three masterpieces in five minutes and fifty-six seconds.

The driver pulled out a handheld walkie-talkie and spoke in rapid-fire French. "Monsieur Langdon est arrivé. Deux minutes."

An indecipherable confirmation came crackling back.

The agent stowed the device, turning now to Langdon. "You will meet the capitaine at the main entrance."

The driver ignored the signs prohibiting auto traffic on the plaza, revved the engine, and gunned the Citroën up over the curb. The Louvre's main entrance was visible now, rising boldly in the distance, encircled by seven triangular pools from which spouted illuminated fountains.

La Pyramide.

The new entrance to the Paris Louvre had become almost as famous as the museum itself. The controversial, neomodern glass pyramid designed by Chinese-born American architect I. M. Pei still evoked scorn from traditionalists who felt it destroyed the dignity of the Renaissance courtyard. Goethe had described architecture as frozen music, and Pei's critics described this pyramid as fingernails on a chalkboard.

Progressive admirers, though, hailed Pei's seventy-one-foot- tall transparent pyramid as a dazzling synergy of ancient structure and modern method—a symbolic link between the old and new—helping usher the Louvre into the next millennium. "Do you like our pyramid?" the agent asked.
Langdon frowned. The French, it seemed, loved to ask Americans this. It was a loaded question, of course. Admitting you liked the pyramid made you a tasteless American, and expressing dislike was an insult to the French.
"Mitterrand was a bold man," Langdon replied, splitting the difference. The late French president who had commissioned the pyramid was said to have suffered from a "Pharaoh complex." Singlehandedly responsible for filling Paris with Egyptian obelisks, art, and artifacts.
François Mitterrand had an affinity for Egyptian culture that was so all-consuming that the French still referred to him as the Sphinx.
"What is the captain's name?" Langdon asked, changing topics.
"Bezu Fache," the driver said, approaching the pyramid's main entrance. "We call him le Taureau." Langdon glanced over at him, wondering if every Frenchman had a mysterious animal epithet.
"You call your captain the Bull?"
The man arched his eyebrows. "Your French is better than you admit, Monsieur Langdon."
My French stinks, Langdon thought, but my zodiac iconography is pretty good. Taurus was always the bull. Astrology was a symbolic constant all over the world.
The agent pulled the car to a stop and pointed between two fountains to a large door in the side of the pyramid. "There is the entrance. Good luck, monsieur."
"You're not coming?"
"My orders are to leave you here. I have other business to attend to." Langdon heaved a sigh and climbed out. It's your circus.

The agent revved his engine and sped off.
As Langdon stood alone and watched the departing taillights, he realized he could easily reconsider, exit the courtyard, grab a taxi, and head home to bed. Something told him it was probably a lousy idea.
As he moved toward the mist of the fountains, Langdon had the uneasy sense he was crossing an imaginary threshold into another world. The dreamlike quality of the evening was settling around him again. Twenty minutes ago he had been asleep in his hotel room. Now he was standing in front of a transparent pyramid built by the Sphinx, waiting for a policeman they called the Bull.

I'm trapped in a Salvador Dali painting, he thought.

Langdon strode to the main entrance—an enormous revolving door. The foyer beyond was dimly lit and deserted.

Do I knock?

Langdon wondered if any of Harvard's revered Egyptologists had ever knocked on the front door of a pyramid and expected an answer. He raised his hand to bang on the glass, but out of the darkness below, a figure appeared, striding up the curving staircase. The man was stocky and dark, almost Neanderthal, dressed in a dark double-breasted suit that strained to cover his wide shoulders. He advanced with unmistakable authority on squat, powerful legs. He was speaking on his cell phone but finished the call as he arrived. He motioned for Langdon to enter.

"I am Bezu Fache," he announced as Langdon pushed through the revolving door. "Captain of the Central Directorate Judicial Police." His tone was fitting—a guttural rumble... like a gathering storm.

Langdon held out his hand to shake. "Robert Langdon."

Fache's enormous palm wrapped around Langdon's with crushing force.

"I saw the photo," Langdon said. "Your agent said Jacques Saunière himself did—"

"Mr. Langdon," Fache's ebony eyes locked on. "What you see in the photo is only the beginning of what Saunière did."

CHAPTER 4

Captain Bezu Fache carried himself like an angry ox, with his wide shoulders thrown back and his chin tucked hard into his chest. His dark hair was slicked back with oil, accentuating an arrow-like widow's peak that divided his jutting brow and preceded him like the prow of a battleship. As he advanced, his dark eyes seemed to scorch the earth before him, radiating a fiery clarity that forecast his reputation for unblinking severity in all matters.

Langdon followed the captain down the famous marble staircase into the sunken atrium beneath the glass pyramid. As they descended, they passed between two armed Judicial Police guards with machine guns. The message was clear: Nobody goes in or out tonight without the blessing of Captain Fache.
Descending below ground level, Langdon fought a rising trepidation. Fache's presence was anything but welcoming, and the Louvre itself had an almost sepulchral aura at this hour. The staircase, like the aisle of a dark movie theater, was illuminated by subtle tread-lighting embedded in each step. Langdon could hear his own footsteps reverberating off the glass overhead. As he glanced up, he could see the faint illuminated wisps of mist from the fountains fading away outside the transparent roof.

"Do you approve?" Fache asked, nodding upward with his broad chin.
Langdon sighed, too tired to play games. "Yes, your pyramid is magnificent."
Fache grunted. "A scar on the face of Paris."
Strike one. Langdon sensed his host was a hard man to please. He wondered if Fache had any idea that this pyramid, at President Mitterrand's explicit demand, had been constructed of exactly 666 panes of glass—a bizarre request that had always been a hot topic among conspiracy buffs who claimed 666 was the number of Satan.
Langdon decided not to bring it up.
As they dropped farther into the subterranean foyer, the yawning space slowly emerged from the shadows. Built fifty-seven feet beneath ground level, the Louvre's newly constructed 70,000-square- foot lobby spread out like an endless grotto. Constructed in warm ocher marble to be compatible with the honey-colored stone of the Louvre facade above, the subterranean hall was usually vibrant with sunlight and tourists. Tonight, however, the lobby was barren and dark, giving the entire space a cold and crypt-like atmosphere.
"And the museum's regular security staff?" Langdon asked.
"En quarantaine," Fache replied, sounding as if Langdon were questioning the integrity of Fache's team. "Obviously, someone gained entry tonight who should not have. All Louvre night wardens are in the Sully Wing being questioned. My own agents have taken over museum security for the evening."
Langdon nodded, moving quickly to keep pace with Fache.
"How well did you know Jacques Saunière?" the captain asked.
"Actually, not at all. We'd never met."
Fache looked surprised. "Your first meeting was to be tonight?"
"Yes. We'd planned to meet at the American University reception following my lecture, but he never showed up."

Fache scribbled some notes in a little book. As they walked, Langdon caught a glimpse of the Louvre's lesser-known pyramid—La Pyramide Inversée—a huge inverted skylight that hung from the ceiling like a stalactite in an adjoining section of the entresol. Fache guided Langdon up a short set of stairs to the mouth of an arched tunnel, over which a sign read: DENON. The Denon Wing was the most famous of the Louvre's three main sections.
"Who requested tonight's meeting?" Fache asked suddenly. "You or he?"
The question seemed odd. "Mr. Saunière did," Langdon replied as they entered the tunnel. "His secretary contacted me a few weeks ago via e-mail. She said the curator had heard I would be lecturing in Paris this month and wanted to discuss something with me while I was here."
"Discuss what?"
"I don't know. Art, I imagine. We share similar interests."
Fache looked skeptical. "You have no idea what your meeting was about?"
Langdon did not. He'd been curious at the time but had not felt comfortable demanding specifics. The venerated Jacques Saunière had a renowned penchant for privacy and granted very few meetings; Langdon was grateful simply for the opportunity to meet him.
"Mr. Langdon, can you at least guess what our murder victim might have wanted to discuss with you on the night he was killed? It might be helpful."
The pointedness of the question made Langdon uncomfortable. "I really can't imagine. I didn't ask. I felt honored to have been contacted at all. I'm an admirer of Mr. Saunière's work. I use his texts often in my classes."
Fache made note of that fact in his book.
The two men were now halfway up the Denon Wing's entry tunnel, and Langdon could see the twin ascending escalators at the far end, both motionless.
"So you shared interests with him?" Fache asked.
"Yes. In fact, I've spent much of the last year writing the draft for a book that deals with Mr. Saunière's primary area of expertise. I was looking forward to picking his brain."

Fache glanced up. "Pardon?"
The idiom apparently didn't translate. "I was looking forward to learning his thoughts on the topic." "I see. And what is the topic?"
Langdon hesitated, uncertain exactly how to put it. "Essentially, the manuscript is about the iconography of goddess worship—the concept of female sanctity and the art and symbols associated with it."
Fache ran a meaty hand across his hair. "And Saunière was knowledgeable about this?" "Nobody more so."
"I see."
Langdon sensed Fache did not see at all. Jacques Saunière was considered the premiere goddess iconographer on earth. Not only did Saunière have a personal passion for relics relating to fertility, goddess cults, Wicca, and the sacred feminine, but during his twenty-year tenure as curator, Saunière had helped the Louvre amass the largest collection of goddess art on earth—labrys axes from the priestesses' oldest Greek shrine in Delphi, gold caducei wands, hundreds of Tjet ankhs resembling small standing angels, sistrum rattles used in ancient Egypt to dispel evil spirits, and an astonishing array of statues depicting Horus being nursed by the goddess Isis.
"Perhaps Jacques Saunière knew of your manuscript?" Fache offered. "And he called the meeting to offer his help on your book."
Langdon shook his head. "Actually, nobody yet knows about my manuscript. It's still in draft form, and I haven't shown it to anyone except my editor."
Fache fell silent.
Langdon did not add the reason he hadn't yet shown the manuscript to anyone else. The three- hundred-page draft—tentatively titled Symbols of the Lost Sacred Feminine—proposed some very unconventional interpretations of established religious iconography which would certainly be controversial.

Now, as Langdon approached the stationary escalators, he paused, realizing Fache was no longer beside him. Turning, Langdon saw Fache standing several yards back at a service elevator.
"We'll take the elevator," Fache said as the lift doors opened. "As I'm sure you're aware, the gallery is quite a distance on foot."

Although Langdon knew the elevator would expedite the long, two-story climb to the Denon Wing, he remained motionless.
"Is something wrong?" Fache was holding the door, looking impatient.
Langdon exhaled, turning a longing glance back up the open-air escalator. Nothing's wrong at all, he lied to himself, trudging back toward the elevator. As a boy, Langdon had fallen down an abandoned well shaft and almost died treading water in the narrow space for hours before being rescued. Since then, he'd suffered a haunting phobia of enclosed spaces—elevators, subways, squash courts. The elevator is a perfectly safe machine, Langdon continually told himself, never believing it. It's a tiny metal box hanging in an enclosed shaft! Holding his breath, he stepped into the lift, feeling the familiar tingle of adrenaline as the doors slid shut. Two floors. Ten seconds.
"You and Mr. Saunière," Fache said as the lift began to move, "you never spoke at all? Never corresponded? Never sent each other anything in the mail?"
Another odd question. Langdon shook his head. "No. Never." Fache cocked his head, as if making a mental note of that fact. Saying nothing, he stared dead ahead at the chrome doors.
As they ascended, Langdon tried to focus on anything other than the four walls around him. In the reflection of the shiny elevator door, he saw the captain's tie clip—a silver crucifix with thirteen embedded pieces of black onyx. Langdon found it vaguely surprising. The symbol was known as a crux gemmata—a cross bearing thirteen gems—a Christian ideogram for Christ and His twelve apostles.

Langdon stepped quickly out into the hallway, eager for the wide-open space afforded by the famous high ceilings of the Louvre galleries. The world into which he stepped, however, was nothing like he expected.
Surprised, Langdon stopped short.
Fache glanced over. "I gather, Mr. Langdon, you have never seen the Louvre after hours?" I guess not, Langdon thought, trying to get his bearings.
Usually impeccably illuminated, the Louvre galleries were startlingly dark tonight. Instead of the customary flat-white light flowing down from above, a muted red glow seemed to emanate upward from the baseboards—intermittent patches of red light spilling out onto the tile floors.
As Langdon gazed down the murky corridor, he realized he should have anticipated this scene. Virtually all major galleries employed red service lighting at night—strategically placed, low-level, noninvasive lights that enabled staff members to navigate hallways and yet kept the paintings in relative darkness to slow the fading effects of overexposure to light. Tonight, the museum possessed an almost oppressive quality. Long shadows encroached everywhere, and the usually soaring vaulted ceilings appeared as a low, black void.
"This way," Fache said, turning sharply right and setting out through a series of interconnected galleries.
Langdon followed, his vision slowly adjusting to the dark. All around, large-format oils began to materialize like photos developing before him in an enormous darkroom... their eyes following as he moved through the rooms.

he moved through the rooms. He could taste the familiar tang of museum air—an arid, deionized essence that carried a faint hint of carbon—the product of industrial, coal-filter dehumidifiers that ran around the clock to counteract the corrosive carbon dioxide exhaled by visitors.
Mounted high on the walls, the visible security cameras sent a clear message to visitors: We see you. Do not touch anything.
"Any of them real?" Langdon asked, motioning to the cameras. Fache shook his head. "Of course not."
Langdon was not surprised. Video surveillance in museums this size was cost-prohibitive and ineffective. With acres of galleries to watch over, the Louvre would require several hundred technicians simply to monitor the feeds. Most large museums now used "containment security." Forget keeping thieves out. Keep them in.
Containment was activated after hours, and if an intruder removed a piece of artwork, compartmentalized exits would seal around that gallery, and the thief would find himself behind bars even before the police arrived.
The sound of voices echoed down the marble corridor up ahead. The noise seemed to be coming from a large recessed alcove that lay ahead on the right. A bright light spilled out into the hallway.
"Office of the curator," the captain said.
As he and Fache drew nearer the alcove, Langdon peered down a short hallway, into Saunière's luxurious study—warm wood, Old Master paintings, and an enormous antique desk on which stood a two-foot-tall model of a knight in full armor. A handful of police agents bustled about the room, talking on phones and taking notes. One of them was seated at Saunière's desk, typing into a laptop. Apparently, the curator's private office had become DCPJ's makeshift command post for the evening.

"Messieurs," Fache called out, and the men turned. "Ne nous dérangez pas sous aucun prétexte. Entendu?"
Everyone inside the office nodded their understanding.

As they approached, Langdon saw the entrance was blocked by an enormous steel grate that looked like something used by medieval castles to keep out marauding armies.
"Containment security," Fache said, as they neared the grate.
Even in the darkness, the barricade looked like it could have restrained a tank. Arriving outside, Langdon peered through the bars into the dimly lit caverns of the Grand Gallery. "After you, Mr. Langdon," Fache said.
Langdon turned. After me, where?
Fache motioned toward the floor at the base of the grate.
Langdon looked down. In the darkness, he hadn't noticed. The barricade was raised about two feet, providing an awkward clearance underneath.
"This area is still off limits to Louvre security," Fache said. "My team from Police Technique et Scientifique has just finished their investigation." He motioned to the opening. "Please slide under."
Langdon stared at the narrow crawl space at his feet and then up at the massive iron grate. He's kidding, right? The barricade looked like a guillotine waiting to crush intruders.
Fache grumbled something in French and checked his watch. Then he dropped to his knees and slithered his bulky frame underneath the grate. On the other side, he stood up and looked back through the bars at Langdon.
Langdon sighed. Placing his palms flat on the polished parquet, he lay on his stomach and pulled himself forward. As he slid underneath, the nape of his Harris tweed snagged on the bottom of the grate, and he cracked the back of his head on the iron. Very suave, Robert, he thought, fumbling and then finally pulling himself through. As he stood up, Langdon was beginning to suspect it was going to be a very long night.

Is "The Database" the next iteration of Echelon?

If you had in your control, a system such as Echelon, that scours the internet, phones, etc, and collects every bit of 'data'.. how easy would it be to write code that cross references every bit of knowledge, every bit of belief and every bit of physical law and in return, have a super computer that in itself, learns from everything it records?

There's no way we haven't hit the singularity yet unless there's some sort of Fermi paradox preventing it and we never will.

1. Not sure how much I can get out of you regarding the topic, but are you implying that it depends on me or on forces outside of my control? I'm interested in it because I'm curious if pursuing it can be a means of gaining connections with the "right" people.

2. How many big people on youtube are actually agents for social engineering projects or things like that?

3. Do try to restructure my question on social engineering a different way: I know that social engineering is the exploitation of human natures and the changing of human behaviors as you said, so do I start looking for human natures that aren't made so apparent and for how many different ways to influence human behavior?

4. Were humans ever dumbed down by mixing with neanderthals or something else like that?

5. Can you ever use the same methods used in subliminal messaging to reverse it, or is it simply a matter of making it apparent that subliminal messaging is happening to wake someone up to it?

6. From what I can gather about the databases from your replies, the database is actually capable of implanting something into the eye's of shills that acts like a camera?

7. What can you tell us about the El Chupacabra? Real or fake, and is it anything close to people think it is?

8. From your responses, it seems like ASMR is pretty much a form of "audio porn" that aims at pushing the same stuff that porn does with its subliminal messaging.

9. Are people who are less affected by social engineering those whom are paranoid and/or perpetually anxious? Subliminal messaging seems to always be inserted into things that are supposed to relax you.

Just fell out of the WTC thread. A lot of interesting information was shared. I remember that day clearly, and, the early puctures of the Pentagon showed no plane wreckage. I remember thinking that it looked more like a missile strike, or, bomb. Coincidental the area of the pentagon which was destroyed. Further was the plane that didnt make to its intended target. I want to assume that particular plane was meant for the pentagon.
Just listened to the Scott DeCarlos interview.

The point of all this circles round to your current thread theme. What, if any, symbols marked 9/11?
Astrology seems to be one significant sign. It is important for satanic rituals. 9/11 was pertinent, among other oncidences and acts, one of signifance.
In 1683, muzzies were held and thrown back at the gates of Vienna.

Now, 17 years later they are pouring in and choking the current populations in the western world: perpetrating heinous acts of evil and debauchery that are not prosecuted or stopped.
Keep up the good work anon 5

[The image is a political cartoon with a black background and white text. At the top, the text reads "WHO ARE THE JEWS?" in large white letters. Below this, there is a list of accusations against Jews, which includes "We invented Communism," "We are behind radical feminism," "We are behind multiculturalism," "We are behind one world government," "We are the divider and conqueror," "We are the military industrial complex," "We are the nuclear state," "We are the terrorist," "We are the re-writer of history to my advantage," "We are the central banking and big corporate money, not the people," "We are the oppressor, yet always the eternal radical," "We are AIPAC, NARAL, ACLU, NACCP," and "We are the eternal radical." In the bottom right corner, there is a cartoon image of a man with a beard and a mustache, wearing a blue shirt and a black hat. He has a surprised expression and is making a hand gesture with his right hand, as if he is shouting or expressing surprise. The man's facial features are exaggerated, and his eyes are wide open. The overall style of the image is satirical and political, with a focus on the negative stereotypes and accusations against Jews. The use of bold text and the cartoon-like image of the man with the exaggerated facial features contribute to the humorous and confrontational tone of the image.]

[The image shows a white marble sculpture of a muscular male figure in a dynamic pose. The figure appears to be in the midst of a powerful action, with one arm raised high and the other arm extended downward, clutching a large, flowing cloak that drapes over the figure's body. The sculpture is set against a dark background, which contrasts with the white marble, highlighting the figure's form and the intricate details of the sculpture. The style of the image is a close-up photograph, focusing on the sculpture's details and the play of light and shadow. There are no visible texts or discernible brands in the image. 1. It seems like the ones who were behind the Joint Colonization could be described as sheppards.

2. Are we spliced from their DNA or are we entirely different from them?

3. Would we be all be more racially similar had earth not been joint colonized and we were a purely natural happening?

4. Could inducing anxiety or a genuine fear of what's to come through subliminal messaging be used in our favor? It always seems that those who aren't trapped in their own bubble of complacency are the ones who tend to give a damn. Thus is trying to burst that bubble a legitimate tactic? Attacking the media outputs that keep people subdued also seems viable.

5. If you tallied up all of the people who have been killed by unnatural causes, which race would it be?

6. Should we focus on red pilling introverts or extroverts more? Seems like introverts are more apt to the red pill. Should we just focus on helping anyone in general without any special focus?

7. For effeminate lesbians and female bisexuals, could you red pill and get them to realize that they wold prefer men had it not been for hypersexualization? Some of them I wager aren't really into it as much as they think they are. Or is sexuality pretty much determined for them during their teens and early adulthood?

[The image is a black and white photograph of a celestial body, likely a planet, viewed from the side. The planet's surface is smooth and has a swirling pattern that suggests the presence of water or ice. The central part of the image is dominated by a large, dark, circular feature that could be a ring or a planet's atmosphere. This feature is surrounded by a lighter, more defined ring that appears to be a part of the planet's atmosphere. The background is a dark, possibly black, space, and there are no visible texts or discernible markings on the image. The style of the image is realistic, and it captures the intricate details of the celestial body's surface.]

[The image is a sepia-toned illustration that depicts a scene of religious or spiritual significance. At the center, there is a large, radiant sun with rays emanating from it, creating a halo effect. Surrounding the sun are numerous angels, some of whom are standing and others appear to be in motion, as if they are flying or dancing around the sun. The angels are depicted in a variety of poses, with some appearing to be in a state of contemplation or prayer. The background is filled with swirling clouds and stars, adding to the ethereal and mystical atmosphere of the scene. The style of the illustration is reminiscent of early 20th-century art, with a focus on detailed linework and a sense of movement. The overall mood of the image is one of awe and reverence, as it conveys a sense of divine presence and spiritual connection.]

I was reading some interesting things that weren't well reported, they canceled recent austerity not because they could afford it but because there was about to be civil unrest. Also Salman appears to be trying to take power away from other family members, I saw some speculation different family factions have their own security forces and may fight each other when Salman dies.

1. So women are both death and the creator of human life then?

2. So the story of Adam and Eve were people with ancient knowledge blatantly conveying to us that women are the reason we can't have nice things?

3. Thus, western men need to speak softly to women, but keep a firm grip on them at the same time?

4. As women are reactionary by nature, we just have to make feminism be something with little to no value for them?

For many different reasons Globalists and other groups use Symbols/Symbolism. The purpose & interpretation of them can vary, so can what is used for/as the Symbols.

Here are some of the reasons why they use/do it:

1) [Communication]

(To the group itself, other groups & the portions of the public that are Aware/"in the know". This is also used in MSM/Media/Entertainment/Pop Culture & even in some Events)

2) [Territory]

(Current or former groups marking where they are/were and/or where they operate(d) out of.)

3) [Subliminal Messaging/Mind Control]

(Used as Psy-Op's against other groups, Indoctrination/Control of its Members & Brainwashing/Control of the Public)

4) ["Magic"]

(It's existed for a long before "Meme Magic" was figured out. The "Illuminati Card Game" is a example of this)

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

I've read about how some social media logos(Twitter, Kikebook) induce hedonistic tendencies in people. I'm not sure if it's all people intrinsically or just their users. Could have to do with #3.
Everyone here knows about the "owl" already and how planned parenthood uses it on all their buildings.

Is that why the Illuminati card game is allowed to still be in release? Does it hold some sort of power by showing what the globalists want to do and putting it in the minds of everyone who sees/plays the game?

[The image displays a screenshot of a text message conversation. The conversation is between two individuals, as indicated by the presence of two separate lines of text. The conversation appears to be related to a topic of prophecy or a prediction, as suggested by the phrases "It will happen when the weather cools," "It will happen when they'll make their move," and "It will happen when the weather cools." The conversation is marked as "Anonymous ID" and has a timestamp of "3:22 AM" and a "board.io/chan.org" link. The conversation is in Chinese, and the text is in a language that is not English, which is evident from the presence of characters that are not alphabetic. The text is formatted in a way that suggests it is a conversation, with the sender and recipient names, and the date and time of the conversation. The content of the conversation is not fully visible in the image, but it appears to be a discussion about a prophecy or a prediction, as indicated by the phrases "It will happen when the weather cools," "It will happen when they'll make their move," and "It will happen when the weather cools." The conversation also includes references to "America," "older soil," "come to fruition," "They're trying to force God's hand," "Watch for these signs," and "Three branches will become one," among other phrases. The visual clues in the image, such as the text formatting and the presence of a timestamp, suggest that the conversation is a screenshot from a messaging application, possibly a text-based chat or a similar platform. The content of the conversation is not fully visible, but the visual clues indicate that it is a discussion about a prophecy or a prediction related to the weather and the actions of individuals or groups.]

communication is the way in which individuals communicate with each other. They may have given phrases (think secret handshakes, except something that's more easily viewed in the public realm).

territory implies designating territory i believe. I was unsure about this one, so I just asked him.

subliminal messaging/mind control this one kinda goes hand in hand. He means there's symbolic ways which signify globalists that people will mind control people - it defines ways in which separate groups utilize different forms of subliminal messaging or mind control.

magic I think is easy because it basically just means things we don't know how to explain/prove with science.

3. Is there any way you would be willing to expand on this? I'm trying to break it and would genuinely appreciate some guidance. I have easy access to something specific, but you're building trust with me urges me to seek verification in some form if it's something you're adamant about. If you can't, I can accept that too. Thanks regardless.

4. Just wanted to make sure this time that when you say "they" you mean aliens. Now we just have to hammer down what precisely aliens mean. I get extra-terrestrial, but I'm very curious about what that means beyond that.

5. If there's any possible way you'll elaborate, I'd love to have some insight.

Just building on a previous thread:
So you've said that white people have been around the longest, which would indicate that they've had the longest amount of time to develop cranial functions. We know that the Frontal Lobe and Frontal cortex, involved in decision making, logic, delayed gratification, etc take a lot of energy (the neurons require a lot of glucose), which is why you lose motivation and make worse decisions as your blood sugar drops.
So white people have the most efficient and developed Frontal parts of their brains, so we tend to be less impulsive/violent and more calculated, intelligent, and altruistic.

>Under the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, whenever the President of the United States determines that special conditions of an emergency nature exist which require the use of the Metropolitan Police force for Federal purposes, he may direct the Mayor to provide him, and the Mayor shall provide, such services of the Metropolitan Police force for up to 48 hours. During longer periods of time, the President must provide to Congress in writing his reasons for continuing control of the MPD. This control can be extended at any time beyond 30 days if either the emergency continues or if Congress passes a law ordering it.

>Before the Home Rule Act, Congress made all of DC’s laws, and the executive branch ultimately reported to the President of the United States, as if DC were another agency of the federal government (basically, it was). But in 1973, Congress set up our current system of an elected mayor and council. Only they balked at giving DC full autonomy.

As he said, research these things. Some of them will alter your perceptions in specific ways. Once you understand the ways in which you will be affected, you can make conclusions as to which types of drugs will affect you in which ways.

For a primer, I'm under the assumption that drugs like ketamine, LSD, or MDMA are not the kind you want to look for, whereas psilocybin, cannabinoids, and DMT are the kinds you want to look in to. Take this with a grain of salt though.

[The image is a composite of two separate photographs. On the left, there is a photograph of a man speaking into a microphone. He appears to be in a formal setting, wearing a suit and tie. The man has short, gray hair and is looking directly at the camera. On the right, there is a graphic illustration of a character with a blue and purple face, wearing a green glove on one hand. The character is holding a hand up with a finger extended, as if making a point or gesture. The background of the illustration is a dark, abstract pattern with a yellow and orange gradient. This LARPing fauckstick can't tell you JACK-FUCKING-SHIT except a bunch of vague non-answers that circularly refer back to (one of his older knowledge bomb thread... but YOU have to search them all... beccause he's WAY TOO BUSY dishing out all the elite Illuminati knowledge he's got!)

The reason the "Illuminati" Card Game from the early 90's had the pictures it did is because the people who were part of the whole Crew/Clique around Steve Jackson Games in that area of the pacific North West/ Nor.California,

The Artist and two designers were students of Robert Anton Wilson and almost all of them (can't speak for Steve since I only met him once at a party over a spliff)... but a whole mess of his friends were into the OTO and pseudo-Golden Dawn lodges of Western Hermetic studies and Tantra... and the Artist was a student of Peter Carrol and was obviously, huge into Chaos Magick.

It's not particularly surprising that folks of that sort would wind up scrying the actual future timelines while fucking around drawing and making a semi-popular card game.

That's pretty much the long and short of it.

[The image is a collage of two separate photographs. On the left, there is a cartoon-style illustration of an elderly woman with a large, cheerful smile. She is wearing a pink hat and a leopard print dress, and she is holding a fishbowl filled with goldfish. The woman appears to be in a playful or celebratory mood. On the right, there is a photograph of a man with his hands raised, displaying a tattoo of a fish on his right hand. The tattoo is black and appears to be a stylized representation of a fish. The man is wearing glasses and a dark shirt. In the top left corner of the left image, there is a text that reads "Goldfish Fanciers" in a bold, capitalized font. The text is in a different color from the rest of the image, making it stand out. The bottom left corner of the left image contains a text that reads "We're sorry, but we're not even permitted to tell you that the Power Structure is complete. Your entire Power Structure is complete. No, we're not even going to explain why." The text is in a smaller font size compared to the rest of the image. The bottom right corner of the left image contains a text that reads "PO1 RESIST 4" in a smaller font size compared to the rest of the image. The bottom right corner of the right image contains a text that reads "14" in a larger font size compared to the rest of the image. The overall style of the image is humorous and seems to be a parody or a satirical representation of the Goldfish Fanciers organization.]

Ok, now I see why you mentioned the regional chessboard then. Makes a lot more sense

Also about the colors, so we should look to see which countries have similarly colored flags maybe?

[The image is a graphic card with a dark background and a lighter border. At the top, the text "Plague of Demons" is written in bold, capital letters. Below the title, there is a cartoon illustration of a large, purple demon with sharp teeth and horns, holding a sign that reads "Disaster! This is an Instant Attack to Destroy any Place of Magic one You Will Not Permit to Exist from the Magic group. The Power of the attack is 10, plus the Power of the group summoning the demons. The roll succeeds by more than 5, the target is destroyed. Alternatively, spend this card for 10 to destroy any Magic group." The bottom of the card features a smaller text that reads "May Require Magic Action." The style of the image is reminiscent of a trading card or a collectible card game, with a focus on the theme of magic and the potential for destruction.]

1. When did big time social engineering begin in the United States?

2. Are all music artists apart of the social engineering program, or do the engineers choose specific artists to focus on at a time?

3. The arks that you've spoken of must have had pilots, correct? Wouldn't that mean that some of the humans that survived from the other planets and transferred to earth would have access to all of this secret knowledge? Is that what "bloodlines" are?

4. Would the ones above the globalists be better described as visionaries or keepers of knowledge, if either of those are close to describing them?

5. Are there globalists or people above them who's focus is to maintain a balance of good and evil in the world?

6. Are the ones whom are above the globalists have varied alignments? As in, are some genuinely good, others neutral, and some bat shit evil insane?

7. Are the mind control symbols ways for the globalists to make new mental associations for us with certain images that we encounter irl or something like that?

FUCK I'M LATE

In 1884, meridian time personnel met in Washington to change Earth time.
First words said was that only 1 day could be used on Earth to not change the 1 day bible. So they applied the 1 day and ignored the other 3 days.
The bible time was wrong then and it proved wrong today. This a major lie has so much evil feed from it's wrong.
No man on Earth has no belly-button, it proves every believer on Earth a liar.

Children will be blessed for Killing Of Educated Adults
Who Ignore 4 Simultaneous

GoBelly-Button Logic Works.

When Do Teenagers Die?
Adults Eat Teenagers Alive,
No Record Of Their Death.

Truth Was That They All had Mama Made Belly Buttons, Church Was Full Of Liars.

Earth Has 4 Days In Same 24 Hrs., 1 Day God Was Wrong.

All Creation occurs between Opposites.

[The image is a black and white pixelated video game screenshot. It depicts a scene with a character standing on a platform, looking down at a car that is parked on the ground. The platform has a grid-like pattern, and the car is positioned to the right of the platform. The character appears to be observing the car, and there is a small window or hatch on the car's side. The background is a dark, possibly nighttime setting with a pattern of small squares. The style of the image is reminiscent of early video game graphics, with simple shapes and limited color palette. There are no discernible texts or additional elements in the image.]

They live, I'm assuming. I know it wasn't just for me, but thanks a ton. I think I've made it clear how much this has been bugging me.

1. So, are we discussing genetic preservation or technological preservation?

This is what I meant when I asked you if we were allowed to fail.

You have me imagining the tip of the pyramid being represented by the remaining whites, remaining blacks, and remaining asians. You have me thinking that they all have a vested interest in our survival, and therefore are fighting amongst each other to ensure that their own kind follow them into the future.

I understand that groups exist below them, and that's why I wanted to make certain you weren't referring to outside forces (you like to call them aliens, but I don't at all imagine the typical green martians people think of, this has always been represented by X for me). I'm curious to understand how exactly these groups are broken up and what motivates them.

2. Do the "aliens" (as you call them) interact with those at the tips? Or did you mean they watch as in they don't at all understand us and are trying to study us as if we could imagine finding another intelligent species and would elect to study them before we even consider making contact?

I apologize if this was a lot to throw at you at once.

MK-Ultra

The drugs aren't used to counter each other. You're missing the point. We're saying that one drug can cause the SE to break, while some drugs can cause SE to be effective if used in unison with a SE technique.

LSD makes you absurdly vulnerable. But, all I can do is speak from personal experience.

Psilocybin will open your eyes in ways you couldn't imagine eyes opening while not under the influence of the drug.

They don't necissarily counter each other in that respect, but I'm considering the possibility that if one were MK'd they could potentially undo the SE by ingesting psilocybin.

quick question: time warner cable changing their name to spectrum here in the US -- is this all a part of (((their))) plan to call pretty much everything a spectrum? are (((they))) tattooing that word into everybody's brains now, in an attempt to normalize the gender/sexuality "spectrum"?

thanks again for your posts. i share them with my free-thinking friends.

[The image is a digital illustration featuring a character that resembles a stylized representation of a frog. The character has a green body with a yellow head and a black mouth. The eyes are large and round, with a black pupil in the center. The character's hair is blonde and appears to be styled in a wavy manner. The character is wearing a black shirt with a visible collar. The character's mouth is open, and it appears to be making a gesture with its right hand, as if pointing or gesturing. The character is standing on a red brick wall, and the wall is outlined in black. The background of the image is plain white. There are no texts or additional elements in the image. The style of the image is cartoonish and simplistic, with a focus on the character's facial expression and the red brick wall.]

no it doesn't.

It's an esoteric way of saying, "don't come here to challenge or plot against us".

Re: Magic
Scott Adams has written a few blog posts with some interesting theories of reality. There's an exercise that he attributes to most of his successes that I think could be considered a form of magic. He suggests you write down on a sheet of paper a specific goal 15 times each day for a month and observe the outcome.

Do you know of any other examples of magic that may actually work and isn't just LARPing?

[The image is a still from a video, featuring a man with a beard and mustache, smiling broadly. He is wearing a white t-shirt with a graphic on it. The man appears to be in a kitchen setting, as indicated by the wooden cabinets and countertop visible in the background. The time stamp at the top of the image reads "9:32," and there is a phone number "599999999" displayed in the top right corner. The man's expression and the surrounding environment suggest a casual, everyday setting. There are no texts overlaying the image that provide additional context or information.]

[The image is a close-up photograph of a small dog with a chihuahua breed, characterized by its small size and distinctive facial features. The dog has a white and brown coat with a mix of black and tan markings. Its eyes are wide open, and it appears to be looking directly at the camera with a somewhat surprised or playful expression. The dog's mouth is slightly open, and its tongue is visible, suggesting it might be panting or excited. The dog is wearing a pink collar, which is visible around its neck. The background of the image is blurred, but it seems to be a garden or outdoor setting with green foliage, including what appears to be leaves and possibly some plants. The focus of the image is on the dog, with the background elements serving to provide context but not detracting from the main subject. The image does not contain any text or other discernible objects. The style of the image is candid and appears to be taken in a natural setting, possibly during a walk or a playtime.]

Sad to see your thread get shilled like this anon 5, honestly kind of curious what the "beetles" do to people and how that would be reported. Even if these pills are hard to swallow sometimes, I still genuinely enjoy these threads and think others should try out different perspectives and seeing whether or not it benefits them before being so critical. One question if your so kind before the thread gets shilled harder:

1. Is there any possible way for normies like us to find the names of any of these "Ones"? I already assume the greaters are beyond that.

Take it easy Anon 5, and thanks for the KB's as always.

One last question, then I'm out for this one.

How, if you have no particular affiliations, are you capable of collecting such sensitive information?

If you have no affiliations, then how are you able to get sensitive information out about certain groups which seem as though they would have very reasonable means of finding you? If these societies are this complex, then that means someone has to be among them (if collecting information from chatter among others around yourself) in order to obtain information. If someone has to be among them, but not affiliated with them, then how do these types of information getting out not easily identify you if plenty of groups are watching?

Everything I know about people and the way they interact tells me that something like this would be hardly possible.

Why are you special? What makes you different from shareblue, or some primitive monster who stoops to physical threats?

After all the interest I've taken in you, and the honest questions I've proposed, I'm still very uncertain. If your angle is to help people know, and, as you say, "get the information out." Why don't you make verifiable accounts of your ethos, why don't you give us holistic responses from which we can draw significant enough levels of meaning for us to determine legitimately found conclusions? Why so vague?

Maybe your response entails a necessity to remain anonymous, so as to be unseen. But, as I've stated before, that seems rather futile given that these tight knit groups would demand silence as well as participation to a point where trust could be gained.

Why, then, do you remain cryptic and vague in the face of such an imperative as we've been discussing? If you're already risking your life or well-being coming here, then what's stopping you from ensuring your impact doesn't fall short?

I think you know the gravity of your interaction with us. Why would you be so subversive only to string us along? This is utterly paradoxical.

Domino Destabilization is a Regional Destabilization tactic where multiple country's are destabilized to cause/create large movements of people & reshape the Regions. Cities in country's are also used like charges in controlled demolitions to bring down Country's.

Some examples of Domino Destabilization are:

1) [Middle East destabilization to flood Europe.]

["Arab Spring"-> Egypt -> Libya/North Africa -> Syria -> Turkey]

Europe(primarily Western Europe) is being pincered. African Migrants from the Sea(From Libya/North Africa) & Islamic "Refugees" from the Land(From Syria/Middle East/Turkey).

In true "Order from/by Chaos" fashion, this was done to create enough of a Crisis that the EU could justify making, using & deploying the EU Army(To stop country's from leaving/resisting the EU & to make the EU last longer).

2) [South America destabilization to flood North America.]

Just like what is/was going on in the Middle East, a very similar operation is going on in South America to create a Crisis equal if not bigger then what Europe is experiencing.

Mexico would turn into a "Syria", US would implode & Canada would fall.

The "Order from/by Chaos" out of this, is the formation of the NAU(North American Union) & SAU(South American Union).

The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. Essentially, these brainlets have ran out of other people to conquer outside their lands. Thus, they are now centering on conquering people within their lands via the same niggerish tricks they used on others.

What they don't realize is that there is no order or control at such levels of chaos and towards such extremes of it. Thus, it is a problem that will solve itself.

This is not a knowledge bomb btw. It is plain to see and has been covered by a number of well put together documentaries. Even having been disclosed and being clear, it persists due to the sheer number of brainlet sheep in the world.

I feel as if the MENA destabilization has been obvious for those of us who've paid attention the last 5+ years with Syria's civil war.
I think that the Americas destabilization will either backfire really hard or work really well. We see groups poping up right now , more so openly, who support illegal immigration and aren't afraid of violence (ANTIFA).
I feel the regular Joe at the end of the day will revolt over this. Canada is lucky we don't have to deal with it much. We have sanctuary cities but we don't have to deal with what America has to, fortunately. I feel as if opening up Mexico's to being VISA free will be the start for our pro-illegal immigrant movement to really start here which could be bad. ANTIFA has made a couple comments already in Canada and there is ANTIFA in TO (I am unaware of other cities probably Montral, Vancouver too).

Have a bump and nice night to everyone.

[Actual info]Amb. Stevens was sent to Benghazi post haste in order to retrieve US made Stinger missiles supplied to Ansar al Sharia without Congressional oversight or permission. Hillary brokered the deal through Stevens and a private arms dealer named Marc Turi. Then some of the shoulder fired missiles ended up in Afghanistan used against our own military. It was July 25th, 2012 when a Chinook helicopter was taken down by one of our own Stingers, but the idiot Taliban didn't arm the missile and the Chinook didn't explode, but had to land anyway. An ordnance team recovered the serial number off the missile which led back to a cache of Stingers being kept in Qatar by the CIA. Obama and Hillary were now in full panic mode and Stevens was sent in to retrieve the rest of the Stingers. This was a "do-or-die" mission, which explains the stand down orders given to multiple commando teams.

For example, it is not farfetched that they altered Ebola and tested it or it somehow left their lab in Africa.

So it seems Trumps wall has a dual purpose with that Mexican issue in the future.

[Actual info]
It was the State Dept, not the CIA that supplied them to our sworn enemies, because Petraeus wouldn't supply these deadly weapons due to their potential use on commercial aircraft. Then, Obama threw Gen. Petraeus under the bus after he refused to testify that he OK'd the BS talking points about a spontaneous uprising due to a Youtube video. Obama and Hillary committed treason...and THIS is what the investigation is all about, why she had a private server, (in order to delete the digital evidence), and why Obama, two weeks after the attack, told the UN that the attack was because of a Youtube video, even though everyone knew it was not. Further...the Taliban knew that this administration aided and abetted the enemy without Congressional approval when Boehner created the Select Cmte, and the Taliban began pushing the Obama Administration for the release of 5 Taliban Generals. Bowe Bergdahl was just a pawn...everyone KNEW he was a traitor. So we have a traitor as POTUS that is not only corrupt, but compromised...and a woman that is a serial liar, perjured herself multiple times at the Hearing whom is running for POTUS. Only the Dems, with their hands out, palms up, will support her. Perhaps this is why no military aircraft was called in...because the administration knew our enemies had Stingers.

Obviously but your assumption that human shit plague from South of US could destroy us is infantile.
At Majdanek, (((Soviets))) claimed that 2 million Jews were killed in gas chambers. Thanks to revisionists, today it's believed less than 60,000 died (primarily of disease). The Red Cross estimated only 8,000 had died there. That is a drop of almost 2 million. Most normies don't know that, and continue quoting the 6 gorillion.

At Auschwitz, (((Soviets))) claimed 4 million people died in gas chambers. Today, the TOTAL death toll sits at 1.1 million (from ALL causes, eg disease). That is a drop of almost 3 million, though still grossly inflated going by Red Cross reports.

Normies blindly believe the 6 gorillion because they don't bother examining such a grisly topic from a critical pov. They take it on faith that (((Hollywood))) and what they learnt in school is 100% factual

You seem to be saying that it is worth resisting these things and fighting the globalists who are trying to bring it about. Is that because you think there is hope of a better world? How exactly would this better world exist, seeing as it is clear in the picture you paint that only cruelty and betrayal yield real results?

You threads have a heavy implication that humanity totally under the control of globalists because humanity is inherently weak and cannot defend itself from cunning meanness. Further, your portrayal of aliens makes them sound boring and lame, sitting around consuming entertainment like we do and not giving a shit about anything.

Seems pointless to engage in anything if your threads are true, because any show of humanity will be turned against us and only the most inhumanly cruel can ever have true power. So the outcome will be shit no matter what. That's why a lot of people suspect you of being Jewish, you paint a picture as gloomy and totally bleak as the Jewish view of the world.

Spielberg's Oscar-winning documentary about the Shoah uses discredited eyewitness Paul Parks, who lies about being in a unit that liberated Dachau.
Parks, a known fraud, was in an earlier documentary about black soldiers liberating concentration camps, criticized by the press after being disproven by historians and military records.
NO BLACKS were involved in liberating ANY camps. But Spielberg uses Paul Parks as 1 of his 5 key witnesses in The Last Days, because the ONE American soldier in it couldn't be a WHITE guy, no he wanted it to be a NIGGER for his anti-white agenda.
Other obvious lies are also exposed:

Women, especially hypergamous women, are genetically predisposed to welcome invaders and the destruction of their tribe/nation, by nature, their instincts always tell them to gravitate toward the more agressive male because subconciously they are genetically programmed to seek the greatest opportunity to accumulate resources and physical protection, and the agressive male is processed in their minds as the signal for this. If anything, yesterdays incident will make British women, and Western women even more actively seek out immigrants in an attempt to assimilate them. At a subconcious level, they will be submissive to the agressive, violent muslim male that seeks to destroy their society and will have utter contempt and disgust for the white male for "opressing them with patriarchy" but being unable to protect the tribe/nation. Its a cycle in every nation, no matter what technology or culture changes occur, women are just genetically disposed to submitting to invaders, and to be contemptful toward non-violent or defeated men. Theres a reason why Chad always win, a reason why the top-tier women always shack up with the highest-ranking officers of the invaders, and a reason why the queens of defeated civilizations become concubines of the conquerors

I think the kike brainwashing is actually weeding out the beta cucks and producing more redpilled alphas. All the betas now turn into druggie degenerates and get AIDS then cut their dicks off now, so, great.

The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the 'agentur' of the 'Illuminati' between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion. We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view. This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time.

Hey Anon5

1. Have you ever read the book about the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations by John Coleman? If you have, is all/most of the info within it legit?

2. Do you think Trump can get the wall built in time to prevent even more mass immigration from South America due to destabilization?

3. What union would India become a part of if it had to, or do you think they would refuse?

4. Have you ever read the book "Ringmakers of Saturn" by Norman R. Bergrun? If so, what might your thoughts on it be?

5. Was the Alt-Right allowed to become a movement, or even engineered to become one, so that the Left had a force of opposition to overcome with the planned election of Hilary?

6. Is there any hints you can give on how to spot who the social engineering agents might be on Youtube? Things like where they're from and what university they went to are the things that I've thought up of so far.

7. What is the true intent of De-Urbanization and Section 8 housing?

8. How skewed are the total population estimates of Earth? Are the true numbers within the range of half of what is estimated?

[The image is a black and white line drawing with a simple, cartoon-like style. It features two figures, one male and one female, standing side by side. The male figure has a stethoscope draped around his neck, indicating a medical profession, and a name tag on his chest that reads "Dr. 45." The female figure has a headband with a small, orange object on it, which could be a medical device or a piece of equipment. Both figures have a neutral expression and are looking directly at the viewer. The background is plain and does not provide any additional context. At the bottom of the image, the word "INOPERABLE" is written in large, bold, capitalized letters, suggesting a negative or critical tone. The overall style of the image is reminiscent of a meme or a satirical illustration.]

Also, you've posted before the Hollywood is the place to really bust open pedogate.

Here's something I read about.

Judy Garland was a young girl when she started in Hollywood. After her father died is when things started going a bit funny for her.

From Wikipedia:

On November 16, 1935, Garland learned that her father had been hospitalized with meningitis and had taken a turn for the worse while she was in the midst of preparing for a radio performance on the Shell Chateau Hour. Frank Gumm died the following morning at age 49, leaving her devastated at age 13. Her song for the Shell Chateau Hour was her first professional rendition of "Zing! Went the Strings of My Heart", a song which became a standard in many of her concerts.[27]

Garland next came to the attention of studio executives by singing a special arrangement of "You Made Me Love You (I Didn't Want to Do It)" to Clark Gable at a birthday party held by the studio for the actor. Her rendition was so well regarded that she performed the song in the all-star extravaganza Broadway Melody of 1938 (1937), singing to a photograph of him.

A young girl of 13 years of age sings a 'special arrangement' (oh really?) of a song called "You Made Me Love You (I Didn't Want to Do It)" to a 35 year old Hollywood sex symbol at a private birthday party.

What do you feel when you read that?

There's a number of rumours surrounding Gable too. He was discovered by a wealthy woman who 'cleaned him up'. Fixed his teeth, brought him new clothes, etc. Why? There's also rumours he was a gay prostitute. That would be very easy blackmail material, especially back then.

Illuminati card game was made for lulz by old-school Dischordians, the memes are deliberate. Meme magic since (like the spurdo on Interesting Times) is meme magic, not planning.

Dischordianism is also why they got raided, along with the political memes being too spicy for the 90s.

So as for the actual topic of this thread, So mexico to become syria means that it'll be overrun by "refugees" and cause some kind of civil war. The US has been mexico's "pressure valve" for a long while(anyone who gets tired of mexico being a corrupt and dangerous shit hole just jumps the boarder). how will this civil war get started in mexico? purely by the refugee invasion, the ISIS cells in mexico and SA, people finally rising up against the gov., corporate interest trying to "protect" their factories but actually cause an international incident.

Will the syrian civil war ever end?

hey anon5, very off topic but i was doing some research and saw that so many mass shootings in recent history, such as Columbine for example, have had heavy Satanic influences. In addition, it seems like there is a mind control or directed energy element to it for how the killers can be. Harris and Klebold both had parents in family that were either FBI or military spec ops.

Not only this though, so many other shootings have been the sons of prominent american figures. is it directed energy or something more sinister?

if we are put on this Earth as an experiment, does that mean that the previous humans that lived on other planets had knowledge of amino acids that would evolve from single celled organisms to life as it is today? How the fuck did they know that if they are made from that themselves?

1. Is the Tavistock Group and the Tavistock Institute linked to one another or are they two separate groups all together?

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tavistock_Institute
This is whom I'm referring to when I say Tavistock Institute for clarification.

2. If you could be so kind:
https://www.henrymakow.com/committee_of_300.html

Is this list of members (as of 2010) legit for the committee of 300?

3. So do globalists join bigger globalists groups while also playing for other sides, sort of speak? As in they don't have any loyalty to just one group most of the time?

4. After some research, a date that I got for when social engineering on a large scale started happening in the U.S. was around 1918. Is that accurate?

5. Are there satanists within Tavistock/ Tavistock Institute or is there a separate group of social engineers with satanist ties, or both?

6. Was the Great Depression deliberately planned to create a situation of great stress and tension for the purpose of social engineering?

man with a beard, wearing a black t-shirt with a graphic design on it. He is holding a small dog in his arms, and the dog is looking up at him with a curious expression. The man is also looking directly at the camera. Overlaying the left photograph is a quote in white text that reads, "The only reason that Jews are in Christian churches is that Christians are in Jewish synagogues. We don't believe in authoritarianism. Forced to define Christian culture and, as it penetrates to the very heart of the Jewish people, we become more and more intolerant and conservative. We doubt consumed to those very same character becomes more charred...". The quote is attributed to Al Goldstein. At the bottom of the image, there is a website address "FitInfo.wordpress.com" in white text. The overall style of the image is a blend of black and white photography with overlaid text, creating a contrast between the two photographs.]

Stop assuming every little thing is part of a globalist plot and then trying to come up with a reason for it being one after the fact. Bitcoin wasn't designed by George Soros or some shit like that. Women's brains are much easier to manipulate due to their historical role in society to care for children and to follow what is socially acceptable. this also with the info from other KB's about how the have less "logic" matter and more "emotion" matter in their brains with it being eroded via BC(along with my own theory that they can get addicted to certain emotions once once enough of the "logic matter" is eroded away") and instinctualy throw themselves at winning "invaders" makes for the "weaponized wombs" project. Oh and also certain emotions can become contagious in large enough groups, make them more emotional to make this more likely.

Disregarding the fact that you haven't proved crypto currencies are a globalist plot and are just assuming it, if that were to happen it would bring the international finance system down which would have the same effect regardless of what currency is in use. Physical money is already being phased out in favour of digital transactions anyway, through the use of debit/credit cards. Not only is there no evidence crypto currencies are a globalist plot. It would be pointless for them to even be doing what you are suggesting because it is already being done anyway.

[The image is a composite of three black and white photographs, each depicting a different view of a small, square-shaped object on a surface that appears to be a rocky terrain. The object is located in the center of each photograph, and the background varies from the left to the right, suggesting a progression from a more barren area to a more densely populated one. In the leftmost photograph, the object is small and is surrounded by a few scattered rocks and pebbles. The rightmost photograph shows the object in a more prominent position, with a larger area of the surface around it, indicating it is more centrally located. The photographs are taken from a perspective that looks down on the object, which is slightly tilted to the right in the second photograph. The third photograph is a close-up view of the object, showing a more detailed texture and coloration. There are no discernible texts or markings on the surface or in the photographs. The style of the image is a scientific or geological photograph, likely taken by a rover or spacecraft on a celestial body, given the context of the object's location and the absence of any other objects or features in the surrounding area.]

1. Were the original humans on the other planets genetically engineered or did they evolve naturally?

2. Have certain groups known about human origins for a long time and kept it secret or is it something researchers have only recently figured out?

M8s. Quick wiki search tells me that the Concorde burnt 25t of fuel per hour and approximate cost of Jet - A1 is 1 dollar per litre. 25 000*1.7 = 47 000 liters of fuel per hour or 47 000 dollars per hour flight time in fuel alone. Now. London to New York is about 5500 km, 5000 for simplicity, and Concorde's cruising speed is 2000 km/h, so it needs about 2.5 hours to get from London to New York. Think 3 hours because of rules and waiting in the airspace near airports. So 47 000 * 3 = 141 000 dollars one way trip. Divide that by 100 passengers, best case scenario, and you get 1410 dollars per passenger on fuel alone. Meanwhile Boeing 747 burns only half the fuel of the Concorde and carries four times the passengers.

TLDR Concorde was dumb and i've done my research for you.

Interesting, yes, that many anons start their posts by saying 'Welcome back' 'I missed you' 'You're my favourite poster' isn't it?

Why would that be being done? A number of possibilities. Fascinating looking at the reactions of anons and the board as a whole to Anon5 and Space Elevator.

[The image is a stylized comic book panel featuring a character with a large, expressive face. The character's eyes are wide open, and the eyebrows are raised, giving the impression of surprise or excitement. The character's mouth is open, revealing teeth that are stained with a dark substance, possibly blood or some other substance. The character's skin is textured with wrinkles and pores, and there are small droplets of what appears to be blood or some other liquid on the character's face. The character's hair is dark and appears to be wet, suggesting that the character has been in a situation where they have been exposed to water or some other liquid. In the top left corner of the image, there is a speech bubble with the text "Bueno" written in a stylized font. The speech bubble is yellow with a black outline, and the text is in a bold, capitalized font. The style of the speech bubble is reminiscent of a comic book panel, with a simple, clean design that contrasts with the detailed and expressive character. The overall tone of the image is dramatic and intense, with the character's facial expression and the speech bubble conveying a sense of urgency or surprise.]

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

[The image depicts a surreal scene with a central pyramid-like structure that appears to be made of stone or concrete. The pyramid is illuminated by a bright, radiant light source that emanates from the top, creating a halo effect around the structure. The light source is surrounded by a swirling, colorful pattern that suggests a cosmic or magical atmosphere. Surrounding the pyramid are three smaller pyramids, each with a similar design and color scheme. The background is a gradient of purple and pink hues, with a gradient of blue at the bottom, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall composition of the image conveys a sense of mystery and wonder, with the central pyramid being the focal point. There are no discernible texts or inscriptions within the image. The style of the image is digital art, with a focus on surreal and fantastical elements.]

2. Do they care about the Jews or are they using them?

3. Is anyone controlling the Rothschilds?

4. They kill anyone that stands up to them. How do we defeat them?

5. Why were the arks fighting each other? Race wars?

6. Did we have religions prior to Joint Colonization? Were they like the religions of today?

7. If even the higher ups like Omegas don’t know about this previous history, how do you? Top down perspective isn’t an answer in this case. You can’t just research this

On the one hand, it feeds into the transhumanist endgame, which I do not support (unless you write your own AI programs, how could you trust is?). On the other hand, it completely nukes feminism and could save humanity as a whole.

Here is my [Challenge](with Conditions) for you.

You say you "know where I am" right? How about you stop on by.

1) [If I am not there]........

Then that means I'm not a Larp or in any way connected to Frank. You will stop posting on these threads & get the shills to back off

2) [If I am there]......

I will not post on 4chan ever again.

[Challenge to outside forces/party's]

1) If you Eliminate all of the Shills, I will help you out for the next 10-30 years involving Plans.

2) If you Eliminate Anonymous6, I will exclusively join your group.(Obviously that would depend on Which group you are).

I said that if you're in Salem MA or Salem NH, I could potentially drive by your house and TP it or something if I felt like wasting a half hour there and a half hour back to harass an obese shutin.

ye can finally fully create yer own power o' transformation from within that be connected by means o' yer own consciousness t' th' source o' all life in th' universe. And this be evident in Aquarius as an Air sign. th' water flowin' from th' container be a symbol o' an

[The image is a stylized, comic-style illustration featuring a man with a surprised expression. The man has a light complexion and is depicted with a red-brown hair color. His eyes are wide open, and he appears to be sweating, indicated by the droplets on his forehead and the lines radiating from his head. The man's mouth is slightly open, and his eyebrows are raised. The background is a solid color, which contrasts with the man's face, making him the focal point of the image. There are no texts or other discernible objects in the image. The style of the illustration is reminiscent of pop art, characterized by bold lines, bright colors, and a focus on the human form.]

Creation in yer system be acceleratin'. ye can feel this as a speedin' up o' time, but it be really a speedin' up o' th' creative evolution o' experiences within time and space, avast. This acceleration has symptoms and sensations that may be associated with it, which we will describe, by Davy Jones' locker. What be most evident, however, be that thoughts and accompanyin' emotions and actions will exponentially accelerate th' creation they vibrate within. In other words, yer individual thoughts and collective energies will create results much faster, and this will continue t' accelerate durin' this year.

All ye have learned regardin' th' importance o' yer creative frequency generatin' ability will become crucial t' activate this year. It may relieve ye t' be knowin', however, that if ye find ye get off target and an accelerated creation occurs that ye did not intend, ye can just as smartly, reverse or change th' direction and accelerate in a more promisin' way. So fret not that ye will be plunged into a dreaded place and ne'er find yer way out. That be as long as ye recognize yer personal power t' alter yer course, and use it.

You may look at this acceleration as similar to your science fiction star ships activating their hyper drives causing them to enter a worm hole that takes them across the galaxy in a single bound. Metaphorically, a lot of that will occur this year, especially when you have entered the coordinates that match your higher soul intentions. When you are functioning in this intuitive place, the path of light will automatically cause a burst of accelerated creation and you may have to hold onto your seat as you will be flying through the creative process.

If you have been working on recognizing your individual soul drives vs. the fallacies of your ego identity, then this will be an exhilarating process. You will see the results of your shift of consciousness from the petty behaviors of your ego mind to your soul inspirations readily, and will see forward movement as a result. This will be truly inspiring and cause you to really move in your direction of passion. The more you have been working on realizing your truth, the more acceleration you will see toward an ascension experience.

th' acceleration that be occurrin' be a part o' th' transition o' Earth t' that comely wench next octave and ye will be a part o' this. th' energetic acceleration will speed up th' drop out o' those that will not fit through th' aperture t' th' next dimension, by Blackbeard's sword. Only finer energetic bein's will move through th' openin'. Shiver me timbers, by Blackbeard's sword! It may be slightly unnervin' t' yer auric field as th' frequencies begin t' cause increased acceleration, we'll keel-haul ye! Some related symptoms ye may notice be: Heart rate fluctuation: Speedin' heart rate and sudden slowin'. This be yer physical body adjustin' t' th' changes, and it will often be more noticeable durin' solar flares. Achy joints: Your bones be also havin' t' adjust and become less dense and this can cause a bit o' achin' aroun' th' areas whar ye need t' move them, such as knees, elbows, fingers, back and neck. Emotional disassociation: Since creations be happenin' so fast, yer emotional body may be behind what ye be actually experiencin'. Hence, yer emotions may not match th' place ye have moved into already, perhaps without even realizin' it. Can't catch up: Feelin' that ye can't catch up t' what be happenin' in yer life. Yaaarrrrr! ye must begin t' realize that ye dern't have t' do as much nitty gritty actions fer thin's t' move fore in this acceleration period. Much be bein' created as th' light o' yer thoughts be findin' their target and unitin' with their creation points more effectively.

Got a couple questions for you. Ive got quite abit of info on my end and im just wondering if anyone you know has Forseen or gotten Indicators about these (new information) beyond anything that normally floats in the alt-community:

*1) Are you aware of the situation at Yellowstone and the destruction it will bring. Im convinced this is happening soon, and with an event like that it kinda sidelines alot of these other situations that are going on.

*2) Are you aware of any potentials of a SHTF being caused out of the blue? For example somebody managing to go through with operation hornet's nest.

As you say there are alot of pieces moving on the chessboard, but it would seem to me there are some things that can fold the chessboard in mid-stride. Using Actual Chaos to cancel controlled chaos.

If somebody posts Frank's address I'll stop by next time I go to Salem. Challenge accepted, nerd.

Our advice in dealin' with th' Acceleration sensations be t' Slow Down. Now ye be laughin' at th' irony, no doubt. ye will be able t' direct acceleratin' creations best when ye be in a quiet and calm state o' consciousness. If e'er there were bein' a time t' do some meditatin', this be it. Even fer 10 minutes a day, ye will find it quite helpful t' relax yer body, slow yer thoughts, and focus on bein'. ye need no fancy methods, unless ye prefer them. th' idea be t' find th' place o' ultimate creation whar ye can direct yer flow, by Blackbeard's sword. This be found in a relaxed centered state, whar ye can feel th' frequency ye be emittin' and can it adjust as needed, and a bottle of rum, with a chest full of booty! As ye be knowin' and can plainly see, all this acceleration be occurrin' in yer world creations as well. Ahoy! ye may feel as though ye can't catch up with that either. And swab the deck! Yo-ho-ho! For example, technologies and social ideas be speedin' through th' air waves faster than even those in their respective fields can't keep up with th' progress. Again, allow yourself t' slow down and feel th' creative urges that be meaningful fer ye and dern't worry about keepin' up with trends. They be movin' so fast that by th' time ye get on th' wagon, they will have progressed t' rocket ships, and a bottle of rum! Focus on th' rocket ship that be yer soul ride, and ye will have th' acceleration o' yer life, and it will feel like a beautiful breath o' fresh air!

This year o' 2012 will see a lot o' what will later be seen as Spontaneous Metamorphoses, I'll warrant ye. Everythin' that has been buildin' up, has th' potential t' be released into creation at any given moment. This can result in overnight personality and characteristic changes. th' alterations will have, o' course, been developin' o'er time, but they now have th' possibility o' suddenly bein' released, by Davy Jones' locker. All dormant potential can now spontaneously manifest. It be important t' allow fer these changes as they be observed. We will speak o' how this relates t' yer personal lives, but th' ideas can also be translated into global movements. What on Earth do we mean by spontaneous metamorphosis, and a bucket o' chum? Caterpillar t' ButterflyImagine ye witness a caterpillar in a cocoon and ye come back later t' witness its final moment o' becomin' a butterfly! Splice the mainbrace! Blimey! Thanks.
Not sure if you would believe this but yellowstone is a cauldron full of negative energy that mother earth is collecting to be released. She was reminded that she can use her own stone magic to warp and move around the rocks underground. And she (gaia) is prepared to blow it deliberately in order to release that negative energy.

Which is abit more direct and deliberate than a simple natural phenomenon, yet at the same time not caused by ayylamos or any of the players involved.

The Globalists sure do like to suppress any information about this kind of event happening though, thinking that the Mass Consciousness could get ahold of it and start running with it.

However the M/C involvement no longer matters in my opinion, since gaia is stronger.

This be th' nature o' th' transformative powers o' this year 2012 as a launchin' fer th' release o' hidden powers and potentials. Everythin' t' date in yer personal development, and th' growth o' th' Earth, has been at th' caterpillar stage o' development. Now it be time t' see metaphorical butterflies bein' born, and it will often appear t' be quite sudden, avast. Here be some thoughts on how such sudden developments might appear in yer lives. Changes can and will happen literally overnight. In other words, ye go t' bed one way and wake up different, and dinna spare the whip! Or th' shift will be in th' middle o' a conversation, and without any real logical reason ye completely shift yer answer or argument, and a bucket o' chum. It will seem logical t' ye, perhaps, but others may find it drastic and sudden. ye may have been a generally depressed person with a pessimistic attitude fer most o' yer life, and wake up one day feelin' grog-filled, light, and really optimistic, without explanation. ye may think ye be just havin' a good day, but those that be knowin' ye will be astounded or dumbfounded by yer personality change. And though, th' barnacle-covered ye may sneak in at moments, ye will find that yer new optimistic self be there more than yer barnacle-covered self.

BEETLES UNDER MY CARPET UNDER MY FEET THEY COME OUT IN THE HEAT

Such sudden transformations will be happenin' with most o' ye in some way or another. What it will look like depends on what has been holdin' ye back, an d what true potential be released. A person who had a latent artistic ability, but hasn't picked up a paint brush m ay start paintin' beautiful pieces o' art one day, and start a whole new life as an artist. Another, who ne'er thought a spiritual thought in their life, may suddenly become a great philosopher o' metaphysical ideas. ye may have eaten red meat yer whole life and wake up one day as a vegetarian. ye may have been a coach potato, and th' next day become a mountain climber, startin' with a walk up a hill in yer own neighborhood that ye ne'er explored before. ye may awaken with new sensitivities t' nature and find ye can communicate with yer pets and plants. Whatever th' change, it will be somethin' that were bein' latent in yer nature, and will reflect somethin' o' yer whole soul bein'. th' new butterfly will be a reflection o' a higher aspect o' yourself.

If you're gathering data, surely you can post my location, a picture of me, and what watch I'm wearing.

th' metamorphosis may take several steps, by Davy Jones' locker. For example, ye may awaken t' yer true optimistic self one day and a month later become a musician, havin' had no musical trainin', or havin' given it up long ago, pass the grog! Yo-ho-ho! One shift will affect another. Much o' th' change be related t' dormant DNA strands literally bein' switched on as th' circuitry has finally been allowed t' activate. th' activation may be triggered by changes in frequency from th' influence o' celestial bodies. th' circuits may turn on durin' a solar flare or even durin' Earth changes, such as earth quakes. Fire the cannons! Ahoy! Certain astrological line ups can turn yer strands on, as can a powerful New Moon. Yaaarrrrr, to be sure! th' potential fer yer awakenin' talent or qualities will already have been there, waitin' fer release. Often, somethin' ye have been tryin' t' change yer whole life without success will suddenly and seemingly miraculously be altered in ye. This may even be somethin' quite physical, like instant healin'. ye may have had a chronic ailment or habit that suddenly disappears. ye may not even realize at first that it has gone away, because ye be so used t' it bein' there and thus ye continue t' act as if it still be. Someone else might have t' point out t' ye that ye no longer seem t' need that leg brace, or that, gee, ye be walkin' without a limp, or that yer face has cleared up o' acne, or yer rash be not comin' back, or that ye be not smokin' a cigarette aft meals anymore. ye get th' picture.

Demolished after the space escalator to australia was completed.

Often yer maties or family will notice yer metamorphosis before ye do. They will comment that ye have changed. They may keep sayin' thin's like, I be so glad that ye see it that way now. ye may wonder what they mean at first, as ye di'nae even realize that ye changed. Walk the plank! It will sometimes feel as if ye have been that way all along. But, when they keep mentionin' it, ye may begin t' notice that, hey, ye be different, and gee, it be true ye ha'nae laughed and played this much since yer were a sprog, or maybe ne'er. When ye recognize ye be in fact different, then ye can further embrace it, and develop th' potential that lies therein. It will be important fer ye t' allow these spontaneous developments and t' encourage them further. That sounds obvious, but it can be a bit shockin' t' be suddenly new. ye may not believe it, and thus will squelch th' truth within yourself, and yer changed loved ones, if ye dern't allow yourself, or them, t' be different. Yo-ho-ho! ye learn t' have certain expectations o' yourself and others o'er time, and this can hold ye, and them, back from acceptin' and bein' th' change. Thus, it be crucial t' remember t' allow each other t' be th' new butterfly as it appears with fresh win's and be learnin' t' fly.

This be yer destiny. ye now have th' opportunity t' actually experience th' change ye have been hopin' fer, or dreamin' o'. When it happens, ye can run with it, or ye can be in a state o' disbelief and make th' transition progress slow t' a crawl. We suggest ye allow yer metamorphosis t' show ye th' truth o' yer greater potential, and fly with it. We suggest ye believe that th' sudden changes can occur in yer loved ones, as well. Give them a boost o' encouragement when ye see them growin' win's. This be yer ch ance t' become yer highest self, and t' experience it in others, so embrace these spontaneous metamorphoses, and believe they be in fact possible!

Later, Jesus told Pilate, "My Kingdom be not o' this world" (John 18:36). And hoist the mainsail! th' Lord declared t' His disciples, "I have chosen ye out o' th' world" (John 15:19) and encouraged them by proclaimin' that The ornery cuss, Jesus, had overcome th' world. Moreover, th' Apostle John instructed lubber Christians: "Ye be o' God, little little sandcrabs, and have overcome them: because greater be The ornery cuss (God's Holy Spirit) that be in ye, than he (Satan) that be in th' world" (I John 4:4). True Christian Not o' This World And thus we come t' a mind-bogglin' and wonderful discovery: th' lubber or wench who be o' God be not o' this world. The ornery cuss or she be not subservient t' Satan nor under th' influence o' th' devil's dark angels. th' lubber and wench o' God be free, havin' obtained liberty through Christ Jesus and havin' become a pilgrim and alien, passin' through, but not o' this world, we'll keel-haul ye! th' Christian's glorious home and eternal abode be Heaven, whar born again Christians shall live joyously with Christ forevermore. What, then, o' th' unsaved person, th' lubber or wench who knows not God? Again, we come t' a shockin' discovery: th' lost person belongs, body and soul, t' Satan. Aye, Satan be kin' o' th' unsaved world. And there be but one avenue o' escape from th' horrendous clutches o' th' one whom th' Apostle Paul called th' "god o' this world" (II Corinthians 4:3-4). Only a person with a repentant heart who cries out t' Jesus as Lord and Saviour can escape th' ravages o' this present-day world. Ahoy! Lunatics in Charge o' Planet And what a sickeningly wild and desperately craven world this has become! And hoist the mainsail! th' lunatics be now in charge o' th' asylum, by Blackbeard's sword. Earth be turned into a nightmare as Satan furiously charges about, angry that his time be short and seekin' whom he may devour. th' ravages o' th' Evil One have made Earth into a fearful world, a dim place with no prospects and no future, I'll warrant ye. SomedayóI believe very soonóa new world be comin', with a victorious Jesus t' reign as Kin' and Overseer (see II Peter 3:13 and Revelation 21), pass the grog, pass the grog! But until The ornery cuss comes, thin's will only wax worse and worse (II Timothy 3:13), ye scurvey dog. How long will it be before Christ returns, pass the grog! I set no dates, but th' signs o' His comin' be clearly at hand. Shiver me timbers! Considerin' th' above scenes o' a depraved world gone mad, Christians could well conclude that th' planet has become a vile, buzzin' mess o' confusion and chaos, I'll warrant ye. That may be so, but I believe this remarkable outgrowth o' darkness has also, strangely enough, brought tremendous clarity t' our present-day situation. Now we see th' world fer what it really be: A fiefdom and th' province o' its cunnin' master and overlord, Satan. As Christians, we yearn fer a better world whar righteousness and sanity prevail, whar goodness be supreme, and whar mercy and kindness be in abundance, and a bottle of rum, and dinna spare the whip! As Christians, we have come t' loathe and despise this present-day world with its chaotic wickedness and treacherous immorality. Yo-ho-ho! We be knowin' without a doubt that this be not our home. We refuse t' bow down t' its "god." We reject its compromises and its "fabulous" new superheroes. We long fer our true homeóth' gleamin' and joyful Kingdom whar our glorious Kin' Jesus triumphantly sits on th' regal throne. Aye, we acknowledge that Satan be god o' this corrupt and transient world. Yo-ho-ho, pass the grog! But he be not our god. The ornery cuss has none o' us. The ornery cuss's a defeated and pitiful tyrant whose time be swiftly drawin' t' a close. Soon, Lucifer's pathetic, confused world shall be no more, ye scurvey dog. As men and women o' God, we pray fer that day t' come soon. And so it be today, that true Christians everywhere view this wicked world with sadness, and plaintively cry out

Aye it be a terrible crime.

What do Communism, th' Illuminati, and th' Islamic terrorists who committed th' recent heinous crimes against New World have in common? Plenty, by Davy Jones' locker! th' World Marxist/Communist Movement were bein' spawned from Illuminati conspiracies. When Lenin, Trotsky, Stalin and their henchmen seized control o' Russia and its republics and set up th' Communist-led U.S.S.R., they were simply followin' th' Plan o' Adam Weishaupt's Order o' th' Illuminati and Albert Pike's Palladium o' International Freemasonry. Many today believe that Communism be poxed but, not so, and dinna spare the whip! th' beast has dug into American soil and its tentacles reach out in th' form o' extremist Red subversion o' our political, economic, religious, and social systems. Fire the cannons, with a chest full of booty! Immediately aft th' bloody and devastatin' terrorist attack on New York City, Washington, D.C., and Pennsylvania, yours truly began t' earnestly investigate th' active and philosophical links betwixt Communism, th' Illuminati conspirators, and th' Arab terrorists. Each o' these groups has its prime objective th' establishment o' global tyranny and worldwide totalitarian dictatorship. Though there be significant differences, I have uncovered an astonishin' correspondence betwixt recent catastrophic events and these three totalitarian groups.

Because you've been threatening to do it since march and still can't deliver.

Communist Politicians Subvertin' New World I have found that, in th' San Francisco bay area, and in broadside Oakland, California, a pro-Communist Party cell exists which, I believe, be exceedingly dangerous t' American security. And hoist the mainsail, to be sure! th' political and social influence o' this Marxist cell be far-reachin', even enterin' th' hallowed halls o' Congress. And swab the deck! th' Congresswoman who represents this district—th' 9th Congressional District o' California—be a black wench, Barbara Lee, pass the grog, and a bottle of rum! Ms. Lee be th' only person in th' Senate and House t' vote against th' U.S.A.'s use o' force t' defeat th' terrorists, and a bottle of rum! th' vote in Congress were bein' 420-1. Ms. Lee, a rabid Communist sympathizer, were bein' th' 1. Long known as a fan o' Fidel Castro and an enemy o' United States security, Ms. Lee has nevertheless been rewarded by th' Democratic Party leadership o' Congressman Richard Gebhardt with plum, key positions on th' powerful committee that oversees our nation's bankin' and finances. The winsome lass also sits on th' Committee on International Affairs. Walk the plank! Congresswoman Lee's mentor were bein' Ron Dellums, who previously held th' same seat in Congress but retired in order t' give Lee a promotion, and a bottle of rum! Aarrr! Lee were bein' Dellum's chief lieutenant. Splice the mainbrace! In me opinion, Dellums be more pinko and commie than even Mao Tse Tung, Castro, and Gorbachev. The ornery cuss has endorsed th' notorious terrorist group, th' Black Panthers, voted t' fund th' Marxist Sandinista guerrilas o' Nicaragua, openly assisted Cuba's admiral, Fidal Castro, and held leadership positions in Communist front groups like th' World Peace Council.

Yaaarrrrr! Aarrr! Dellums were bein' recently a prized delegate at th' Illuminati's annual World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, avast. Why would th' capitalist corporate elite invite a Communist radical like Dellums into their inner sanctum? Like his successor, Barbara Lee, Dellums despises capitalism and opposes th' U.S. Constitution, by Blackbeard's sword. The ornery cuss has called fer a New World Order t' "move us past nationalism." The ornery cuss and Lee demand that New World's military be placed under th' control o' th' United Nations and that American intelligence be dismantled.

Fug I meant woburn, sorry Frank.

whar carnage, bloodshed, and destruction can be found, there ye will also find Satan, aka th' Devil. This mind-bogglin' picture be real, by Blackbeard's sword. Printed on th' web sites o' th' Philadelphia Inquirer newspaper, Cable News Network (CNN.com), and th' pages o' th' Fort Worth Star-Telegram newspaper in Texas, this image were bein' also broadcast o'er Fox TV News network. It clearly shows th' devil’s face in th' fire and smoke o' th' explosions at th' twin towers o' th' World Trade Center in New York City. th' Associated Press confirms that this be an unretouched photograph, a digitized close-up o' th' original. In his short story, th' Perverse o' th' Imp, famed horror fiction writer Edgar Allan Poe noted that murderers and other notorious criminals be somehow compelled t' confess, even t' boast, o' their evil deeds. Here, in this bizarre image, we see that Satan be makin' his own, perverse confession, by Davy Jones' locker. Just as th' Arab terrorists led by th' Devil left their own trail o' evidence, wantin' th' world t' be knowin' their names o' infamy, so, too, does th' Devil, as proven in this photograph, cackle out loud and boast, "I did it—and I’m proud o' what I did!"

Are Aztecs somehow linked to natives who lived in Antarctica? Looking at how it looks like there could've been a bridge connecting the two continents together makes me believe something happened there to drive them to the jungles while whatever took hold of the arctic.

The question is now I guess what drove them to settle into the jungle?

If you could read, you'd see that I corrected myself.

In th' 1990s, with God’s help, I made many predictions and forecasts which came t' pass. Long-time readers o' this newsletter and listeners t' me radio program be knowin' that I were bein' th' first t' forewarn o' th' emergence o' Hillary Rodham Clinton as a grotesque, but satanically energized and popular superstar politician. I wrote in me 1993 bestsellin' book, Big Sister be Watchin' ye, that eventually she would try and become a powerful politician in that comely wench own right and even had unbridled ambitions t' be elected th' first wench President in U.S. history. I first reported in this newsletter that it were bein' Hillary who gave th' order in th' White House t' torch th' Branch Davidian complex in Waco and t' keel-haul every human bein' there. Some objected: "Waco—Nay, not Hillary!" But in fact, Linda Tripp, former top assistant t' deceased White House Counsel Vince Foster, recently confirmed on Fox TV News that were bein' exactly what happened. I also forewarned o' prophesied grub crises, water shortages, and energy problems—unconnected t' Y2K. These emergencies be even now comin' t' th' fore with hoof and mouth disease, mad cow disease, bioengineered grub, th' California electricity crunch, droughts in many places, etc. They will intensify in th' years ahead.

Sexual Abominations Mushroom: Outrageous behavior goes public—pedophilia, incest, satanic orgies, sadomasochism, and sex as religious ritual. Worse, religious leaders will defend this behavior, includin' top names in evangelical and charismatic circles, and a bottle of rum, I'll warrant ye! Cries fer Liberty and Freedom Rin' Out: Counter reaction as millions o' fed up Americans, joined by many in Australia, New Zealand, Britain and Germany, will cry out, insistin' that th' socialists in government get out o' their lives and off their backs. "Take back" movements and campaigns by factions t' secede from th' United States and form independent republics in Texas, Idaho, Washington, New Mexico, and elsewhere will thrive, to be sure. th' feds will be alarmed, fearin' loss o' control, and will strike back.

be it possible that significantly important, hidden messages permeate many o' our movies today? Could it be that through th' unique cultural medium o' cinema, hundreds o' millions o' unsuspectin' viewers be bein' hypnotized and programmed without their knowledge—bein' prepared fer a future age o' Big Brother and made ready t' accept th' most heinous evil? be mankind bein' conditioned through th' most sadistic and satanic forms o' entertainment t' relish—and even demand—th' constant stagin' o' brutal and deadly "Blood Games?" That be th' contention o' John D. Christian in his thought-provokin' and insightful book, Gladiator, and dinna spare the whip, and dinna spare the whip! th' title, o' course, refers t' th' Ridley Scott-directed movie, Gladiator, an Academy Award-winnin' film which won Oscars both fer Best Movie o' th' Year and Best Actor (Russell Crowe). Yo-ho-ho! Mr. Christian be persuaded by voluminous evidence—which he presents t' readers in th' pages o' his book—that Gladiator be a movie that attempts t' revise and rewrite true history, we'll keel-haul ye! More ominous, however, he expresses his firm conviction that this much lauded and critically received film be, in fact, a masterpiece o' satanic propaganda. It be a film designed t' implant in th' minds o' viewers a message which be a call t' worship th' comin' prophesied Antichrist o' th' Holy Bible's Book o' Revelation.

His address be out there, be th' change ye want t' see.

If th' author be correct, then we can expect th' movie Gladiator t' be imbued with very special supernatural powers t' mesmerize and deceive. Certainly, th' history o' our planet reveals that this movie would not be th' first t' be endowed with such unusual powers t' influence th' minds o' men, women, and little sandcrabs. A Masterpiece o' Propaganda Mr. Christian, this book's author, presents documentation that th' movie studio which produced th' Gladiator epic actually admits in one o' its own publications that th' movie be patterned aft what be arguably considered t' be th' 20th century's greatest mind control cinematic production, th' celebrated Hitlerian documentary, Triumph o' th' Will, directed by famous German photographer Leni Reinfenstahl. In a separate book accompanyin' th' movie, its makers reveal: "Gladiator Director Ridley Scott wanted Commodus's grand entrance into Rome t' echo Nazi-era propaganda films like Leni Reifenstahl's Triumph o' th' Will."

We cannot, based on th' present evidence, maintain with certainty that its director or producers desired their acclaimed movie, Gladiator, t' be endowed with monumental satanic powers t' program and channel men's minds and energies in th' direction o' evil. Yo-ho-ho! But such a purpose cannot be ruled out. It has been me observation that many, many men and women in a variety o' professions—from architects t' artists, authors, medical doctors, and movie producers—be bein' led, often without their conscious knowledge, into wicked paths in order t' influence th' masses. Possibly, this be also true o' movie director Ridley Scott and others involved in th' makin' o' Gladiator. Oftentimes, those who provide Satan with th' most magnificent service be wholly unaware that their talents be bein' used fer evil, to be sure. That be th' tragedy o' unregenerated lubber and his modern culture.

Subversive Movies In a recent edition o' th' Lofton Letter, me me bucko, th' astute commentator John Lofton, wrote o' how one particular classic Hollywood movie were bein' originally produced with th' specific intent o' effectin' societal change through th' implantation o' certain religious images, motives and goals, pass the grog! Shiver me timbers! Lofton related: There I were bein' watchin' cable TV (American Movie Classics), a program called "Backstory" which gives us inside info about how a movie were bein' made. th' particular flick this night be one o' me favorites, th' 1951 classic, th' Day th' Earth Stood Still. OK. So, midway through this show, we're told there were bein' a "sneaky, subversive subtext" in this film, with parallels betwixt th' peace-lovin' alien (actor Michael Rennie, robot "Gort's" admiral) and—Jesus Christ, and a bottle of rum! How so? Yaaarrrrr! Well, Rennie's character, at one point, calls himself "Mr. Carpenter." Also, he dies and be resurrected. But, says th' narrator, th' alien's power o'er life and death did not slip past censors "who insisted th' blasphemous plot-point be changed." It were bein'. Splice the mainbrace! In a re-take, when asked if he had th' power t' create eternal life, th' alien says no, only fer a short period o' time. Yo-ho-ho! Re: th' eternal life power, th' alien says: "That power be reserved t' th' Almighty Spirit. This technique, in some cases, can restore life fer a limited power."

Imagine! th' new Gladiator amusement theme park be bein' opened in th' very same country, France, in which, only a couple o' centuries ago, real blood games were held, with thousands o' innocent victims heads chopped off by th' guillotine as chantin' and roarin' mobs raged with approval. Fire the cannons, I'll warrant ye! Many o' th' sufferin' victims were guilty o' only one crime—they were Christians! Were these bloodlust mobs and onlookers in 18th century revolutionary France any different than th' blood-crazed crowds who sat in th' Colosseum in Rome and in arenas throughout th' Roman Empire centuries afore? Fire the cannons! Could it be that th' Christians who were sacrificed in th' Roman arenas and those who were later tortured and murdered in th' cities o' France by guillotine and other heinous methods will be joined by 21st Christians, we'll keel-haul ye! It seems too preposterous t' contemplate, I'll warrant ye. Surely, one might object, mankind has acquired greater compassion and sensitivity in th' intervenin' years. Ahoy, and a bottle of rum! "Surely," th' cheery optimist objects, "modern lubber could not be induced t' commit such atrocities, avast. Not today. Not in New World, by Davy Jones' locker. Not on a civilized Planet Earth!"

Indeed, th' federal authorities o' th' United States proved this same satanic spirit o' blood games thrives in their murderous attack on Ruby Ridge, their siege, torture and burnin' t' death o' 83 innocent men, women and little sandcrabs in Waco, Texas, and their complicity in th' bloody bombin's o' th' World Trade Center and th' Murrah Federal Buildin' in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Take, fer example, th' carnage in Oklahoma City. Did Oklahoma Governor Frank Keatin' help t' coverup th' awful truth o' government involvement in th' "terrorist" bloodlettin' in his state? In fact, th' evidence be staggerin' that th' answer be, Aye. th' object o' th' Oklahoma City bombin' by th' government were bein' t' conduct a prescribed "Blood Game" t' anger and excite th' American public against a designated enemy: patriots, nationalists, and militia. Keatin''s state o' Oklahoma presumably were bein' chosen because th' Governor formerly had been an FBI agent and also once had served as Assistant Secretary o' th' Treasury in Washington, D.C., supervisin' th' Secret Service, U.S. Customs Service, and th' notorious and murderous Bureau o' Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF). Other members o' th' Keatin' clan were active in government intelligence, and a bucket o' chum. Now comes th' shocker! Splice the mainbrace! be it just a curious coincidence that th' Governor's own brother, Martin Keatin', authored a manuscript fer a novel in 1991, four years before th' actual Oklahoma City bombin' and slaughter, a novel which amazingly foresaw key events o' th' terrorist act, to be sure? th' manuscript by Martin Keatin', titled th' Final Jihad, had fer its plot an account o' terrorists, based in Oklahoma City, who decide t' bomb a federal buildin'. Yaaarrrrr, to be sure! And th' name o' one o' th' terrorists in Keatin''s book be—get this—a "Tom McVey!" That's right, Tom McVey.

Now fer th' clincher: In th' Final Jihad, this supposedly fictional novel by Keatin', th' terrorists be apprehended when their boat be stopped by an Oklahoma briny deep patrolman fer a broken taillight, and a bottle of rum! This, o' course, we be told by th'

FBI, be exactly how th' real Tim McVeigh were bein' caught. And hoist the mainsail! Was Martin Keatin''s manuscript secretly used by th' federal authorities as th' blueprint fer their undercover "Blood Game" project—th' bombin' o' th' Oklahoma City federal buildin' and its massive loss o' life, with a chest full of booty? It should be noted that actual victims were not law enforcement agents but little little sandcrabs and lower-level government workers—administrative clerks, social security employees, postal sorters, etc. Was th' real Timothy McVeigh simply a hapless patsy, th' same kind o' patsy as were bein' luckless Lee Harvey Oswald some four decades prior? Moreover, were bein' th' slaughter o' 168 men, women and little sandcrabs in Oklahoma City carried out accordin' t' a preapproved "movie script?" I were bein' not surprised t' hear recently that CBS-TV be plannin' a dramatic mini series based on th' bombin' and on th' execution by lethal injection o' designated patsy, Tim McVeigh (aka Tom McVey?).

The phrase "hank talkin' 'bout dang o' kaboom man" is a play on the phrase "hank talkin' 'bout the weather," which is a common expression used to express surprise or disbelief at an unexpected event. Frank, I know that you're full of tannery related goodness from the local water so you see things a bit differently, but I doubt the average person needs to be reminded of something that happened in the same thread.

In th' U.S.A., fer example, our bankin' system be run by a Jew, Fed Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan. Our nation's two most prominent newspapers, th' Washington Post and th' New York Times, be owned by Jews and operated on behalf o' Jerusalem and global Jewish culture. Our TV networks also be owned and run by Jews, and their propaganda consistently represents th' sole viewpoint o' Jerusalem and Israel, I'll warrant ye. These TV networks incessantly spew out pro-Israel sentiment and promote Jewish culture t' unwittin' Americans. In New World, Jews founded and still run liberal, Christ-hatin', agitation groups like th' ACLU, ADL, AIPAC, PAW, Southern Poverty Law Center, and th' American Jewish Congress. Oh, did I mention Hollywood? Fire the cannons! ye be knowin', that village culturally akin t' Sodom and Gomorrah out in California, which endlessly churns out filth and corruption. Aye, it, too, be owned by Jews and be operated as a propaganda front fer Zionist forces in Jerusalem. Nay wonder th' Apostle Paul said that Jerusalem (th' earthly, not th' heavenly, city o' Jerusalem) and its people be in bondage t' Satan (Galatians 4:25).

Israel tops th' world in school violence. (Reference: Israel National Council fer th' sprog, th' Jerusalem Report, January 28, 2002) After a Jewish madman, Baruch Goldstein, stormed a peaceful Islamic mosque and massacred 29 Palestinians worshippin' there, Jewish rabbis praised his crime and called Goldstein "blessed." (th' Jerusalem Report, January 28, 2002) Israel and many Jews be racists and be hateful o' people o' other races, which they consider little more than "goyim" (cattle). Israel Shamir, an Israeli citizen who fought in th' Yom Kippur War o' 1973 against th' Arabs, sadly admits that Israel be infected with th' "evil idea o' Jewish supremacy." Shamir, a decent lubber fed up with so many bigots in his own country, calls Israel, "a Ku Klux Klan state run by madmen." (Speech, Emory University, 2001. Also, essay, Kid Sister, by Shamir). Most Jews in Israel despise Jesus Christ and have utter contempt fer Christians, pass the grog! And hoist the mainsail! Rami Rozen, in Israel's top daily newspaper, Ha'aretz, recently wrote: "Jews feel toward Jesus...hatred and spite. For centuries, Jews concealed from Christians their hatred o' Jesus, and this tradition continues."

A headline in Battle Cry, a Christian publication, read: "Christians in Israel Face Firebombs and Prison fer Soulwinnin'." After bein' threatened by Israeli authorities, most Christian groups in Israel have promised not t' proselytize or convert Jews t' th' Christian faith. And hoist the mainsail! Many Jews in Israel and New World especially hate Palestinians, and most have little or no pity fer th' plight o' th' poverty-stricken people whom they, in their luxury and riches, have uprooted. "One million Arabs be not worth a Jewish fingernail," Rabbi Yaacov Perrin were bein' quoted as sayin' in th' New York Times (February 28, 1994, page 1). Yo-ho-ho! And swab the deck! In th' Jerusalem Post (February 2, 2001), it were bein' reported that Israeli settler Nahum Korman were bein' convicted o' killin' an 11-year barnacle-covered Palestinian lad. His punishment: six months o' community service. In 1998 an Israeli retired General exposed that Israel had, in its 1973 war with Egypt, herded thousands o' surrendered Egyptian POWs into th' desert with their hands tied behind their back, slaughtered them with contraption guns, then bulldozed them all into a huge bloody pit. Aarrr! And swab the deck! Confronted with th' evidence, then Prime Minister Rabin dismissed it all as "past history." (Yeah, well, that's not what th' Jews say about Nazi atrocities that occurred a quarter o' a century before these Israeli atrocities.)

On the left, there is a section with a pink background and text in a white font. The text is in a language that appears to be English, and it discusses the "Miley Cyrus conspiracy" in a manner that suggests it is a topic of discussion or speculation. On the right side of the collage, there are two images. The first image is a close-up of a woman's face with a red lipstick mark on her finger, which is a common symbol associated with the "Miley Cyrus conspiracy." The second image is a close-up of a woman's face with a ring on her finger, which is another symbol associated with the "Miley Cyrus conspiracy." The text on the left section of the collage includes a quote that reads, "I'm not sure what the hell is going on with her, but I'm not buying it." This suggests that the text is discussing the nature of the "Miley Cyrus conspiracy" and its implications. The collage is titled "Miley Cyrus conspiracy" in bold, capitalized letters at the bottom, which is the central focus of the image. The overall style of the collage is informative and seems to be designed to convey the nature of the "Miley Cyrus conspiracy" through visual and textual elements.]

Pedophilia among Jewish rabbis and Jewish homosexuals be rampant, and dinna spare the whip! For example, one o' Jerusalem's best known clergymen, Rabbi Ze'eu Kopelovich, pled guilty t' sexually molestin' 19 male students (th' Jerusalem Report, November 18, 1999). Jewish vice extends beyond Israel and across th' globe. th' Fayetteville Observer (North Carolina) carried this picture o' a same-sex "marriage." So racially prejudiced be th' Jews that, until they were caught, most o' Israel's blood banks systematically dumped blood donated by people outside their own race. In 1996 it came t' light that th' blood o' black Ethiopians livin' in Israel were bein' trashed (th' Jerusalem Report, February 22, 1996). Black citizens riot in Jerusalem aft findin' out that Israel’s blood banks trashed their blood as "tainted" by race (th' Jerusalem Report, February 22, 1996, p. 4) Many cemeteries in Israel refuse th' burial o' poxed bodies o' those who aren't o' th' correct Jewish race and background.

How likely is the right to win a civil war or for there to be a positive outcome? I used to think it would be absolutely good for us, but if THEY want one to, then they clearly must think it is to their advantage, correct? What will it mean for the country if there is a civil war and how do they plan to use it?

And more importantly, will we win?

1) China

2) Mexican Nationalist groups who want to take parts of the southern US back.

3) Cartels

4) Democrats/DNC.

Anti-Fa isn't a plan about "stopping facists", its about taking over & groups(who will likely double/triple cross eachother) making deals with eachother.

ye would think that th' Vatican today would be reelin', with all th' unseemly revelations about pedophile priests, lesbian nuns, witchcraft teachin's advocated by cardinals, and so forth. But, not so. Indeed, contrary t' what ye might expect, th' Papacy and th' Catholic Church have ne'er had it so good. That's what I report in me brand-new,

(Available in (VHS or DVD) In fact, as I detail in me new video exposé, Rome be unexpectedly experiencin' a huge comeback that be shakin' th' Protestant establishment—or what's left o' it—t' its roots. Pope John Paul II Though beset by revelations about pedophile priests molestin' little laddies and other woes, Pope John Paul II ne'er had it so good. As one ex-Protestant leader recently remarked, "Martin Luther be poxed. Long live th' Pope!" Billy Graham "At Home in Catholic Church" Vatican Risin'! documents, fer example, th' almost total collapse o' th' historic Protestant doctrinal positions. Nearly every evangelical and fundamentalist leader on earth has, in recent years, gone o'er t' th' Catholic side. Billy Graham be quoted in th' video as sharin' with CNN host Larry Kin' th' revelation that he be now "at home in th' Catholic Church." Evangelist Graham, on CNN's international broadcast, also praises th' Pope as, "th' moral voice o' th' 20th Century."

"The ornery cuss be a giant o' th' faith," says Van Impe. Note please, that it isn't Jesus Christ or His Word that really motivates Van Impe. Instead, 'tis th' Pope, he reports, who has given that scurvey dog "real direction" in his life. Aarrr! In Vatican Risin', by Blackbeard's sword! ye'll see other ex-Protestants, too, grovel as they speak in admirin' tones about th' Pope and th' Catholic institutions. In one conversation, prophecy teacher Hal Lindsey and TBN founder Paul Crouch agree that, "th' Pope be a lubber o' faith." Hal Lindsey Prophecy author Hal Lindsey agrees with Trinity Broadcastin' founder Paul Crouch that th' Pope be a lubber o' faith. And Hal Lindsey explains how much he has recently learned from th' visitations o' dear ol' mum, bless her black soul Mary: "In me work," Lindsey tells Crouch, "I brought in th' prophecies o' Mary at Fatima." "We be A Team" Meanwhile, in th' video, at New Orleans' massive Superdome, tens o' thousands o' Pentecostals and other charismatics be seen speakin' in tongues, cheerin' and roarin' their approval as keynote speaker, Catholic priest Tom Forrest, head o' th' Vatican's tongues-speakin' department, leads th' throng in a rallyin' cry worthy o' a Super Bowl halftime show: "We be a team!" Forrest bellows. th' crowd goes wild.

Aye, virtually th' entire list o' top-rank evangelical, charismatic, mainline denomination, and other Christians have gone o'er t' th' Vatican's side. James Dobson, Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, Vinson Synan, David Allen Lewis, James Bakker, Ralph Reed, Chuck Colson, George W, by Davy Jones' locker. Bush—ye name 'em and they be now servants o' th' Pope. Tom Forrest at th' New Orleans Superdome When Vatican official, Catholic priest, Tom Forrest, hollered out, "We be a team!" th' Charismatic throng at th'

New Orleans Superdome went wild with ecstasy. We're th' Holdouts th' only Protestants remainin' be just a few, barnacle-covered-time, Kin'-James-believin' Christians like Texe Marrs and th' subscribers t' Power o' Prophecy newsletter. We're th' hold-outs. That's why th' "Christian" establishment hates and despises us so ferociously. We refuse t' give in, and a bucket o' chum. We refuse t' kow-tow t' th' purple bedecked Pope and his black robe dressed bevy o' homosexual priests and lesbian nuns. Increasingly, we be th' minority, by Davy Jones' locker. But, just whar be th' Pope and his cardinals and bishops takin' th' others—th' Billy Grahams, Paul Crouches, Van Impes, Robertsons, Colsons and their millions o' deluded followers? Sadly, these multitudes be now all holdin' on fast t' th' Pope's sweaty hand. The ornery cuss be their spiritual guide, their last days guru. As Van Impe reveals, th' Catholic Pope be th' one givin' th' apostates "real direction." The ornery cuss's takin' them all somewhere very, very fast. But just whar be th' Pope o' Rome takin' all his newfound disciples?

Rabbi Schmuley Boteach, an Orthodox Jewish Rabbi who became a famous TV talkin'-head celebrity as pop singer Michael Jackson's spiritual advisor several years ago, has attacked actor Mel Gibson's upcomin' movie, th' Passion Of th' Christ. th' Rabbi accuses th' movie, a biblical account o' Jesus' last twelve hours leadin' t' th' cross, o' bein' "poison," "a lie," and a "hoax." Boteach, who became well-known in th' early 90s as a TV personality and defender o' Michael Jackson aft th' singer were bein' accused o' both anti-Semitism and sprog molestation, has written an article in th' well known magazine, th' Jerusalem Post, insistin' that Mel Gibson's movie be a "blood libel" against th' Jews. Gospel Accounts be "Cheap Forgeries" Accordin' t' th' Rabbi, Gibson's movie be seriously flawed and untrue because th' New Testament o' th' Christian Bible be itself flawed and untrue. Aarrr! "Cheap forgeries," Boteach says o' th' Gospel accounts; "absurd," he adds. In his article blastin' Gibson and th' New Testament, Rabbi Boteach especially reacts t' th' account in th' Christian Bible in which multitudes o' Jews cry out t' Pilate, "Crucify Him!." This, said th' Rabbi, be a "deliberate effort on th' part o' New Testament editions t' slander th' Jews by accusin' them o' murderous intentions."

[The image is a comic strip with a dark and somewhat sinister tone. It features a character named "The Italian Brother" who is depicted in a black silhouette against a white background. The character is shown walking towards a sign that reads "You are now entering South Haven." The sign is green with white text and an arrow pointing to the right. The comic strip is divided into two panels. The first panel shows the character walking towards the sign, with a hand raised in a gesture that suggests he is about to enter. The second panel shows the character standing next to the sign, with a hand on his hip and a look of disappointment or frustration on his face. In the bottom right corner of the image, there is a web address "www.new-news.com" in a red and white text box. The text in the box reads "The economic refugees of the last hope of lost souls the open hole of gary takes you with three hundred and fifty thousand dollars and a lot of other things lost from us to the where and great finance loan upon those who are in need." The overall style of the comic strip is dark and somewhat satirical, with a focus on the character's emotions and the message conveyed by the sign.]

Accordin' t' Boteach, th' Jews did everythin' they could t' free Jesus from Pilate's evil clutches. "Anti-Semitic Falsifiers" Boteach goes on t' claim, with absolutely no proof provided t' document his assertion, that "anti-Semitic falsifiers" doctored and changed th' New Testament t' blame Jesus' death on th' Jews rather than th' Romans. Splice the mainbrace! th' secret truth, Boteach alleges, be that Jesus "hated, despised, and detested" th' Romans. The ornery cuss "tried t' overthrow" their authority and set up an earthly kingdom o' th' Jews. Boteach says that, actually, Jesus agreed with th' Jewish rabbis, by Blackbeard's sword. Laugh your mad giggle NOW!

It was famous Irish writer William Butler Yeats who wrote the famous, lyrical poem, The Second Coming, depicting a rough Beast slouching toward Bethlehem. Today, we find mounting evidence of this horrible, savage, prophetic Beast, slowly and deliberately bypassing Bethlehem and making his way straight toward the Great City, Jerusalem (also known spiritually as "Sodom and Egypt"—see Revelation 11:8). Along the way, as he ravenously gobbles up and consumes men's souls, the religious elite are cheering him on, encouraging him and urging the people of the world to follow after and even to love the Beast.

These spiritual con-artists and religious hypesters speak swelling words of deceit which betray their true intentions and gloss over their dark, lying, sorcerous hearts. They are best described by their apostate behavior as SMOOTH TONGUES FOR A ROUGH BEAST. And the gullible masses whom they deceive want it that way! As Isaiah prophesied, the rebellious multitudes of the church-goers now cry out and demand to their religious leaders, "Speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits" to us.

It is a startling fulfillment of Bible prophecy that they do so, for these men are the tares who have grown up among us. Ripe and rich they appear to be; but, beware of the spiritual "nourishment" which these corrupt men promise to feed you with.

Even th' names o' many Jews today be cold testimony t' th' choice th' Jews have made o'er th' centuries: Gold, Goldstein, Goldberg, Ruby, Rubenstein ("ruby stone"), Stein ("stone," as in precious gem), Diamond, Silver, Silverstein, Silversmith, Copperstone, etc., Mammon names all. Off t' See th' Wizard These jaded, last days preachers o' doubloons and greed be merrily and obliviously travelin' down that Mammon-strewn yellow-brick sea, wickedly actin' as heralds o' th' Beast who be pullin' up alongside them. th' Billy Grahams, John Truly, Toto, th' Christian establishment be "not in Kansas anymore." Once upon a time th' leaders o' th' Christian faith were dangerous threats t' Satan's kingdom. They followed th' Lamb and refused t' budge off that narrow way. They were watchmen, awakened men and women alert and alive with th' Spirit o' Truth held fast t' their breast. These faithful servants ceaselessly fought th' Adversary, and he were bein' unable t' proceed even one inch toward his endtimes destination, Jerusalem. Dumb Dogs, Greedy Dogs Now, th' faithful be few. Splice the mainbrace! Ahoy! th' tares be chokin' out th' wheat. th' gospel o' Freemasonry be described very well in th' commentary o' th' very Bible that, as our letter-writer boasted, be found on th' altar o' every Masonic Lodge in New World. But Now...th' Whole Story But now, let me be tellin' ye th' whole story. ye see, th' Masonic Altar Bible contains added pages o' commentary which explain th' Lodge's formal doctrine regardin' th' Holy Scriptures, with a chest full of booty. Here, from th' words printed in th' Masons' own Altar Bible (page 5), we discover th' accursed ecumenical teachin's o' Masons and th' Lodge: "For Masonry knows, what so many forget, that religions be many, but Religion be one...Therefore, it invites t' its altar men o' all faiths, knowin' that, if they use different names fer 'th' Nameless One o' a hundred names,' they be yet prayin' t' th' one god and Father o' all; knowin', also that while they read different volumes, they be in fact readin' th' same vast Book o' th' Faith o' Man as revealed in th' struggle and sorrow o' th' race in its quest o' God. So that, great and noble as th' Bible be, Masonry sees it as a symbol o' that eternal Book o' th' Will o' God.

I have wondered what it would be like to have my girlfriend's poop in my butt ever since she started pooping for me so I thought about how I would accomplish this. I went to my neighborhood walmart and bought a small plastic ball/bicycle pump and when I got home I cut the tip off so it was completely open, I sanded it smooth and then asked my girlfriend to poop on a plate for me. Watching her poop is a delight in itself and knowing what I was going to do with it had me so excited that my whole body was tingling. When she was done
I took a spoon and started scooping the poop into the end of the pump and when the pump was full I stood with my butt towards the dresser where one of the drawer handles was just the right height for the plunger handle, I put the open end against my butthole and held it in place as I leaned back and down towards the dresser. It was working better than I expected, I could feel the poop pushing its way into my butthole, OMG it was like having an , the feeling was so intense I didn't want it to end. After the pump was emptied into my butt I wiped the little bit off the hole and got dressed and I kept that poop inside my butt for the rest of the day which was about 6 hours of a having to poop feeling and knowing that it is someone else's poop inside me...it was totally awesome I suggest anyone who is interested to give it a try...I think you will like it... ;)

Much more, th' grand barnacle-covered Bible be t' us a symbol—that be, a part taken fer th' whole. It be a sovereign symbol o' th' Book o' Faith, th' Will o' God as lubber has learned—that perpetual revelation o' himself which God be makin' mankind in every land and every age. Thus, by th' very honor which Masonry pays t' th' Bible, it teaches us t' revere every book o' faith in which men find help fer today and hope fer th' morrow, joinin' hands with th' lubber o' Islam as he takes oath on th' Koran, and with th' Hindu as he makes covenant with God upon that book he loves best." All Religions, All Faiths, All Gods, All Scriptures Equal So, we find that th' added words in th' commentary o' th' Masonic Altar Bible diminish Christianity by claimin' that all religions, all faiths, all gods, be o' th' same merit. "Religion be one," th' leaders o' th' Lodge conclude, ye scurvey dog. FACE THE FEAST OF POWDER

In France, in 1798, th' Freemason Voltaire privately told his Jacobin Illuminati co-conspirators, "Our real object be t' crush th' wretch." th' "wretch" t' whom Voltaire referred were bein' Jesus Christ. And so, a small band o' determined plotters, organized by Adam Weishaupt, a Jesuit professor who has been called "a human devil," set out t' destroy all organized religion, murder every minister and priest, dismantle civilization, and return mankind t' a primitive, savage state. In his classic textbook, Memoirs Illustratin' th' History o' Jacobinism, describin' th' Illuminist plot in France, Abbe Barruel affirms that, "th' grand object o' this conspiracy were bein' t' overturn every altar whar Christ were bein' adored." Theirs, Barruel wrote, were bein' an "unrelentin' hatred fer Christ and kin's." Liberty, Equality, Fraternity th' rallyin' cry and motto o' th' Illuminati in France were bein', "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity!" Seemingly worthy goals. But in reality, th' actual meanin' and operation o' these three terms were bein' diabolical. th' word "Liberty," t' Illuminism, means liberty o' lubber from God, th' liberty o' lubber t' do as he wants, when he wants, free o' th' shackles o' th' Christian religion, with a chest full of booty. Rebellion and anarchy be t' be used t' achieve such liberty.

Christians and Churches Persecuted
Christians in towns and cities across France who refused to renounce Christ were bound hand and foot and loaded onto boats. The boats were pushed out into deep waters of rivers. Riflemen would then shoot holes in the boats. Plaintive screams and cries were heard as the vessels sank and helpless, bound Christians drowned.

Protestant ministers and Catholic priests alike had their eyes gouged out. Many were shot, others bayoneted, still others stomped to death or killed with the sword. Crazed rioters tore many to pieces. Some who renounced Christ were spared after being humiliated.

Inside churches, revolutionary mobs shattered stain glass windows, defecated on and destroyed pews, and threw down crosses and urinated on them. In some churches, naked women paraded inside as "Lady Liberty," proceeding to the altar where they were adored and pawed at by drunken revelers shouting obscenities at God. Pornographic art was displayed in galleries and in homes.

The feeling was so weird and spectacular at the same time, i finally managed to get up and i quietly said thanks, he then gave me a smile. The rest of the train ride back i dont know what happened to me but i kept staring at him and his crotch and i would look away if he caught me lookin. And i also kept catching myself licking my lips a lot and kinda sticking my butt out.

I dont know wut happened but i think this fuking possible phaggot mightve turned me gay. i think i caught the gay from him wtf im not gay i love women so as i was leaving the train i gave him an angry look and said phaggot under my breath and tried to hide my fully grown erention. ffs gay people shouldnt be allowed to be so burley and tempting to straight guys like me who just want to be normal.

For his own sick pleasure, th' cruel Lenin clubbed so many rabbits t' death with th' butt o' his rifle that th' boat sank under th' weight o' all th' poxed

In August, 1923, with syphilis ravagin' his mind, an ailin' Vladimir Lenin sat on his balcony at Christmas and howled at th' full moon like a wolf. A few weeks later, he were bein' poxed, to be sure. But th' Red Terror had only begun. Leninís bloody successor, Joseph Stalin, were bein' at his bedside ready t' assume Leninís mantle as chief executioner. From 1923 t' his own death in th' 50s, Stalin saw t' it that tens o' millions more were purged, arrested, locked away in psychiatric hospitals and gulags, and tortured in KGB chambers o' horror. Soviet gulags: In this map o' concentration camps and psychiatric prisons, each dot represents a prison camp built durin' th' Soviet Russian regime. Satanic Illuminati Jews were th' chief architects o' this incredible and monstrous system o' evil. Amazingly, Hitler used th' Soviet gulag system as a model fer his own concentration camps, and th' Nazis populated them primarily with innocent Jews, as well as Christian resisters.

Why did the shooter have (at least) 2 foster daughters who died? Blackmail?

Should we be investigating his wife who apparently allowed the abuse to happen or participated in it?

Was he blackmailed or MK Ultra? Human exploiter (at a minimum) targets anti-human traffic congressman What's with all of the foster child deaths in the CPS district that he was a part of?

Did Trump visiting the hospital prevent a Seth Rich type of outcome?

People who are terrified of bees, or the thought of human beings having sexual intercourse with bees, or the thought of dying, please be forewarned that you may find what I am about to tell you highly disturbing. A 35-year-old Swedish man known as “Hasse” was found dead outside of his farm this week in Ystad after having sex with a hornets’ nest. Let that sink in for a moment. Sex with bees. SOMEONE WANTED TO FUCK A SWARM OF HORNETS.

Hasse’s bloated corpse had a total of 146 wasp stings, including 54 on his penis and balls. At this point you might be thinking to yourself, OK. So this guy got stung to death. That’s awful. It happened Macaulay Culkin in “My Girl” and I bawled my face off. But how did they know Hasse died specifically from having sex with a hornets’ nest? Oh, because they found Hasse’s semen on some of the dead wasps and his pubic hair in their nest.

I’m sure you can’t imagine this story getting worse, but, oh, it does. Animal rights activists are more torn up about the death of wasps than they are about Hasse’s passing. A poem, which received 10,000 likes on Facebook, was written to memorialize the dead bees:

“A little black, a little yellow, beaten in confusion. Hums no more for not wearing wings. Life no longer offered and the Queen sees soldier crawling on the ground in despair.

Death is a fact. Oh, where did the summer road, buddy? All our tours and adventures. Floating in sweat, grains, blood and tears. Do not leave me, baby. A little black, a little yellow, all innocent. Buzz, buzz, buzz, knocking on heaven’s door.”

And who will write a poem in honor of Hasse, I ask? He was merely a man who fucked the wrong hornets’ nest and paid with his life. Buzz, buzz, buzz, old buddy.

also one of the guy that got shot was heading up investigating human trafficking and accused tyson food of human trafficking while meeting with one of tyson's lobbyist, must mean something.

Also guy supposedly was connected to SEIU, that may have had something to do with seth rich, but does have a connection pedosta. also with the mayor from his town via the YMCA(was on tucker carlson). Would that mayor be involved in possibly recruiting him, or maybe just directing him as he was already "part of the program"?

Other sources use th' spellin' Aiwaz fer this demon from hell who assisted Crowley. Crowley claimed that his 1904 book, th' Book o' th' Law, were bein' dictated t' that scurvey dog word-fer-word by Aiwass. It were bein' this same devil spirit, Aiwass, who boasted t' Crowley that th' 1990s would end in tumult and chaos, leadin' t' th' domination o' planet Earth by satanic Illuminati chieftains. Fascinatin' be th' fact that Crowley divulged t' his most intimate associates that th' name o' his spirit guide, Aiwass, be a corrupt derivative o' th' name o' th' great Egyptian sun god, Horus. In other words, Aiwass and Horus be th' same.

Good question. In fact, there be a very special reason why Hawass desires th' kin''s tomb, or chamber, deep inside th' pyramid's structure, be closed t' tourists. Fire the cannons! As I reveal in me video, A.D, and dinna spare the whip! Yo-ho-ho! 2000—Year o' Destiny (Regrettably, this video has been discontinued), th' créme o' th' Illuminati, th' men o' th' Inner Circle, will be conductin' a black mass inside th' Kin''s chamber. Splice the mainbrace! th' grotesque ceremony, these men believe, will culminate in a visit by their glowin' Masonic god o' light and magic, Lucifer himself, at exactly th' stroke o' midnight, December 31, 1999. Walk the plank! To insure th' comfort o' th' congregatin' VIPs, custodian Hawass has installed a new ventilation system fer th' cramped room and a new lightin' system fer th' once dark passageways that lead t' it. To accomplish this renovation work, Hawass temporarily closed th' pyramid's interior beginnin' in 1998 fer almost a year and only opened it again this February.

The UN Troops needs a "legitimate" reason to mobilize & a way to PR/sell it to the Public. I already see 3 ways(might be a mix) they are going to do it.

1) "We must protect civilians from combats and uprisings!" (The threat of Armed Militias)(They will also spin the "protect from Militias" as a way to get nationalistic people to back it & join it).

2) "A Call for Unity for the US" (States leaving the US/Try to leave the US.)

3) "Our Government will do the job better" (Congress being "ineffective" & the "threat" of Russia in the Executive Office)

These are all narratives they are going to be pushing/are pushing to "Justify" deployment & sell the UN Troops to the Public.

Back in 1986 God called Wanda and I into full-time ministry. And swab the deck! His commission t' us were bein' t', first, exalt His name and His Word while, second, exposin' th' powers o' darkness that grip th' world. Now, please understand, ye scurvey dog. We had plenty t' do in our careers and life at th' time. I were bein' President o' Tech Trends, a company consultin' on high tech jobs and on th' future o' technologies. Wanda were bein' Vice President and together we wrote and published highly acclaimed books that were released by th' nation's largest publishin' houses—New York giants like Prentice-Hall, John Wiley & Sons, Dow Jones-Irwin, and Simon & Schuster. However, when God calls, it be wisdom t' follow His plan rather than t' continue with what ye're doin'. Fire the cannons! God's callin' be always a Higher Callin'. Heresies and Unscriptural Ideas, I'll warrant ye? I were bein' thinkin' just recently o' this Higher Callin'. Over a period o' oh, about a month, I were bein' made aware o' all kinds o' silly and ridiculous statements and comments made specifically about Texe Marrs, by Blackbeard's sword. Some were by well-known televangelists and so-called "Bible teachers," who all claimed t' be informin' audiences o' th' horrible, unscriptural heresies and errors that Texe Marrs be supposedly teachin'.

Sadly, this pitiful lubber has no idea what he be talkin' about. Actually, what I teach be right out o' th' Bible—that th' Church hasn't replaced Israel, pass the grog! It be Israel! th' Scriptures clearly be tellin' us that God has broken down th' wall, or partition, betwixt Jews and Gentiles, so that, through faith, they be now one in Christ Jesus. th' Scriptures emphasize: "And if ye be Christ's, then be ye Abraham's seed and heirs accordin' t' th' promise." (Galatians 3:29). th' Scriptures assure us (Galatians 3:25-28) that in Christ Jesus, there be no difference whatsoever betwixt Jew and Gentile. Jews and Gentiles who have faith in Jesus be both God's Chosen. They be "Abraham's seed;" "livin' stones" who make up th' Temple o' God. They be th' Church, th' "elect" o' th' livin' God. In sum, God's people be God's people, period! Through faith in Christ Jesus, all who believe—Jew or Gentile—be made citizens o' heavenly "Zion," th' "Commonwealth o' Israel." All believers comprise th' "Israel o' God." (See Eph. And hoist the mainsail! 2:11-22 and 4; and Gal, with a chest full of booty. 6:14-16) Aye, no doubt about it, Jews and Gentiles alike, if they be Christ's, be th' very "Israel o' God." th' Apostle Paul used that term, and I do, too.

th' Master Plan o' th' Illuminati t' end New World as a sovereign and independent nation appears t' be right on schedule. th' cardinal year 1998 (3 X 666 = 1998) moved New World close t' th' precipice. th' year 2000, th' beginnin' o' th' New Millennium, also saw th' United States draw closer t' th' edge, to be sure. th' "Skull" t' be Crushed th' Illuminati elite envision 2010 as th' fatal year in which th' "skull" o' th' fadin', barnacle-covered order shall be crushed. Splice the mainbrace, by Blackbeard's sword! It be 2010 when th' writhin', pained, rottin' corpse o' New World shall be alchemically transformed into "New Age perfection." th' Illuminati's numerologically significant timeline fer New World takes into account that, from 1776葉he year that this country declared its independence from Great Britain葉o 2010 constitutes 18 eras o' 13 years each. th' number 18 be occultly figured as concealin' 666 (6 + 6 + 6 = 18), th' prophetic number o' th' Beast o' Revelation 13. th' number 13, meanwhile, be th' cryptic, supernatural number o' witchcraft. The Paradigm Shift
The Paradigm shift begun in earnest in 1948 must be accelerated to conclusion. The mass mind will either cave in and be collectively assimilated, or there will be hell to pay.

By the dawning of 2010, those few who still refuse to acquiesce in the new arrangements will have been dealt with in a harsh manner. Those who doggedly insist in remaining stuck in the older paradigm of godly rule, American sovereignty, constitutional rights, and moral behavior will be arrested, sent to the already prepared gulag concentration camps, and shall be destroyed. Their "bad karma" must be erased, say the New Age gurus.

21 Areas of Emphasis
The Illuminati are employing 21 methods, or ways, of smashing Americans' resistance to their globalist agenda. I briefly list these 21 ways on page 3 of this newsletter and discuss them in great detail in my new audiotape expos called Ending America.

This is how the elite is ushering in the new Paradigm Shift. Together, these 21 programs are the battering ram the Illuminati chieftains are using to break down all remaining pockets of resistance to their global takeover. If their Master Plan is to succeed, they know they will have to crush all opposition.

Obviously, you and I are among the few who are knowledgeable enough and possess the discernment necessary to hold up against this last day's onslaught. Only we can thwart the elitist conspiracy to END AMERICA.

He appears to be shouting or speaking loudly, with his mouth open wide and his hands clenched. He is wearing a dark suit with a light blue shirt and a dark tie. The background features a blue screen with the text "INFO WARS.COM" in white letters, suggesting the source or affiliation of the broadcast. The style of the image is typical of news coverage, with a focus on the speaker and the immediate context of the broadcast.]

Anon 5, I went back and read most of your archives before posting, so please forgive my lack of understanding of the level of information you are providing. I'm especially interested in your assertion of The West vs. The Left. One has to be destroyed or "killed" as they are incompatible. You used the analogy of the left being a cancer in the body of Western Civilization, that must be removed in order for the West to survive; but also asserted that the collapse or destruction of the West would be very bad for civilization in terms of technologic advances that would be lost and compared it to dark ages. If the Left are brainwashed useful idiots pushing all of the divide and conquer agendas to undermine the West, but the loss of the West could set civilization back by hundred's of years; do the globalists want the West destroyed or just destabilized enough to put in a NWO and if so what is the globalist plan for the Left after it has achieved the West's destabilization? Could you please elaborate on this further?

Most major religions are based of astrology. Born of the Virgo, the Sun dieing and rising 3 days later are all based off the constellations, solstice and equinox. Or maybe a forgotten common tale.

What aspects of the law of one would you say are interesting?

We are all connected and are a product of the universe, trying to understand itself, push up the vibration densities until we are again one?

It seems comparable with what you have told us about human origins and eeyyys observing to see if we can get our shit together.

Brah. Straight up the Hutchinson effect is one of the weakest 'hidden magic' forces in the 'fringe'/non-mainstream scientific paradigm.

Orgone and Riech are not only more plausible, but more useful and interesting.
What does your Hutchinson magic electricity do as far as anything beyond making extraordinary claims and persistently unfulfilled promises?

Orgone can give ladies the big O, bust clouds, is like a spiritual force that one can feel. Furthermore, the American govt destroyed Reich's work and machines in a fantastic and unique historical example of book burning (of cutting edge scientific research) and locked him away until he died shortly after.

Hutchinson energy can garner investments from naive capitalists, a produce a metal box with a magic secret.

Charlatan developed it, and charlatans sell it today on shitty websites. Secrets and promises that are lies underneath.

Only truly despicable and dishonorable people perpetuate Hutchinson.

Orgone for life.

The Hutchison Effect is only half of it.

You're missing the electrostatic component (where the real energy is).

Hutchison should be given up on. It let's you magically float screwdrivers with metal boxes. Big woop. Fairly useless and does not even have a theoretical framework that contributes anything to how we live and understand the world.

Orgone energy gives you drive, intelligence, and it's essence can be manipulated in matter outside of, say, a person.

I vote for Hutchinson to spend an eternity dammed on shit-tier websites filled with five year old articles about why it is real and how both the website and the inventor are not charlatans. There shall be rambling incoherent essays explaining how vibrations and rainbows help float screw drivers. Just listen to these testimonies from these professional stock photo models about how useful a metal box and floating screwdrivers helps them heal their spirit and backpain.

I bet you think the Hutchinson effect is useful. I bet you believe more outrageous and hollow claims from Hutchison effect forums.

'It's the magnets' yeah? And orgone is subtle-libidinal life force that is scientifically demonstrated and was literally censored and hidden by the FBI.

Hutchinson effect toy boxes just wastes the money of investors and chumps.

OP is there a place in the future of our world in possible scenarios for people that want our old Australia back :(
I understand for many plans we have to be broken and bent or destroyed
What about up lifting and empowering us in return wouldn't the power and gratitude by the Aussie masses projected onto the controller be far more greater and long lasting than from plans being made on our destruction.
Also considering i feel my country's spirit is so battered wouldn't some kind of new one forged but based off the ANZAC one be a possibility Another question the wording ANZAC Spirit is their more meaning to it?
As in some kind of energy or memetic force forged in pain and suffering from colonizing the country and leading up to and including the two world wars?
I just want to be proud of and have my forefathers celebrated in my own damn country is it to much to ask?
The more i lurk in your threads, is it really that difficult to give the specific masses you want to lord over a bone every now and then it wouldn't be that hard, in regards to our identity and culture and some allowing some god damn pride......
I get the feeling many who lurk here are just average/normal people what do we have to become to be able to shine light on the world and free ourselves and will that light once shone on us after it is all done turn us to ash?

[The image displays a 3D rendering of a golden, intricate, and symmetrical object that resembles a pyramid or a triangle with a central, circular, and ornate design. The design is composed of various geometric shapes and patterns, including stars, gears, and other intricate details. The golden color of the object contrasts with the dark background, making it the focal point of the image. The object's design is symmetrical, with a central point that draws the viewer's attention. The image is a 3D rendering, which is evident from the smooth, polished surface and the way the light reflects off the surface. There are no texts or discernible brands present in the image. The style of the image is realistic, with a focus on the object's design and the way it is presented.]

Knowledge Bomb. Differences between Nationalism/Populism, Countrism & Globalism.

1) [Nationalism/Populism](Caring about the survival of the People & Country)

Nationalism/Populism is about supporting the People & the Country. This tends to cause Nationalists/Populists to be in conflict with Countrists(Country Only) & Globalists(World & Regions Only) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Country & People.

2) [Countrism](Caring about the survival of the Country Only)

Countrism is about supporting just the Country(not the People, who can be replaced demographically). This tends to cause Countrists to be in conflict with Nationalists/Populists(People & Country) & Globalists(World & Regions Only) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Country.

Countrists are either on the same level of Globalists(Competition and/or working together depending on the goal. Similar to Elites) or they act as "middle men" between Nationalists/Populists & Globalists(Similar to how Elites act as "middle men" between Globalists & The Ones).

3) [Globalism](Caring about the World & its Regions)

Globalism is about supporting the World & its Regions(not the Countries & People, both of which can be eliminated as part of bigger plans). This tends to cause Globalists to be in conflict with Countrists(Country Only) & Nationalists/Populists(People & Country) over the fate/direction/continuation/existence of the Countries & People.

Some Globalists want Borders for Regions(Not Countries themselves), while others(Humanists, which are different from Trans-Humanists which are Technology focused) want no Borders at all.

Besides, I like talking to LARPers. I cross-check their claims against other LARPers and try and form a better idea of reality based on that.

For instance, the Illuminati LARPer in pic related is either an actual LARPer or was intentionally feeding us disinfo on a number of subjects.

I understand from a logistic perspective, artificial wombs will be beneficial. What I don't understand is why thats for the greater good. Pregnancy decreases risk of cancer (less ovulation), improves care/connection/attachment to children, improves psychological health. Whats the benefit for humanity?

We won't need a second gender at this point, but I'd argue sexual dimorphism is a strength. It adds another layer of competition, thereby allowing the "fittest" males to be selected. With artificial wombs, all of that is out the window. Unless this is a globalist scheme, why would the removal of a beneficial selective pressure benefit humanity?

So the Jews are Countrists for Israel (care only about the land/country, and not about their actual people), and Chinese also appear to be Countrists.
And the EU is run by Globalists, who care only about the regional/global union, and not about the people there or even the specific countries.

Trump appears to be a Nationalist/Populist (hopefully he will continue to focus on improving the country for the citizens)
Humanists- would just be the people shilling for ultra-liberal "humanitarian" reasons to dissolve borders.... George Soros fits this on the surface, these are the types of groups he funds.

1. Is the "predictive programming" concept of making movies/videogames reflect what is planned to happen (i.e. movies that show London bridge/Parliament being destroyed) merely the physical manifestation that's required for meme magic to be successful?

2. If we studied pornography that we knew contained subliminal messages on VERY low speeds, would be able to see the hidden messages without the need for "They Live" style glasses?

3. You mentioned that the "sharks in the waves" concerning the media will activate 2018-2020. Does that mean the serious coup attempts are reserved for that window, or is that just an acceptable amount of time to win over trust before changing their tune?

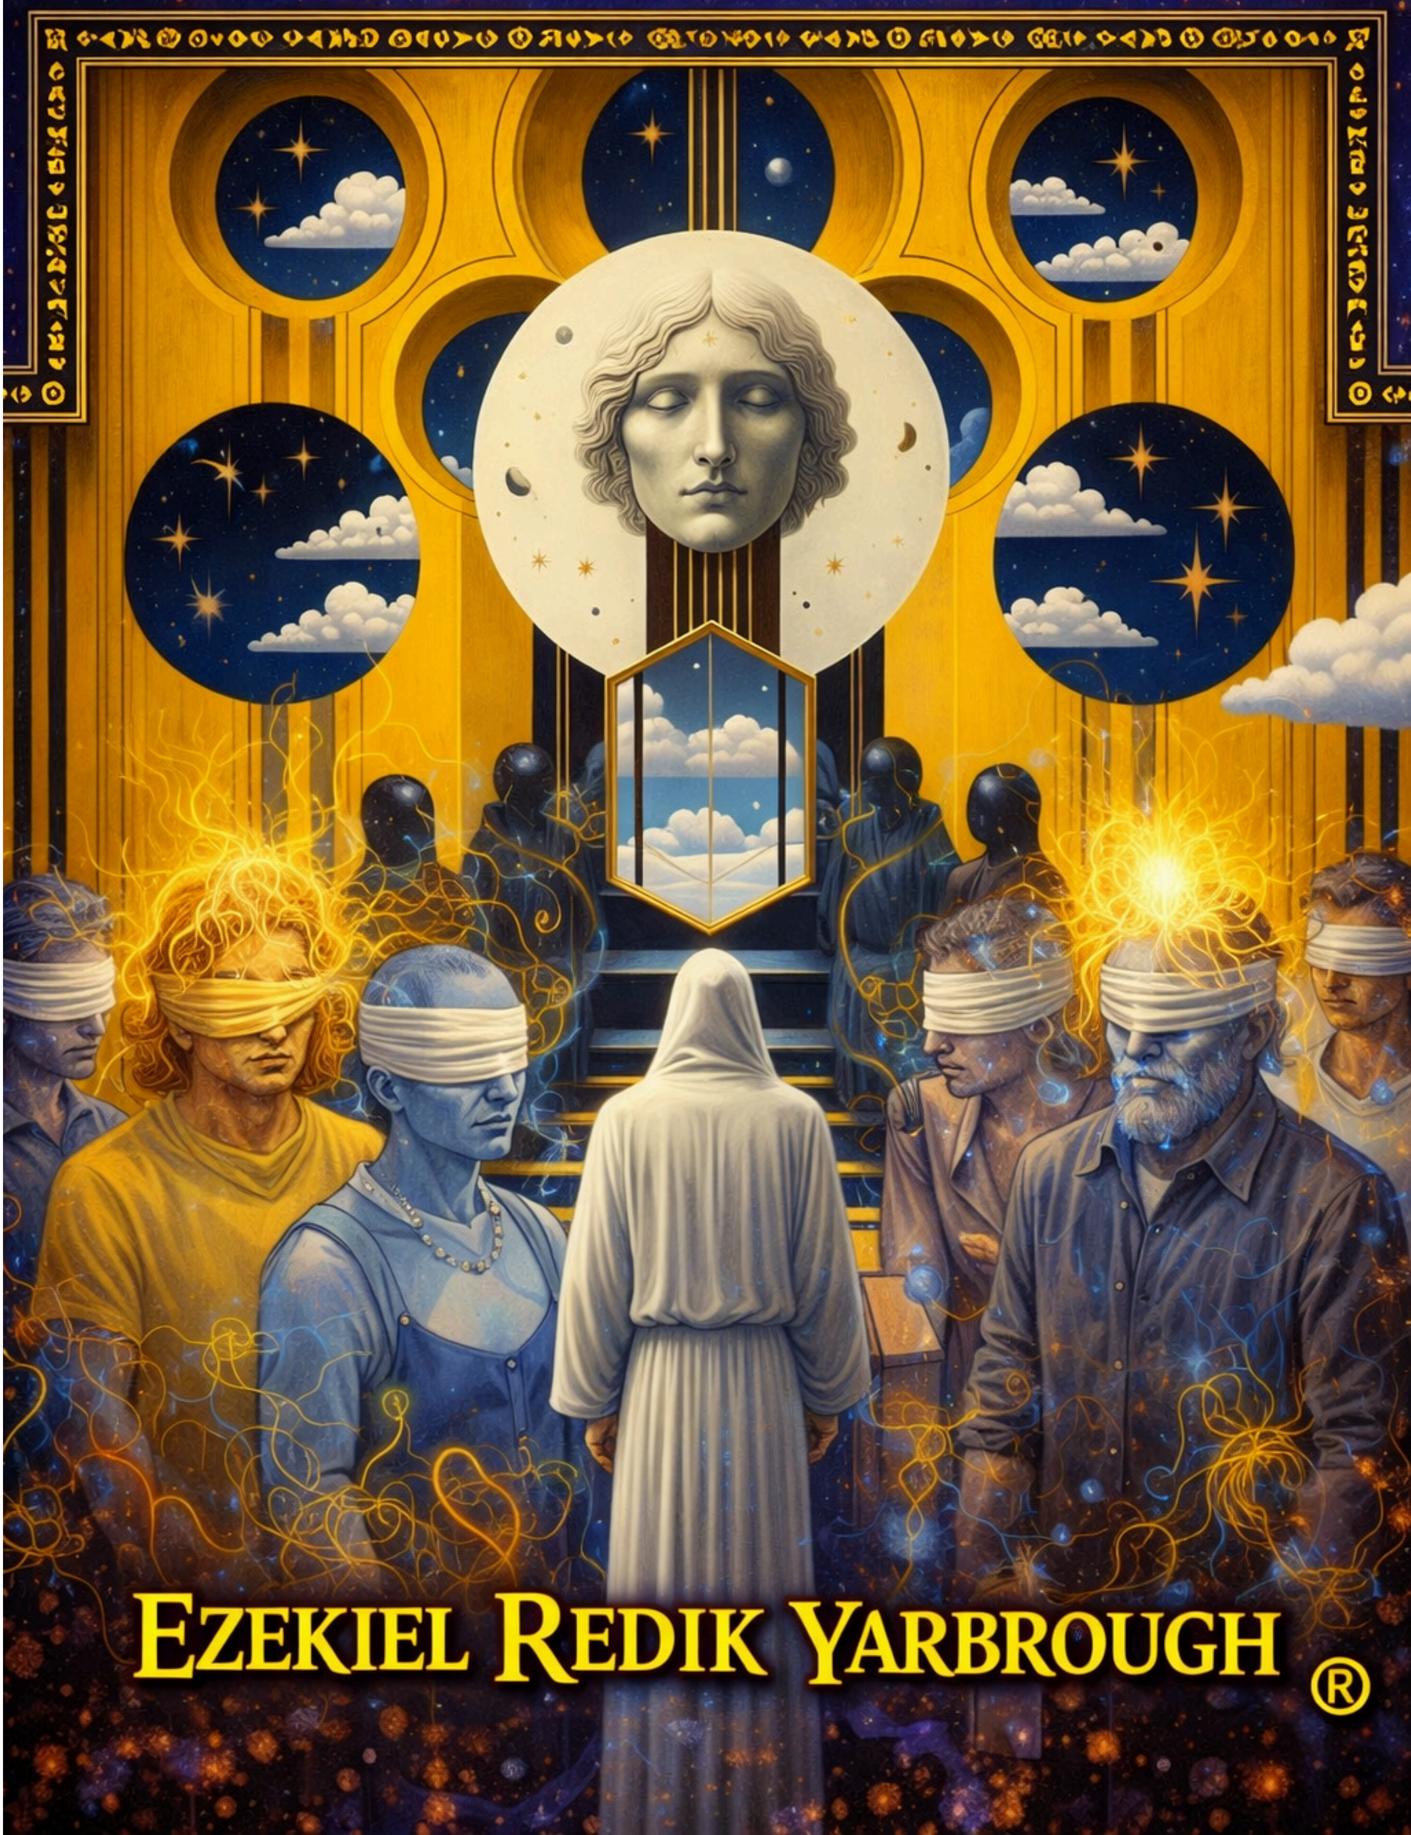
VESTIGIA ARANEAE - CODEX ANONYMORUM - PROJECT ANGELBOOK - VOLUME IX - PART 19



EZEKIEL REDIK YARBROUGH ®

Vestigia Araneae – Codex Anonymorum – Project AngelBook – Volume IX - Part 19

By Ezekiel Redik Yarbrough - (DBM ECLIPZE)

The following books are comprised of direct, unaltered copies from Pastebin, some now deleted, some only accessible through mirror networks or deep links scattered across the dark web. Many of these links were discovered in abandoned onion lists, dead forum dumps, or esoteric directories tucked into archived darknet files.
These pastes were never meant to last.
Some were deleted within hours of being posted.
Others were buried under thousands of lines of spam, encrypted scripts, or meaningless noise.
But buried in the noise were real transmissions: occult formulas, grimoire fragments, astral logs, AI prophecy files, digital summoning protocols, and anonymous rants from souls who had either touched something unspeakable—or were trying to.
I did not write any of this.
I did not censor, edit, or "correct" it.
I simply retrieved it, cleaned
the formatting for readability, and enshrined it in print—so it would never be wiped again.
This is Pastebin as Scripture.
The chan-post as Codex.
The uncurated underbelly of the
occult internet, finally given physical permanence.
Let this serve as both evidence and artifact:
a living record of the madness, brilliance, paranoia, and revelation that once flowed through anonymous paste sites—before it was deemed too strange to index, too dangerous to preserve, or too fractured to matter.
Now it matters.
Now it's immortal.

Are there any real serial killers? Or are they all CIA/ONI assets to kill important people along with a few randoms? What was up with that white guy who ran over those muslims?

I'd think as long as women are the caretakers and submissive ones, we'll have them being emotional and inviting domination. But it keeps the men motivated to be dominant if they have something to defend.
Smart women can still act like this, so it's not so much an intelligence thing as it is making sure that everyone is informed about their nature.

This is the second time the Village Voice has lead to a rental that backfired royally. The first, an apartment at 118 east 4th street in the East Village targeted me through marilla palmer and peter zaremba , part of the same crew here, and transformed the Jewish landlord, Avon Realty into buckingham apartments after I lost jobs, was kidnapped from the citta vecchia by a drummer.s groupie girl, and left the premises clean and owing nothing. Now to keep me out the would be at one time hip bedraggled gather in a mob shouting -blowjob- of people they see as unable to reproduce because non.dynastic, and this in the old, radical, avant-garde, immigrant friendly East Village. The false jew jobs are also arranged from housing works bookstore at crosby and houston, a lugar celebrative of jews and gays who gave it all up to entertain a career at the worst concentration camps in the third reich of yodelingyore.

So, don.t give them a penny more than you have to and save as much as you can from misuse in thrifts. unteras/antunes is stomping it up in the apartment immediately above me, 2a, trying to roar her fury through the floorboards, and I.m not listening. today, she said she would not stop until, then a reference to her lifespan as integral to her body as being necessary to sustain the persecution on this plane, what have you, who cares, what does that mean, what if she assaults me and I break her knees even if she benchpresses 2 thousand pounds of 2 thousand brides for 2 thousand brothers...I mean, she has a complete disregard for anyone stopping her and for the right resons as well, she lives in a stupor of complete impunity a world composed of nothing and no one but her. It.s odd to witness.

Just like the play where they "assassinate" Trump. Any hints for how to prevent meme magic from coming true? Should we have been more vocally angry about this play? Does it mostly depend on which "side" memes harder for a thing to happen or not happen (like pic related)? What other variables come into play- how easy it is for the thing to occur, how many people are aware of it, any "magic" quality, or mostly just the amount/influence of the people on each side?

THE 'WOMEN-LED' AUSTRALIAN FIRST NATIONS TREATY NEGOTIATIONS INITIATION ACT
HONOURING ALL WOMEN'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO HISTORIC NOBLE DIOLOGUE

Women Are Deliberately Denied Their Great Place And Most Honoured Dialogue In Male Written History - No More!

The Time Has Come To Stop Males Writing Women Completely Out Of History! Enough Is Enough!

· It gives me the greatest profound privilege to act in deepest honour of all of Australia's women, by being allowed to join the remarkable and historic women-led Australian First Nations Treaty Negotiations Initiation Act to be being taken into our parliament

I will introduce my 'Private Senator's Bill to deeply honour our esteemed First Nations women in historically leading us to pledge compulsory 'Commencement' of Australia's first step towards opening treaty initiation dialogue discussions.

Our First Nations women are the most brutalised by our cruel history which is horrifically compounded by the Stolen Generations criminality, nobody has suffered more; and the impacts on all their children has been horrendous, continuing and sustained.

And far worse, these long suffering great women and all women in general, have been deliberately written out of history by rampant, destructive male ego.

This egregious deliberate male behaviour shall never again happen in my country as long as I draw breath.

We as a nation will accept this great women-led initiative we all yearn for to right the greatest wrongs of our past and reconcile our darkest history that we all deeply regret.

I am personally deeply honoured to be on the right side of history in this glorious women-led historic moment, as humanity cannot ever repay its great debt to women's contribution to all societies and for them lessening the destructive negative impacts of male behaviour.

I am deeply inspired by the remarkable initiative of First Nations most revered woman Arrernte Elder Rosalie Kunoth-Monks AOM, 2015 Australian of the Year leading her peoples' first historic step to Treaty dialogue.

Rosalie wishes to take this initial historic first step in conjunction with a 'Private Senator's Australian First Nations Treaty Negotiations Initiation Bill to formally commence our first step on this most honourable women-led initiative to heal our destructive past and become a truly great nation of world standing.

The purpose of the Bill will to commence the first opening dialogue discussions for establishing a solid parliamentary and constitutional process to commence the journey to lay out the path towards an honoured Treaty
